SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

Friday, February 12 -- Dr. John L. Nethers, chairman of the Social Science Department at Ashland (Ohio) College and a professor of history widely known for his studies of the Amish in North America, will be the Scholar-in-Residence, lecturing at a 10 a.m. sociology class and a 12 noon history class, both meeting in Forum I. His respective topics will be "Amish Social Practices: Tradition and Change" and "The Amish Past and Present: The Role of a Minority Religious Group in Modern America." The lectures are sponsored by the Division of Social Science and are open to the public.

(For information, contact Dr. Donald Pitzer, professor of history, at [812] 464-1727 or 1719.)

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 21

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES

Tuesday, February 23 -- "Citizen Kane" (1941, 119 minutes) Director: Orson Wells; cast: Orson Wells, Dorothy Comingore, Joseph Cotton, Everett Sloane, Ray Collins, Agnes Moorehead, George Coulouris, Ruth Warrick. This movie is considered by many to be America's greatest film masterpiece, both because of its technical virtuosity and the significance of its theme. Kane, a wealthy and powerful American, fails to live up to his potential because he is personally flawed.

(The films are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, [812] 464-1747 or 1734.)
