RECEPTION TO HONOR J. MAXWELL DAVIS.

On Sunday, May 20, the Division of Education is hosting a reception to honor J. MAXWELL DAVIS, professor of life science and certification director, who is retiring.

DAVIS joined the ISUE faculty in 1968. He has a distinguished record of service to education including years of experience in the fields of science instruction and science education instruction.

Alumni, faculty, administrators, staff, and friends are welcome, The reception will be held from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. on the U. C. Bridge. Come and extend your good wishes to J. MAXWELL DAVIS.

ALUMNI HONORED AT DINNER. Last Saturday night at the Annual Alumni Dinner/Dance, the ISUE Alumni Association awarded Thomas J. Shetler, moving consultant, the Distinguished Alumni award; paid special tribute to SHERRIANNE STANDLEY, assistant to the president, for her support to the Alumni Association; and presented eight scholarships.

Thomas J. Shetler, Jr., graduated from ISUE in 1975. Since his graduation, Shetler has served in various governmental positions, including president of the Board of Park Commissioners (1975), vice president of the City Council (1977) and in 1978 he became the youngest president of the Evansville City Council. He received the award based on his humanitarian and civic activities.

STANDLEY, who joined ISUE's staff in 1976 as director of publications, has contributed to the Alumni Association for several years. She has worked as editor of "8600 University Boulevard," the Alumni Association publication and has served on the Advisory Board. In recognition of her work, and in appreciation of her continuing support, the Alumni Association presented STANDLEY with an Honorary Membership.

The scholarships were awarded based on the students academic achievement, service to the University and community, and financial need. Applicants considered needed a minimum G.P.A. of 2.5 and junior standing. The recipients were David Goodman, Sherry L. Drury, Ellen Marie Funkhouser, Lisa J. Walter, Phillip Montooth, Larry Springer, Vicki Fleming, and William R. Roberts.
