GET YOUR MISTLETOE BALL (DANCE) TICKET, NOW, NOW ! ! ! ! ! !

PLACE: Civic Center DATE: December 29 TIME: 9 p.m. PRICE: Couple $3

DANCE THE NIGHT AWAY: Get the Message Around ...A Top Indiana Hoosier Xmas Affair - - -

BE A PART (Not A Separate Part) OF ISUE! BUY YOUR TICKET NOW.

Contrary To Local Tradition Married Couples Are Invited And Encouraged To Attend: ISUE Approved Baby Sitters and Attendants For Young Kids To Look After Children, will be on hand.

By, STEVE HACKER, Fourth Estate Club Member.

The ISUE Mistletoe Ball Committee will discuss plans related to getting the faculty to the dance, especially those who remain in Evansville during the Christmas recess. Any faculty member who needs assistance in getting to the dance should call Gayle Clark, 425-7347. HA! HA! HA!

The dance committee extends a special invitation to the ISUE secretarial staff, administrative employees, and established friends of ISUE. An important part they are! They keep the place in gear!

Chairman of the individual committees are working with Tom Scott, general chairman. Other chairmen include: Sandy Welder, decorations; Charley Reid, publicity and advertising; Nancy Jolly, tickets; and Peggy Alexander, refreshments.

Anyone who misses Tom Scott and the Apollos on December 29, will wake up the next morning with a very foul taste in his mouth, closely akin to the taste that comes from eating rotten olives all night.

This will come about as a result of not being in attendance at the largest entertainment spectacle yet undertaken by students of the ISUE campus. The Apollos will provide four hours of fast-paced dynamic sounds; therefore, it is up to the students to provide four hours of romping, stomping gala festivity.

Consequently, anyone not planning to attend this event should at least have the foresight to obtain a bottle of strong detergent mouthwash. It will ease the pain a little!

I plan to come; you should give it serious contemplation.

CLASSES START WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3; FINANCIAL AIDS OFFICIALS WILL BE ON CAMPUS JANUARY 12 and 13 TO ARRANGE LOANS FOR STUDENTS WHO PLAN TO ENTER EITHER ISUE OR ISU NEXT YEAR.

By, STEVE ADAMS, Fourth Estate Club Member.

The Christmas recess has been extended through January 2. Classes will resume on Wednesday, January 3.

If you plan to arrange for a loan to attend either ISUE or ISU next year, you are advised to arrange for an appointment to see Mr. Tom Konopasek of the ISUE Student Aids Office. He will be in Evansville and you are urged to contact him in the Record's Office.

This will come about as a result of not being in attendance at the largest entertainment spectacle yet undertaken by students of the ISUE campus. The Apollos will provide four hours of fast-paced dynamic sounds; therefore, it is up to the students to provide four hours of romping, stomping gala festivity.

Writes Santa Claus A Letter About Mean Professors

STUDENT TELLS ST. NICK TO CHECK ON SOME OF THE GIVERS OF HEAVY ASSIGNMENTS:

CLAIMS DECEMBER 29 IS NOT FOR "JUST STUDENT" BUT FOR FACULTY:

MAKES SUGGESTIONS ABOUT SUITABLE GIFTS

By, GAYLE CLARK, Fourth Estate Club Member

ISUE, Evansville, Indiana (47712), December 12 - Dear Santa Claus, I want you to know that I have been a very nice little girl, and that I have studied my lessons every night, and I want you to know that it will be OK for you to stop by my house late Christmas Eve night.

Some of the professors have been real mean and I want to tell you about a few of the worst ones. I will give you some suggestions about what to bring them. I know that you have a lot of letters to read. I will make mine short.

The Professors: BLEVINS (give him a bad time). YEN-TZU FU (doesn't explain his wife has a beautiful voice -- give him a bad time too). ERNST GRIFFIN (keeps grinding out Geography -- send him a map). BYRON ($$$) WRIGHT (always doing business -- send him a little cash register). DEEM (he's always checking figures -- bring him a light shade to go over his eyes). CLARK (send him another photo-copy machine -- the professors have worn the first one out). ENGELKE (he's all business -- drop some crackerjacks down his chimney). HARRISON (drop him off some mechanical talking toys for speech). LABHART (give her a math puzzle to work, one that will worry her to late into the night). DYER (wrap him up some little things for his lab). JONES (roller skates would fit his need --- then he could let PAM use them). PATRICIA ROM (help her move the library down to the student lounge). RICE (give him a new ISUE classroom-gym-auditorium combination and your full support). LINDSEY (drop him off some more red grading pencils). LYNCH (get him off on Plato -- send him the works). DAN MILLER, ROEBUCK, PHELPS, STEWART, NELSON (send each a new grade book -- their old ones are full of added notes, grades, absences, and reminders). PRICE (mail his package -- nice pair of gym shorts). PUJALS (some office supplies). TOWNSEND (biology things). VON FUHRMANN (drop off assignment shortener and a cowboy hat). PITZER (never tells class about his nice wife -- order him dark turkey meat). BEN MILLER (he needs an IBM computer electronic gadget and golf club set). MERCER (freshman theme grader and copies of old tests to pass out to students). MIDLEY, MAGNER, STURTEVANT, SCHROEDER (each deserves a coffee break with their classes but they never think of it). SHESVOLD (office supplies and cracker-jacks). And remember the following with a nice Merry Christmas, and gifts and things, but tell them to watch their grading, down: WINSTEAD, KELL, KELL, BOYLES, DAVIS, SCHUSTER, MEYER, ORTH, HENSLEY, ROBERTSON, KNOTT, FISHBACK, HITCH, JESSEE, SCHWENGL, SMITH, JONES, THOMPSON, JORDAN and WEPFER.

Merry Christmas Everybody. Get a pleasant smile on your face. Exchange good words of Christmas cheer. Let us all be thankful for Christmas and the pleasant time the OBSERVATION OF CHRIST'S BIRTHDAY BRINGS.

JANUARY 10 IS IMPORTANT DATE: PRE-REGISTRATION FOR ALL STUDENTS CURRENTLY ENROLLED. FILL OUT YOUR SCHEDULE PLANNING PAGE BEFORE SEEING ADVISOR.

By, BRENT DONOVAN, Fourth Estate Club Member

There will be a pre-registration for all students currently enrolled on January 10, from 11:00 A. M. to 7:00 P. M. in the gymnasium.

ATTENTION BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION STUDENTS: YOU ARE EXPECTED TO ATTEND ADVISORY CONVOCATION ON JANUARY 3 (for sure); CLASS SCHEDULES AND OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION ARE TO BE DISCUSSED IN PROFESSIONAL GUIDANCE AND COUNSELING PROGRAM FOR STUDENTS

BY VICTOR RITZERT, Fourth Estate Club Member

The Department of Business Administration advises all business education and secretarial science majors to attend the advisory convocation to be held in the gymnasium on January 3, the first day of classes after the Christmas holiday.

Two convocations are scheduled. Dr. Paul Muse, Dean of the ISU School of Business, will be present at the 10 a.m. meeting. The second meeting will commence at 7 p.m.

All students are required to attend one of the two meetings.

Purpose of the meetings is to provide students with explanations of class schedules and related information.

Professor Jack Engelke, ISUE Area Head, explained that the BA faculty as well as Dr. Muse would participate in the counseling and guidance orientated program for students. A list will be published to advise each student of his advisor.

I am about to change my major. I am going to get down to business. I think I will change my major to "Car". I might as well. Join the club; the Fourth Estate Club.

In the meantime, however, the Fourth Estate Club wishes to thank every student for the full participation in the contribution of food and money for the fellas in Viet Nam. You put the drive over the top. Who said we do not move together? You watch! ISUE students have only started. A REMINDER: THE APOLLOS WILL BE PROVIDING THE MUSIC FOR THE MISTLETOE BALL ON DECEMBER 29 AT THE CIVIC CENTER GOLD ROOM. EVERYBODY MEET AT THE DANCE FOR A LOT OF FUN. Don't forget that classes resume on January 3, not 2.

Live it up during the holidays for a busy schedule resumes after the Christmas recess is over. First thing (and before you know it), on January 10 we will pre-register, and that will save a lot of time. Final examinations begin January 18. MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL ISUE STUDENTS!

A recent reception honoring Dr. David Rice, Executive Administrator of ISUE, and Mrs. Rice was held in the Evansville Country Club. The faculty, the Board of Regents, and outstanding men in higher education and a wide representation of community and state leadership were there. Congratulations Doc!

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND A PINATA PARTY BEING GIVEN BY THE SPANISH CLUB! ! !

PLAN TO ATTEND FRIDAY FROM 3 TO 4 P.M. ROOM # 3 IN BASEMENT WELCOME! ! !

By KAREN MARKHAM

You are invited to attend the ISUE Spanish Club Piñata party to be held in Room No. 3 in the basement on Friday afternoon between three and four o'clock

The Piñata is a hand made container often designed in various forms; including animals and festive Christmas creations, and the container is filled with trinkets, candy and toys. Students will take turns in trying to break the Piñata, while blindfolded, by swinging a stick above their head. That is a custom in the other Americas. The Piñata is associated with a religious devotion, but it is not necessary to include the religious aspect.

The Piñata is as much a part of a Spanish Christmas as is our Christmas tree and Santa Claus in the European influences of North America, USA.

Susan Trippett, a director of the ISUE Spanish Club, spent a year in Mexico studying the Spanish language and the influences of the Mediterranean culture. She explained that Culture and Education share a common dilemma: "They each defy the obtainment of precise definition --- the kind of definition acceptable and mutually understood by large audiences."

DEAN DAVID RICE EXTENDS CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR GREETINGS TO YOU . . . . .
FROM THE FACULTY AND THE STAFF:

"The holidays give you an opportunity to extend genuine expressions of friendship, to enjoy festivities such as the dance, and to resolve to do your best in the year ahead. Have a joyous season, and devote as much time as possible to reviewing, catching up, and study in order to fulfill the commitment you made to yourself to be a student for a brief period of years in your life.

ISUE BASKETBALL TEAM PLAYS HENDERSON COMMUNITY COLLEGE WEDNESDAY AT 9:00 P.M.
AT PARK PLAZA SCHOOL; BRUCE SMITH IS HEAD COACH OF "OUR TEAM".

By JIM CELANIA, Fourth Estate Club Member

The ISUE Basketball Team meets Henderson Community College at 9:00 P. M. Wednesday, at Park Plaza School.

ISUE is a member of the Tri-State College Conference, which is sponsored by the Recreation Leagues Association in co-operation with the Public Recreation Commission.

The other members of the conference are Sam's Technical Institute, Lockyear's Business College, Brescia College, and Henderson Community College.

Already the ISUE team has played three games, winning its first game 59-56 against Lockyear's team, then losing 75-70 to Sam's Tech, and finally winning 67-64 against Brescia.

The conference's remaining schedule pits ISUE against: December 13, 1967 -- Henderson Community, at 9:00 p.m.; January 17, 1968 --Lockyear's, 7:30 p.m. January 24 -- Sam's Tech, 9:00 p.m.; January 31 -- Brescia, 9:00 p.m.; February 14 -- Henderson Community, 9:00 p.m.; February 21 --Lockyear's, 7:00 p.m. February 28 -- Sam's Tech, 9:00 p.m.; March 4 -- Brescia, 9:00 p.m.; and March 13 -- Henderson Community, 9:00 p.m.

A CAN OF PORK AND BEANS HAS THE VALUE OF A T-BONE STEAK

OUR STUDENT BODY MAKES A VIET NAM CHRISTMAS WORTHWHILE FOR FELLAS OVER THERE

By SANDRA OVERFIELD, Fourth Estate Member

With Christmas just around the corner happy shoppers are hurrying to and fro around town looking for last minute Christmas gifts. Half across the world in an area not much bigger than the State of Illinois, our fighting forces in Viet Nam are struggling for day-to-day existence. Most of them won't make it home for Christmas; some may never make it at all.

They are fighting the dirtiest kind of war, a gorilla war. They may be there for another five years or more. Some have little or no contact with the outside world. Letters may come once every five weeks. It gets lonely on the battlefield. Some men never get over the despair of loneliness. This Christmas the students of I.S.U.E. sent forty five-pound boxes of food stuff and the like to Viet Nam. It cost $1.45 to send each box, coming to a total of $68.00.

Last Christmas another soldier received a box from home much like the ones ISUE sent. It contained a can of Pork'n beans, a can of pickles, and a can of salmon. He didn't have many facilities to cook his Christmas dinner, but he used what he had. Those pork'n beans tasted just like T-bone steak, and it made him very happy inside to know that someone cared enough to send him something for Christmas. It made him feel loved and wanted.

This Christmas forty men will receive a small box which will be appreciated far more than anyone will ever guess, unless they have been in Viet Nam too. The men in Viet Nam need to know some one cares what happens to them. After all, isn't that what Christmas is all about?

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT OPENS TUESDAY; NINE TEAMS PARTICIPATING IN ROUND
ROBIN AFFAIR; ADDITIONAL REFEREES NEEDED: SEE PROFESSOR JOHN K. PRICE

BY DAN ARMSTRONG, Fourth Estate Club

Intramural basketball competition opens Tuesday and will continue through February 28, according to Professor John Price, Director of ISUE Intramurals.
