NEW FLAG FLYING OVER ISUE.

A Bicentennial Flag is now flying on the ISUE flagpoles beside the United States flag, the State of Indiana flag, and the flag of the United Nations. Ordered through the Evansville Bicentennial Commission of which Darrel Bigham, Asst. Professor of History, is Chairman, the flag will be flying over the University through 1976.

Groups interested in purchasing a Bicentennial flag may do so by contacting Dr. Bigham of the Evansville Bicentennial Commission.

4TH OF JULY HOLIDAY. Offices of Indiana State University Evansville will be closed Friday, July 4, in observance of the 4th of July.

STRONGEST MAN TO BE AT CENTRAL ARENA. A weightlifting contest sponsored by The Evansville Freedom Festival will take place at the ISUE Central Arena on June 28 at 2:30 p.m. Paul Anderson, the strongest man in the world, is scheduled to perform a weightlifting demonstration before the competition begins. Two teams, one from Evansville and one from Kentucky, will be pitted against each other in the competition. The contest will be open to the public with no admission fee.

AVAILABLE HOUSING LISTING. A ten-page typed list of available housing in the Evansville area has been prepared by Ralph Kent, Asst. Registrar and Coordinator of Off-Campus Housing, and is available for ISUE faculty, staff and students upon request.

J. M. DAVIS NOW RECUPERATING AT HOME. J. Maxwell Davis, Associate Professor of Life Science and Teacher Certification Director, has returned to his home at 818 South Rotherwood, Evansville, 47714, after open heart surgery at Cleveland Clinic. Mr. Davis is recuperating very well and has enjoyed receiving cards and letters from his friends and associates at ISUE.

ECONOMICS CLASS TO BE ADDRESSED BY MAYOR LLOYD. On Thursday, June 26, 1975

the "Economics of Urban Problems" class taught by J. Eliseo DaRosa, Professor of Economics, will be held in the Mayor's Office of the Evansville Civic Center. Mayor Russell Lloyd will address the class on the topic of "Crime and Criminal Justice in Evansville." The class is scheduled to begin at 10:00 a.m., with a question/answer period following the Mayor's address. Local media will cover this first-time event in which the city administration has worked with a class at ISUE.

THE ISSUE LIBRARY BECOMES MEMBER OF AISA. The ISSUE Library received approval of the ISU Board of Trustees at their June meeting to become members of the Four Rivers Area Library Services Authority and the Evansville Area Health Science Library Consortium. ALSA is a cooperative association of all types of libraries within a geographical region. ISUE is located in area 13 which includes eleven southwest counties containing 31 school libraries, 3 vocational libraries, 2 junior college libraries, 4 academic libraries, 10 special libraries (law, medical, historical, etc.), 5 hospital libraries, 1 correctional school library, and 1 residential school library. Charles M. Lonnberg, Director of Library, will be on the ALSA board of directors.

The Evansville Area Health Science Library Consortium consists of institutions or agencies in this area (universities, hospitals, etc.) that have health science libraries. The interlibrary loan service will be represented by Mrs. Ruth Hahn, Reader Services Librarian, who will serve as secretary of this group. Mr. Lonnberg will be the representative to the Consortium.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS.

CHARLES T. BARBER, Assistant Professor of Political Science at Indiana State University Evansville, will deliver a speech, "The United Nations at 30," to the luncheon meeting of the East Side Optimist Club on Monday, June 30 at The Flame Restaurant.

NEW FACES.

MRS. JULIE S. GAUL has joined the ISUE staff as Administrative Secretary in the President's Office. An Evansville native and a Mater Dei graduate, Julie received her B.S. degree in English from ISUE in 1974. Before accepting employment at ISUE, she held the position of Secretary/Receptionist at Ball Advertising, Inc. Julie enjoys past-time activities of knitting, golf and tennis.
