

USI SCHEDULE

WEEK OF NOVEMBER 8

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES

Tuesday, November 10 -- "L'Aventura" (1960, 145 minutes) Director: Michelangelo Antonioni; cast: Monica Vitti, Gabriele Ferzetti, Lea Massari. A young girl disappears on a yachting trip. Her lover and best friend begin an affair while searching for her in this penetrating study of Italy's idle rich.

(The films are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, (812) 464-1747 or 1734.)

---

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY DAYS

Wednesday and Friday, -- Southern Hospitality Days, when area high school students and their parents are invited to visit the campus, will be held from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. each day. Students will have the opportunity to learn about academic programs, fees and financial aids, and student housing and activities. They will tour the campus and MASH (Mid-America Student Housing), meet with academic division chairmen, and sit in on classes of their choosing.

(For information, contact the Office of Admissions, (812) 464-1765.)

---

GENERAL EDUCATION REFORM LECTURE

Thursday, November 12 -- Dr. Jean Gillies, professor of art history at Northeastern Illinois University where she has been chairman of the Art Department and now is associate coordinator of the Academic

(MORE)

University of
Southern Indiana

8600 University Boulevard • Evansville, Indiana 47712

Advisement Program, will give the third and final lecture in the General Education Reform Committee series. The lecture on "The Tradition of Western Art in the Medieval Period" will be presented at 3:30 p.m. in SC 254. Dr. Gillies will spend two days (November 12-13) meeting with USI faculty and classes and also will visit the Evansville Museum of Arts and Science.

(For information, contact the Division of Humanities, (812) 464-1734.)

---

NEW START SEMINAR

Saturday, November 14 -- The Office of Admissions again is sponsoring a New Start Seminar from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the University Center. Adults interested in attending college or changing their careers are invited to participate in workshops on Career Options, Financial Aid, Stress and Anxiety, and Personality Assessment.

(For information, contact Mrs. Ann Cooper, admissions counselor, (812) 464-1765.)

---

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

Monday, November 9 -- The Trio: Isaac Stern, Yo-Yo Ma, and Emmanuel Ax in concert at Indiana University; bus leaves USI at 4 p.m.

Tuesday, November 10 -- Competitive Swim Training
Management Diagnostic Center

Wednesday, November 11 -- Veterans Day Children's Museum trip, Indianapolis
Improving Customer Service, Jasper
Problem Employees in Health Care

Thursday, November 12 -- Improving Customer Service, USI
Writing for Professionals

Friday, November 13 -- Telephone Selling

Saturday, November 14 -- Advanced Lotus 1-2-3
Super Saturday for Children

(For information, contact the Office of Continuing Education, (812) 464-1863.)

USI SCHEDULE

ADD - WEEK OF NOVEMBER 8

OFFICE OF CONTINUING EDUCATION CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

Wednesday, November 11 -- Openings still remain for the Veterans Day bus trip to Indianapolis to visit the Children's Museum. The trip is open to youngsters age 7 and older and supervision will be available on a five-to-one ratio. The $40 registration fee includes transportation, lunch, and supper.

Saturday, November 14 -- The fall Super Saturday for Children will feature the age-old battle between good and evil in "From Grendel to Darth Vader," as students discover and share with others the heroes and villains in classical and modern fiction. Activities also will include crafts and drama.

(For information on either program, contact the Office of Continuing Education, [812] 464-1863.)

---

WEEK OF NOVEMBER 15

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES

Tuesday, November 17 -- "The Magic Flute" (1975, 134 minutes, Swedish with English subtitles) Director: Ingmar Bergman; cast: Ulrik Cold, Josef Kostlinger, Erik Saeden. In addition to being an essay on the difficulty of creating great art, Bergman's adaptation of Mozart's opera is an enchanting and thoroughly enjoyable triumph. Mozart's score supplies the backbone of this tale of love, magic, and quest as it follows a pair of star-crossed lovers and an impish little man whose greatest desire is to find a wife.

(The films are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, [812] 464-1747 or 1734.)

---

(MORE)

EXECUTIVE-IN-RESIDENCE

Friday, November 20 -- Robert L. Koch II, president and director of George Koch Sons, Inc., will be the fall Executive-in-Residence in a program sponsored by the Division of Business to expand opportunities for students beyond the classroom. Koch will lead discussion sessions at 9:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. and speak at a noon luncheon. All sessions are open to the public. The discussions are free while lunch is $5; reservations should be made by Wednesday, November 18, by calling (812) 464-1718.

(For information, contact Dr. Kenneth Settle, chairman of the Division of Business, [812] 464-1718.)

---

NCAA DIVISION II CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS

Saturday, November 21 -- USI will be host for the NCAA Division II Cross Country Championships. Teams will compete on a course set up at Oak Meadow Golf and Country Club north of Evansville.

(For information, contact Dr. William Stegemoller, men's cross country coach, [812] 464-1710, or Bob Barrett, coordinator of sports information, 464-1895.)

---

PRIDE COLLEGE FAIR

Saturday, November 21 -- The third annual College Fair aimed at enhancing and promoting higher education among minority students within the University area will be held from 2 p.m. to 12 midnight at the University Center, sponsored by the USI Office of Admissions and PRIDE (People Responsible for Improving the Development of Education). Activities will include workshops on Financial Aid, Career Development, and Higher Education; dinner in the U.C. Dining Room, with a keynote speaker; and the Eagles basketball game with IU/PU-Indianapolis. A dance will follow the game, sponsored by the Black Student Union.

(For information, contact Ms. Candace Hinton, USI admissions counselor, [812] 464-1765.)

---

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

Monday, November 16 -- Lotus 1-2-3

Tuesday, November 17 -- Business Grammar Brush-UP

Thursday, November 19 -- Leadership Skills

(For information, contact the Office of Continuing Education, (812) 464-1863.)

USI SCHEDULE THROUGH DECEMBER 5

ADD — WEEK OF NOVEMBER 15

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Sherrianne Standley, University Relations
(812) 464-1902

USI/PRIDE COLLEGE FAIR

Saturday, November 21 -- Dr. Yosef A. Ben-Jochannan, author, lecturer, and Egyptologist, will be the keynote dinner speaker for the third annual Minority College Fair at USI, sponsored by the USI Admissions Office and PRIDE (People Responsible for Improving the Development of Education). More than 30 universities, colleges, and technical organizations will have representatives available to discuss programs with students, parents, and counselors. The fair will begin at 1 p.m.; the dinner program will start around 5 p.m. Dr. Ben-Jochannan is an adjunct professor of history in the African Studies and Research Center at Cornell University.

(For information, contact Ms. Kandace Hinton, USI admissions counselor, [812] 464-1765.)

---

WEEK OF NOVEMBER 22

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES

Tuesday, November 24 -- "Women in Love" (1969, 130 minutes) Director: Ken Russell; cast: Glenda Jackson, Oliver Reed, Alan Bates. Russell's atmospheric film focuses on the relationships between two men and two women and explores the range of sensuality that obsessed D. H. Lawrence and made him such a controversial figure in his day.

(The films are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, [812] 464-1747 or 1734.)

---

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY

Wednesday, November 25 — Classes will be recessed until Monday, November 30. Thursday-Friday, November 26-27 — The University will be closed.

(MORE)

University of Southern Indiana

8600 University Boulevard • Evansville, Indiana 47712

WEEK OF NOVEMBER 29

HUMANITIES FORUM

Monday, November 30 -- Liam Rector, executive director of the Associated Writing Program at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia, will present a poetry reading from his book, The Sorrow of Architecture, at 7 p.m. in the University Center. The public is invited.

(For information, contact Mr. Matthew Graham, assistant professor of English [812] 464-1953 or 1734.)

---

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES

Tuesday, December 1 -- "The Marriage of Maria Braun" (1978, 120 minutes) Director: Rainer Werner Fassbinder; cast: Hanna Schygulla. This movie is the most spectacular product of Fassbinder's career and probably of the entire New German Cinema. Mixing soap opera, sexual politics, offbeat comedy, epic romance, current history, social satire, and period piece, Fassbinder uses the story as a metaphor for the fate of postwar Germany. Maria Braun is one of the richest female roles of recent film history and Hanna Schygulla has established herself as the most exciting new German star since Marlene Dietrich.

(The films are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, [812] 464-1747 or 1734.)

---

HUMANITIES FORUM

Wednesday, December 2 -- Robert O. Meadors, guest director for the USI Theater production of "The Glass Menagerie" on December 3-12, will discuss Tennessee Williams's first masterpiece in a Humanities Forum at 2 p.m. in the University Center. The public is invited. Meadors formerly directed U.S. military touring shows and music and theater programs in Germany for 18 years.

(For information, contact Matthew Graham, assistant professor of English, [812] 464-1953 or 1734.)

---

(MORE)

CHRISTMAS MADRIGALS

Thursday-Sunday, -- The Mid-America Singers annual Christmas Madrigal Feastes will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday and 6 p.m. Sunday in the University Dining Center. Tickets are $15 each, with a special $10 price available to students and senior citizens for the Sunday evening performance only.

(For information, contact Mrs. Sue Schriber, director, [812] 464-1736, or the Division of Humanities, 464-1734.)

---

USI THEATER

Thursday-Sunday -- The USI Theater will present the second of this season's American classics, "The Glass Menagerie," Tennessee Williams first masterpiece. Robert O. Meadors is guest director for this production. Curtain time will be 8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, 2 p.m. Sunday. Tickets are $5 for the public, $3 for students.

(For information, contact Dr. James R. Blevins, chairman of the Division of Humanities, (812) 464-1734, or Dr. Douglas Hubbell, director of USI Theater, [812] 464-1737 or 1734. The theater number is 422-3970.)

---

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

Tuesday, November 24 -- Advanced dBASE III+

Wednesday, December 2 -- Successfully Managing People, Jasper

(For information, contact the Office of Continuing Education, (812) 464-1863.)