Performance Center ribbon cutting set for September 3

An official ribbon cutting ceremony for the University of Southern Indiana's new Performance Center will take place at 1:30 p.m., Thursday, September 3 on the main stage of the center. The ceremony will include the ribbon cutting as well as musical performances and tours of the facility.

Features of the Performance Center include:

- Thrust stage with additional staging areas incorporated into the walls
- Light wall containing thousands of computer controlled LED lights with a full spectrum of colors
- Sound baffle system with acoustic panels created with donated materials
- Steinway concert grand piano specifically crafted for the center

The USI Performance Center is located adjacent to the east wing of the University Center facing University Boulevard. Parking is available in Lot C. This event is free and open to the public.
