Location

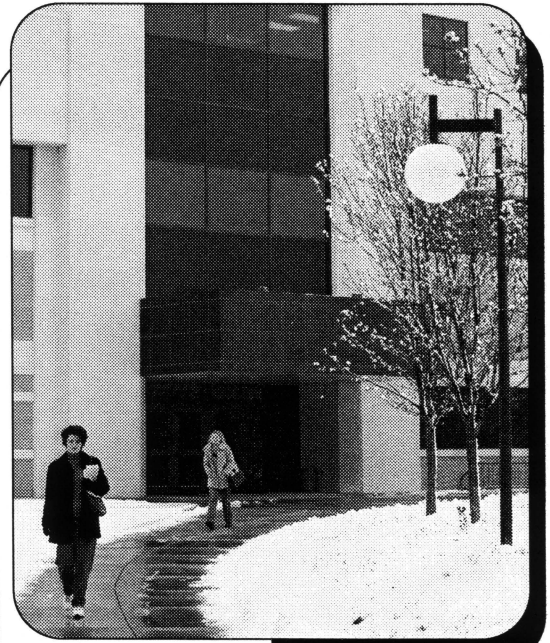

Founded in 1965, the University of Southern Indiana is located in Evansville, the state's third largest city. From its picturesque site on the Ohio River, Evansville is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan areas of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

Academic Life

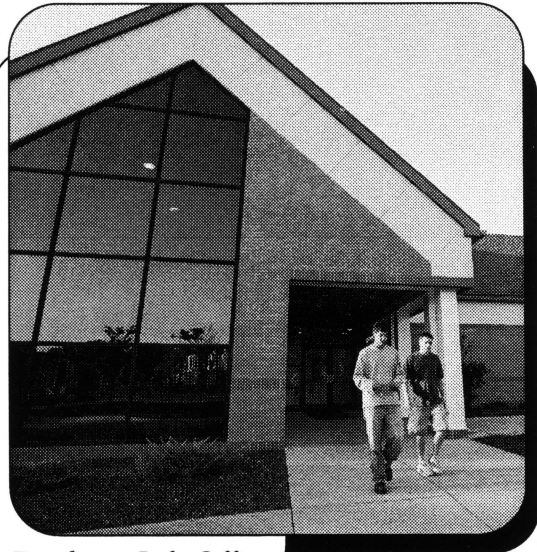

The University enrolls 9,899 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. Several graduate degree programs also are available.

Campus Life

Beyond the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 80 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Health Professions

Residence Life Office

Residence Life

USI offers two kinds of housing. One is the conventional apartment and the other is suite-style housing in a residence hall. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor recreational areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven overwhelmingly popular with students. A meal plan is available in the University Center. More than 2,900 students live on campus.

Financial Assistance

USI is the most affordable four-year institution in the state of Indiana, and some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial aid. Many others qualify for need-based financial aid packages, including grants, loans, and jobs.

H. Ray Hoops, President

H. Ray Hoops became the second president of the University of Southern Indiana in July 1994. During his tenure, he has forged important community partnerships and has overseen dramatic growth in the University's enrollment, facilities, and academic programs.

A native of Illinois, Dr. Hoops received his undergraduate degree from Eastern Illinois University and master's and doctoral degrees in Audiology and Speech Sciences from Purdue University.

He also completed an M.B.A. at Moorhead State University.

His career as a scientist and educator has included a faculty appointment jointly at the University of Michigan and Wayne State University. He published extensively and was nationally recognized for his contributions in the areas of rehabilitation of post-surgical patients with cancer of the larynx and in the analysis of language dynamics resulting from brain damage. Among his numerous publications in a variety of behavioral and medical journals was the report on a study which received the National Research Award, the highest honor of the American Speech and Hearing Association. Dr. Hoops also was named Fellow of the Association.

His administrative appointments included the directorship of the Division of Marketing in the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. He received two national service awards for that work. He also was a Senior Fulbright-Hayes Research Scholar in the College of Medicine at the University of the Philippines. Other appointments included dean of the Graduate College of the University of Northern Iowa, associate vice chancellor for Academic Affairs for the Oregon State System of Higher Education, vice president for Academic Affairs at North Dakota State University, and president of South Dakota State University.

In the six years prior to becoming the president of the University of Southern Indiana, Dr. Hoops served as the vice chancellor for Academic Affairs at the University of Mississippi. While at Ole Miss, Dr. Hoops received the National Council of State Governments Association Award for his pioneering work on Project '95, a blueprint for the reform of education in the state of Mississippi. He also received the Peterson's Guide Award for contributions to the education of minority students in the innovative and highly successful graduate participation initiative.

President Hoops serves on the Deaconess Hospital Board of Directors, the Welborn Foundation Board of Directors, the Metropolitan Evansville Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, and the WNIN Board of Directors. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and serves as the chair of the Indiana Conference of Higher Education.

Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall is in his second year as the University of Southern Indiana's director of Athletics. He was appointed to the position in January of 2002 after spending seven years as the assistant director of athletics.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is a member of the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee as well as the GLVC Basketball Tournament Committee.

Hall also serves on the NCAA Division II

National Men's and Women's Tennis Committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach. As the assistant athletic director, Hall was the assistant administrator for internal affairs, oversaw budgets, was the compliance coordinator, and oversaw game management operations.

As the men's tennis coach, no one did it better in the Great Lakes Valley Conference than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year the past five years and directed the Eagles to four GLVC regular season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns.

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to a third straight appearance in the NCAA Division II Tournament and their first victory in the post season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with the first two invitations to the NCAA Division II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall's Eagles have won 58 of 75 dual matches in his final three years, including 34 straight GLVC matches. USI was 16-4, 8-0 GLVC in 2001-02; 22-7, 8-1 GLVC in 2000-01; and 20-6, 9-0 GLVC in 1999-2000.

Recognized as one of the top coaches in Division II, Hall was invited to participate in the 2001 NCAA Yes Clinic at the Division II National Tennis Championships.

Hall came to USI after a tenure at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fund-raising and promotion activities.

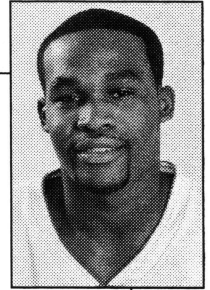

The native of Murray, Ky., is a 1990 cum laude graduate from Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have two sons, Nathan and Garland, and a daughter, Mary Claire.

The NCAA Division II basketball teams will be keeping a sharp eye on the University of Southern Indiana Screaming Eagles in 2003-04.

USI, who was 25-7 overall last season and is ranked second by the Division II Bulletin in its 2003-04 preseason poll, re-emerged as one of the top teams in the country with their seventh Sweet 16 appearance in nine seasons in 2002-03. This season, USI is hungry to take the next step—advancing to the NCAA II Elite Eight.

The USI men's basketball program has won at least 20 games each season since 1992-93, and averaged 25 victories a year since 1993-94. USI, with a record of 278-61 (.820) over 11 seasons, also has produced 10 NCAA II Tournament appearances, the 1995 NCAA II National Championship team, the 1994 NCAA II Finalist team, four Great Lakes Valley Conference Championships, and five GLVC Tournament appearances.

USI head coach Rick Herdes leads a veteran squad into action in 2003-04. During his first two years, Herdes' teams have produced 47 victories against only 15 defeats for a .758 winning percentage.

Senior forward/center Billy Harris is a preseason All-American after averaging 13.0 ppg and 7.5 rpg in 2002-03.

Givens, who averaged 14.6 ppg. Givens, combined with the other departing players, leaves a hole of 43.4 ppg for Herdes to replace.

Stepping up into the leadership role are 6'4" senior forward/center Billy Harris (Carbondale, Illinois) and 6'1" junior guard Cris Brunson (Evansville, Indiana).

Harris, a preseason honorable mention All-American by Street and Smith, led the Eagles on the boards with 7.5 rpg while ranking third on the team with 13.0 ppg. Harris earned second team All-GLVC honors and was named an NCAA II Great Lakes Region All-Tournament performer.

Brunson, who ranked eighth nationally in free throw percentage, was second on the team with 13.2 ppg and led the squad with 66 three-point field goals.

Challenging for more playing time in 2003-04 is 6'6" senior forward Clarence Chillers (Chicago, Illinois) and 6'8" senior center/forward Reque Newsome (St. Petersburg, Florida). Chillers, who was GLVC All-Tournament after shooting an amazing 93.3 percent from the field (14-15), recorded 8.5 ppg and 5.8 rpg in 29 games. He also averaged 12.6 ppg in the final five games of 2002-03.

Newsome came on slowly last year after breaking his foot in the preseason to average 6.7 ppg and 4.0 rpg off the bench.

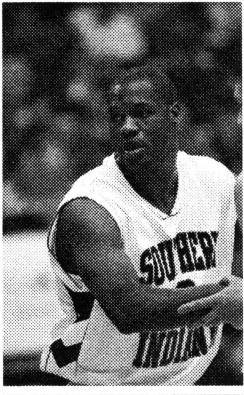

On every championship team, there are players who make the team successful by filling a role. The Eagles have three of these in 6'1" senior guard Mike Arnold (Indianapolis, Indiana), 6'8" senior center Travis Farmer (Wadesville, Indiana), and 6'1" junior guard Ayton Branch (Bloomfield, New Jersey).

Arnold and Branch were a part of the "second team" in USI's five-man rotation a year ago. Arnold averaged 2.5 ppg and recorded 23 steals as a junior, while Branch dropped in 2.1 ppg. Farmer saw action in 23 games last season in the frontcourt which was sometimes thin due to injuries.

The most exciting part of the USI program in 2003-04 may be the return to the court of four redshirts. Back to game action will be 6'9" senior forward/center John Oden (St. Louis, Missouri), a transfer from DePaul University; 5'7" senior guard Avery Queen (Moreno Valley, California), a transfer from the University of Michigan; 6'2" senior guard Joe Gordon (Palm Bay, Florida), a transfer from the University of Miami; and 5'11" sophomore guard Scott May (Bloomington, Indiana), a transfer from Indiana University.

Oden, a Street and Smith preseason All-American, will have a chance to become one of the most dominating players in the GLVC this year. "We have had some very dominating frontcourt players at USI," said Herdes. "John's dominating presence inside and his athletic ability put him on the same level as former national players of the year like Chris Senior forward Clarence Chillers averaged 12.6 ppg and 5.8 rpg during post-season play last season. He shot .774 from the field in five post-season games.

Bowles and Stan Gouard.”

Queen led the Wolverines in assists two straight seasons and gives USI its first true point guard in two seasons.

Gordon, who has been out of the collegiate game since 2001, should quickly return to a form that allowed him to average 6.4 ppg in the Big East.

“Avery should be ready to go this fall after practicing with us during the spring semester,” said Herdes. “Gordon, who averaged 27 points a game at Brevard (Junior College), is one of the most prolific shooters I’ve seen and will be exciting for our fans to watch.”

Also new to the squad in 2003-04 will be three freshmen.

Returning to the squad after sitting out 2002-03 is 6’4” redshirt freshman forward Carroll Coffman (Hanson, Kentucky), who averaged 17.5 ppg and 6.1 rpg as a senior at Hopkins County High School in 2001-02.

Geoff Van Winkle (Ferdinand, Indiana), a 6’6” freshman guard/forward who signed with USI last fall, averaged 17.6 ppg and set the Forest Park High School career scoring record of 1,271 points and 187 three-point field goals in four seasons. Van Winkle also helped the Rangers to a 23-5 record and an appearance in the Indiana Class 2A state finals.

New from the junior college ranks is 6’3” junior guard Aaron Austin (Chicago, Illinois) and 6’9” junior forward Randy Holbrook (St. Louis, Missouri). Austin, a former teammate of Newsome at Central Florida Community College, averaged 13.0 ppg and 6.0 rpg as a sophomore in 2001-02.

As a sophomore at Odessa in 2001-02, Holbrook averaged 10 points and eight rebounds per contest and ranked in the top 10 for NJCAA forwards. He started his collegiate career at Odessa by averaging 7.0 points and 4.8 rebounds as a freshman.

The curtain will rise on the 2003-04 regular season for USI when Lincoln University visits the Physical Activities Center on Saturday, November 22. Fans will be able to get an early look at the Screaming Eagles with exhibition games on Saturday, November 1, when they play former USI coach Bruce Pearl and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in Milwaukee.

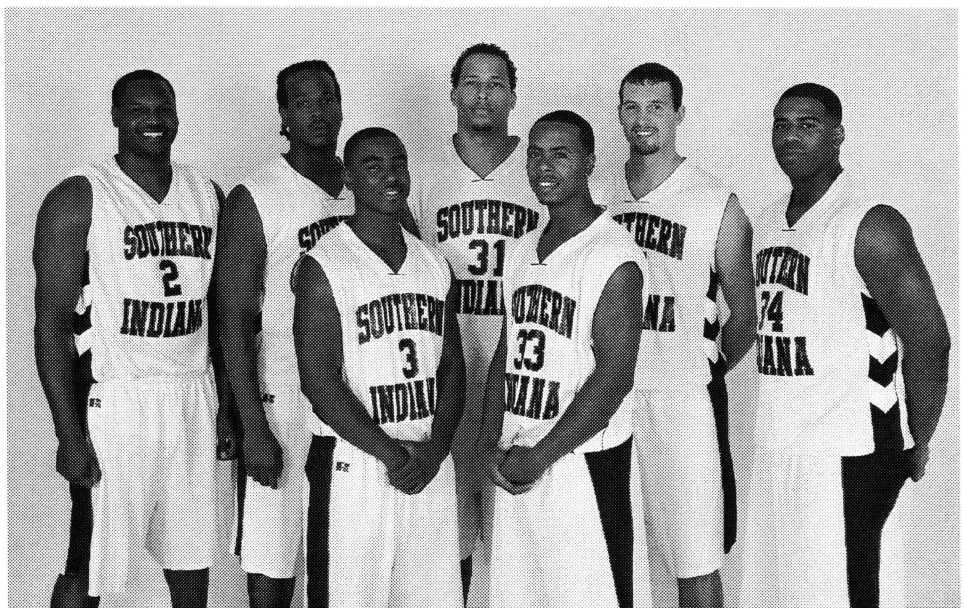

For the first time since the 1996-97 season, the Eagles will be hosting a home classic at the PAC. The Sprint PCS/USI Challenge, on Friday and Saturday, December 19-20, will feature the Eagles and the University of Indianapolis taking on Ferris State University and the University of North Alabama.

In addition to Lincoln and the USI Challenge on the non-conference schedule, the Eagles host Oakland City University on Tuesday, November 25; Henderson State University on Wednesday, December 10; the University of Illinois-Springfield on Saturday, December 13; and Tusculum College on Monday, December 29. Henderson State is coming off of a 30-5 campaign, reaching the finals of the NCAA Division II South Regional in 2002-03.

The 2003-04 GLVC campaign starts on the road for the second straight season, beginning at Bellarmine University on Saturday, November 29. This road trip also includes a visit to the Sportscenter to play Kentucky Wesleyan College on Monday, December 1. The first conference home game for the Eagles will not be until Friday, January 2, when Lewis University comes to the PAC.

Lewis will be the first of four NCAA II Tournament teams to visit the PAC after January 1. Kentucky Wesleyan journeys across the Ohio River on Thursday, January 15; followed by Northern Kentucky University on Thursday, February 5; and Indianapolis on Saturday, February 28. The top five teams in the GLVC had a combined overall record of 122-36 and a home record of 66-8 in 2002-03.

USI Head Coach Rick Herdes

In his second season at the helm of the University of Southern Indiana men's basketball, Head Coach Rick Herdes (Noble, Illinois) took the Screaming Eagles back to the big dance and within three-points of the NCAA Division II Elite Eight.

Herdes directed the Eagles to a 25-7 overall record, a 16-4 mark in the GLVC, and the Great Lakes Regional finals after defeating top-ranked Michigan Tech University in the semifinals. The squad, which also boosted an honorable mention All-American, two All-Region performers, and three All-GLVC players, advanced in the Sweet 16 of the national tournament for the seventh time in nine seasons.

In his first season at the helm, Herdes had a record-tying year. The Eagles posted a 22-8 overall record, tying the USI record for wins by a first-year coach. He also led the Eagles to a fourth place finish in the Great Lakes Valley Conference with a 14-6 mark, advancing to the semifinals of the league's post-season tournament.

Herdes had been with USI for nine seasons as an associate head coach and assistant coach before being tapped for the top position in 2001. The native of Noble, Illinois, was widely known as one of the best recruiters and top coaches in Division II basketball. The Eagles' successes since Herdes' arrival reflect his abilities.

In his nine seasons at USI, Herdes has helped direct the Eagles to a 231-46 overall record (.833), the 1995 NCAA II National Championship, the 1994 NCAA II National Championship game, three Great Lakes Valley Conference Championships, nine consecutive NCAA II Tournament appearances, and nine straight 20-win seasons. USI has averaged over 25 victories a season since 1993-94.

USI's point man on the recruiting trail, Herdes brought in nearly all of the key players who contributed to USI becoming a national power in Division II. Some of those key recruits were two-time NABC/NCAA Division II Player of the Year Stan Gouard, All-American and GLVC Player of the Year Chad Gilbert, Division II Bulletin All-American Jeremy Pearson, and 2001 first team All-American Derrick Lyons.

Herdes came to USI from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where he was an assistant from 1986 to 1992. While at SIUE, Herdes helped Head Coach Larry Graham lead the Cougars to a 127-56 (.694) record and three NCAA tournament appearances. He was responsible for coordinating recruiting. He also was academic advisor to the basketball team and director of summer camps and fund-raising events.

In 16 collegiate basketball seasons, the programs Herdes has been involved with have a .770 winning percentage (358-102).

In 1991 and 1992 at SIUE, he was the head coach for the Illinois Prairie State Games, Southern Open Men's Division. His 1992 team received the silver medal.

Prior to working at SIUE, Herdes was an assistant basketball coach and physical education instructor at Lawrenceville (Illinois) High School, where he worked for current Indiana University assistant coach Ron Felling. LHS was the Illinois Class A State Champion in 1982 and 1983 and had a 68-game winning streak. Herdes was inducted into the Illinois High School Athletic Association Hall of Fame in 1998.

Herdes graduated from Graceland College in 1980 with a bachelor's degree in education. As a player, he led Lincoln Trail College to a ninth-place finish in the national tournament and helped lead Graceland to its first-ever appearance in the NAIA Tournament.

Herdes and his wife Sarah reside in Evansville with his two children, daughter Taylor, 11 and son Connor, 8.

In addition to USI basketball games being broadcast live by WGBF 1280 AM and WSWI 820 AM, Head Coach Rick Herdes also has a television and a radio show.

- Rick Herdes on Basketball is broadcast live every Monday night during the season from Turoni's on Main Street and can be heard on WGBF 1280 AM.
- The Rick Herdes Show is a weekly television show that recaps USI basketball and gives fans an inside look into the USI men's basketball program. The show can be seen every Sunday on Insight Channel 2.

In 2002-03, Head Coach Rick Herdes led the Screaming Eagles back to the NCAA II Tournament for the 10th time in 11 seasons.

In 11 years at USI, nine as an assistant and associate head coach as well as two as the head coach, Herdes has been a part of 278 victories.

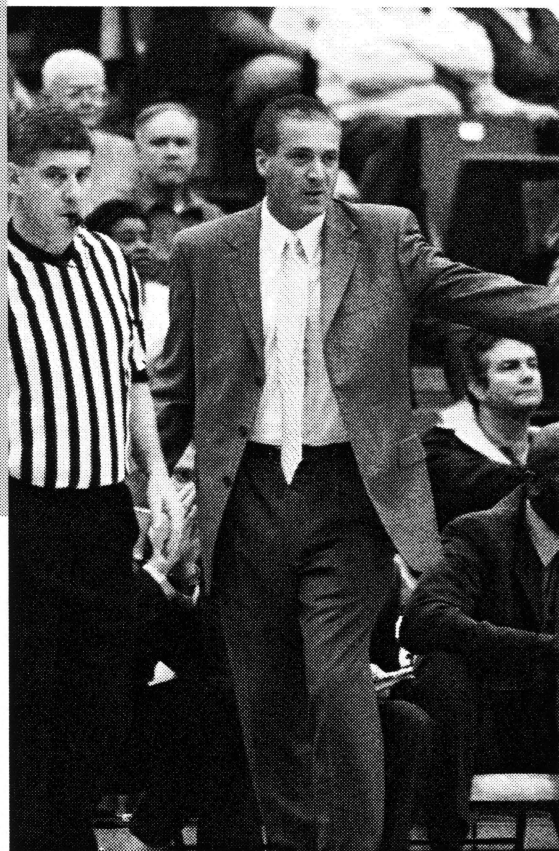

USI Managers

Keesha Knox

Marc Hostetter, Assistant Coach

Marc Hostetter (Lyons, Indiana) returns for his third season as an assistant coach to Head Coach Rick Herdes.

Hostetter rejoined the USI program after spending two seasons as an assistant coach to Mike Leeder at Longwood College in Virginia. Hostetter helped lead the Lancers to a 23-8 overall record, Longwood's first-ever Carolinas-Virginia Athletic Conference championship, and an NCAA Division II Tournament appearance.

"Marc has the complete package, both as a person and a coach," said Coach Herdes. "I recruited Marc to USI and his knowledge of the system and University as well as the league and Division II basketball is a great asset to my program"

The Lyons, Indiana, native returns to the USI team he helped lead to the 1995 NCAA Division II National Championship and who posted a 105-17 record in four seasons as a point guard. During Hostetter's four seasons, the Screaming Eagles were ranked number one nationally at some point during the season in three of four seasons.

After his playing days, Hostetter joined the staff of former USI Head Coach Bruce Pearl for two seasons as an assistant coach. During his two seasons on the bench, USI finished as the GLVC Tournament runner-up twice, while making a pair of NCAA II Tournament Sweet 16 appearances.

A 1998 USI graduate, Hostetter and his wife Nikki have a son Leo.

Craig Toler, Student Assistant Coach

Craig Toler begins his first season with the University of Southern Indiana men's basketball coaching staff.

A junior on the USI men's golf team, Toler is a transfer from Parkland College where he was a part of two conference championships and was named the Collegiate Conference of Central Illinois Player of the Year. He also was a two-time All-Conference performer.

A native of Mowcaqua, Illinois, Toler graduated from Findlay High School where he lettered in golf and basketball. He is pursuing a degree in history from USI.

Jesse Watkins, Assistant Coach

Jesse Watkins enters his second season as a men's basketball assistant coach.

Watkins joined the USI staff after spending two seasons as an assistant at Wabash Valley Junior College in Mt. Carmel, Illinois. He helped lead Wabash Valley to a 69-5 record (36-1 in 2000-01; 33-4 in 2001-02) in those two seasons and to the 2001 and 2002

Great Rivers Athletic Conference regular season championships as well as the 2001 and 2002 GRAC Conference Championship.

Regionally and nationally, Watkins helped direct the Warriors to the 2001 and 2002 Illinois Regional Championship and the 2001 NJCAA National Championship.

Prior to coaching at Wabash Valley, Watkins played and coached at Lincoln Memorial University. He helped lead LMU to a number five national ranking in defense as a player in 1992-93 as the Railsplitters finished 17-9. Watkins returned to LMU in 1996-97 as a coach and helped direct the Railsplitters to a 34-19 record over two seasons and to its first ever appearance in the Gulf South Conference Tournament in 1997.

"Jesse is a quality young man with a tremendous work ethic," said USI Head Coach Rick Herdes. "He has a knowledge of the southern states and has contacts at all levels of basketball."

Brad Melton, Volunteer Assistant Coach

Brad Melton enters his first season as a volunteer assistant coach with the USI men's basketball program. Melton comes to USI with extensive international experience both as a coach and a player.

A native of Effingham, Illinois, Melton has been associated with Rick Herdes for more than 25 years. He has been a presence at USI games, practices, and summer camps over the last 11 years.

Melton, who comes to USI after coaching in the top division in Luxembourg last season, has been a player and coach in various countries and divisions in Europe over the last 19 seasons. During that time he participated on five league championship/promotion teams and five runner-up teams. In both the 1986-87 and 1998-99 seasons, he participated on teams that completed the season ranked in the top 15 in the Netherlands.

Melton, a 1982 graduate of Eastern Illinois with a bachelor's degree in computer management, is married to Laura Popero.

Breezing through the years of success

Over the last 20 years, the University of Southern Indiana men's basketball program has become a first in the Great Lakes Valley Conference, then the Great Lakes Region, and now at the national level.

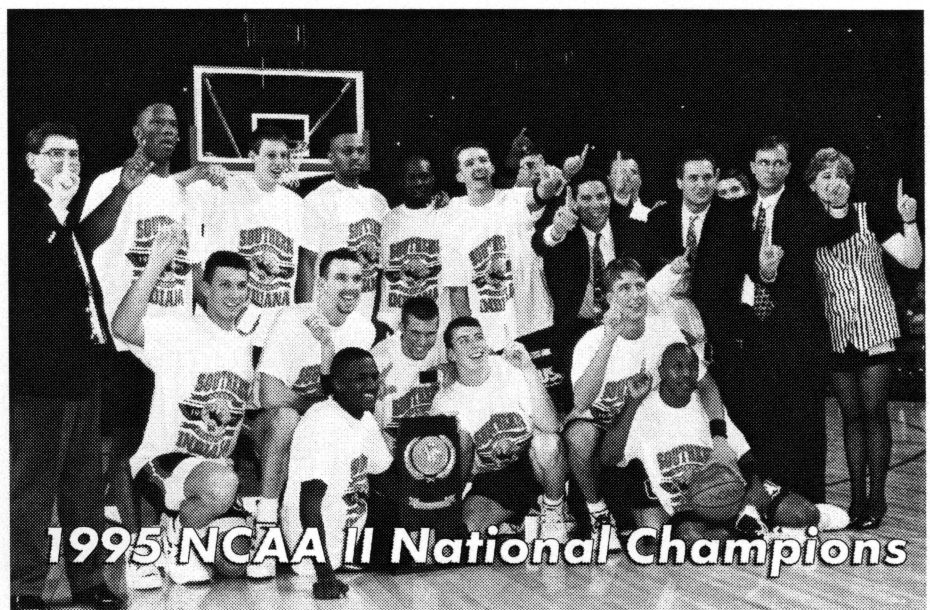

Since the beginning of the GLVC in 1979, the Screaming Eagles have become one of the premier teams in the league, winning nine regular-season titles in the GLVC. USI's teams also have featured three GLVC Coaches of the Year and five conference Players of the Year.

Starting with the 1992-93 USI team, the Eagles have made their mark on the Great Lakes Region and the NCAA Division II. USI has won 20 or more games 12 times in the last 14 years, and averaged over 25 victories a year since 1993-94.

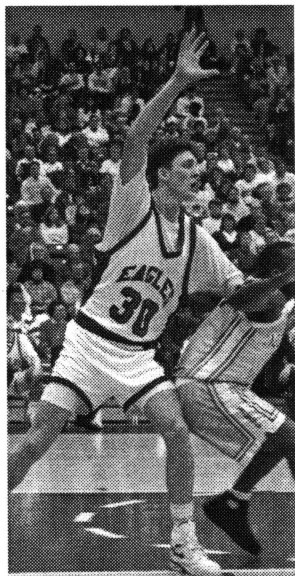

The Eagles stepped into the national spotlight in 1993-94 when they made their first trip to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight and the NCAA Division II Championship game.

The loss in the 1994 championship game propelled USI back into the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1995 and on to its first ever national championship.

USI has been ranked number one nationally at one point during the season in six of the last 10 years and has been to the NCAA Division II Sweet 16 seven times in the last nine years.

An All-American Impact

Chris Bowles—The 1994 Division II Bulletin Player of the Year, All-American, and GLVC Player of the Year who led the Screaming Eagles to the 1994 NCAA Division II Championship game.

Tyrone Tate—The 1994 All-American who set an NCAA Division II record with 49 assists in the tournament, including 16 assists in each of the first two Elite Eight games. Tate also was the GLVC Newcomer of the Year in 1993.

Stan Gouard—The 1995 and 1996 NCAA Division II Player of the Year and two-time All-American led the Eagles to their first national championship in 1995. He also was the CBS Player of the Game in the 1994 championship game when he scored 30 points.

Chad Gilbert—The 1996 All-American also was the GLVC Player of the Year in USI's league championship run. Gilbert also was the 1995 NCAA II Great Lakes Region Most Outstanding Player.

USI receives support from area businesses and the Varsity Club. A number of events are sponsored by the USI Varsity Club throughout the year, including the annual Varsity Club Steak Fry & Auction as well as the annual Varsity Club Golf Outing. The kind and generous support from these caring individuals and businesses helps make the USI Department of Athletics what it is today.

Screaming Eagles fly around the USA and beyond

The University of Southern Indiana men's basketball has traveled the continental United States and beyond since 1990. USI has played regular season games, regular season tournaments, and post-season contests in Alaska, Arkansas, the Bahamas, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Maryland, Missouri, Nevada, Ohio, Tennessee, and Wisconsin.

USI has played twice in the prestigious Division II Tip-Off Classic at Disney's Wide World of Sports in Orlando, Florida, and four times in the High Desert Classic in Las Vegas, Nevada.

In November 2003, the Eagles travel to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to play the 2003 NCAA Division I Tournament participant University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.
