Written by Ira Levin, author of "Rosemary's Baby" and "Stepford Wives," this is a strange, chilling, yet entertaining drama-mystery. Never before has the ISUE Theatre undertaken a drama of this magnitude and dimension. Directed by Jim Jackson, starring roles are played by Lillian Giello, ISUE student and Secretary in Allied Health, students Vieveia Lanoux and Keith Maxwell, and Joe Coleman, Shield Editor.

Curtain time for each performance is 8:15 p.m. Tickets, priced at $1.25 for students and $2.50 for non-students, can be reserved by calling 464-2526 or the Humanities Division on ext. 234. On Sunday, April 27, a special performance will be presented at the Playhouse for all Greek organizations on campus. This matinee, to begin at 3:00 p.m., is the "kick-off" for Greek Week.

Described by critics as "the last word in light shows," Laserium will make its Indiana debut at 8 and 10 p.m. Spectacular laser light displays--ranging from delicate, shimmering clouds to sky-filling explosions of the purest colors--appear as if by magic on a simulated night sky. Images float, pulsate, grow, assume new shapes, and vanish--all to the accompaniment of classical and contemporary music that alternately soothes and assaults the viewer.
