Pohl, chairman, Mathematics Department, and professor of mathematics; and Dr. Marie G. Hankins, chairman, Physical Science Department, and assistant professor of chemistry.

CONGRATULATIONS. The University community extends its congratulations to Ms. Carla J. Bruce, a custodial worker, and Mr. Philip Slates of Indianapolis, who were married Saturday, July 2, in the University Center.

Congratulations are extended also to Mr. Stephen M. McGinness, USI security officer, and Ms. Donna Aders, USI graduate now teaching in Dubois County, who were married Saturday, July 2, in Jasper.

SYMPATHY. The University community extends its sympathy to Ms. Judith A. Beck, administrative secretary in the Registrar's Office, in the death June 29 of her stepfather, Mr. Wilfred L. Luigs, 68, in Evansville.

DOUGLAS SCHOLARSHIP WINNER. Ms. Tina R. Alldredge, a USI senior, is among 83 Indiana recipients of a $5,000 Paul Douglas Teacher Scholarship for the 1988-89 academic year, an award created by Congress in 1986 to assist exceptional students committed to a career in teaching. Ms. Alldredge is a business education major with a 4.0 cumulative grade point average. She is a 1986 graduate of Mount Vernon High School, where she also maintained a 4.0 GPA and was valedictorian when she graduated. She also is the recipient of two USI Foundation awards -- the Thompson H. Burckhardt Memorial Scholarship and the Frost Memorial Scholarship -- and has received the Scholastic Excellence Award.

HISTORIC SOUTHERN INDIANA MEETING. The summer meeting of Historic Southern Indiana Project will be held Wednesday, July 20 (NOT July 13 as shown on the monthly calendar), at the Madison, Indiana, Presbyterian Church. Registration will be at 8:30 a.m. (EST). The meeting will have a dual purpose -- to acquaint HSI members with Madison and to present a sequel to the April Corydon meeting illustrating the economic development value resulting from historic resource preservation. The program at 9:30 will be a panel presentation on Madison, with Mr. Andrew J. Alexander, curator at the Lanier Mansion State Historic Site, as moderator, and panelists of Madison Mayor Morris Wooden; Mr. Dave Dionne, president of Jefferson County Board of Tourism; Mr. Jeff Garrett, Madison Area Chamber of Commerce; and a Historic Madison, Inc., representative. The afternoon program will be a Lanier Mansion program at the mansion. Call Dr. Darrel E. Bigham, HSI director and USI professor of history, for reservations or information, 428-7592.

WATCH FOR SUVON BULLETIN. An important SUVON bulletin will be distributed on campus by the weekend providing instructions for using the revamped State Universities Voice Network (SUVON) telephone system, which will be put in operation Saturday, July 9.

MIDSUMMER'S NIGHT STROLL PLANNED. The second annual Midsummer's Night Stroll will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday, July 20. Three sites will be selected for the stroll. There will be entertainment and refreshments at each, reflecting the history of the site. The new tram will be available and guests can enjoy either a stroll or a leisurely ride to the historic homes. Reservations are limited so make plans now to attend by calling 464-9595 or 682-4488 for information.

CHEERLEADER CLINIC. The 1988 Summer Cheerleader Clinic for Tri-State elementary, middle, and high school students will be held Monday-Friday, July 11-15, in the Physical Activities Center. USI cheerleaders will staff the clinic.

ROBOT EXHIBIT. "Robots and Space Toys," a 200-piece exhibit that includes 150 robots from the 1940s through the '80s, opened June 30 at the Evansville Museum of Arts and Science and will continue through August 21. The exhibit draws from the collections of Mr. John McNaughton, USI professor of art, and Mr. David Knepper, a former student of Mr. McNaughton's who is art director for The Evansville Courier. They will be at the Museum on Monday, July 11, to demonstrate the toys and discuss their collections.

NEW HARMONY THEATRE. "Talley's Folly," a Pulitzer Prize-winning play about the love affair between a small-town Missouri girl and her worldly-wise Jewish suitor, opens Friday at New Harmony Theatre. It will be directed by Mr. Brian Sajko, who joined the USI Theater faculty in June after receiving his Ph.D. from the University of Minnesota. New Harmony Theatre, under new management by USI Theatre, offers performances at 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and 2 p.m. Sundays in Murphy Auditorium. Season tickets are available from the New Harmony Theatre ticket office, (812) 682-3115, or the USI School of Liberal Arts office, SC 255, extension 1735. Season tickets are $28; general admission is $8; student and senior citizen tickets are $7. A special rate of $6 per person is available for groups of 20 or more. Beginning July 8, a special offer will be available for USI faculty and staff members -- two free tickets with the purchase of two $8 tickets. Treat your friends.
