LILLY GRANTS MEETINGS. The Extended University Program Steering Committee will meet during Spring Semester on Tuesdays, January 23, March 6, and April 24. Preliminary proposals for projects to be initiated in summer or fall 1990 should be submitted for committee review no later than the March meeting. Eight copies of the proposals should be submitted to the EUP chairman, Dr. M. Edward Jones, OC1065, no later than the Wednesday before the date on which it is to be considered. For information about the Extended University Program or proposal guidelines, call Dr. Jones at extension 1863.

USI THEATRE AUDITIONS. The USI Theatre Department has scheduled auditions for spring and summer productions, to be held from 6 to 9 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, January 16-17, in the USI Playhouse at Igleheart and Barker avenues. Men and women are needed for four productions: The Sandbox by Edward Albee and Strip-tease by Slawomir Mrozek, a double billing to be presented February 22 through March 4; The Imaginary Invalid by Moliere, to be presented April 26; and the Young Abe Lincoln outdoor musical drama by Billy Edd Wheeler, which will have its fourth-year run from June 15 through August 26 at Lincoln State Park outdoor amphitheatre.

YOUR $400 USI FOUNDATION CONTRIBUTION ACTUALLY WILL COST YOU ONLY $88.00!

Here's how.....

You are married, living in Indiana, and filing a joint income tax return. The State of Indiana will pay $200 of the $400 gift, or 50 percent, as an income tax credit. In addition, if your federal tax rate is 28 percent and you itemize deductions, your charitable deduction on your federal income tax return is worth $112. Your gift to the USI Foundation is worth $400, but the net cost to you will be only $88.00.

Using the same criteria for married taxpayers, the net cost of a $100 gift will be only $22 or a $200 gift just $44.

Using the same criteria for single taxpayers, a $50 gift will cost only $11; a $100 gift only $22; or a $200 gift only $44.

Even though the USI Foundation traditionally sends appeal letters at year-end, January may be an even better time to give, especially if you plan to make your contribution through payroll deductions. Just complete the Payroll Deduction form and forward it to the Development Office/USI Foundation Office. We'll do the rest!

The USI Foundation raises unrestricted monies each year, over 40 percent of which goes for faculty research, student-faculty research, faculty development, Presidential Scholarships, or the Community of Scholars program. In addition, there are more than 100 designated funds which help support each of the academic schools, the Presidential Scholarships, the new Secretaries and Associates Scholarship, Historic New Harmony, and many others.

You help yourself AND the University where you give at the office!

Those auditioning are encouraged to prepare two contrasting monologues that can be presented in two minutes. Materials will be available for "cold readings," however. Call backs will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. on Friday, January 18; auditioners are asked to check the call board, which will be posted in the corridor outside the School of Liberal Arts office. For information, contact Mr. Allen E. King, assistant professor of communications, at extension 1624 or the USI Playhouse, 422-3970, or the school office, extension 1630.

"There were about 8,000 cars in the United States, only ten miles of concrete pavement, few spray cans to destroy the ozone layer. Everyone ate natural foods. The air was relatively unpolluted, and the ground was free of aluminum cans. There were no sugar substitutes and no artificial coloring. We had no atomic waste or PCBs, and our average life expectancy was 47 years. The year was 1900.

"Today we are doing everything wrong, and the life expectancy is up to 75 years, and, if we are not careful, it could hit 90." (William J. McIlrath in Reader's Digest, November 1989, submitted by Larry Goss, professor of engineering technology.)
