Openings still are available for a day-long workshop on Basic Employment Interviewing, to be held Wednesday, May 1, at the University of Southern Indiana.

The workshop for employers or personnel directors will be conducted by Lewis Plane, manager of Executive Search and Placement with Bristol-Myers Squibb. Participants will learn ways to set objectives and assure job relatedness in the interview, assess their own style, and learn to probe for hard-to-get information.

The registration fee of $95 ($85 each for two or more registering together) includes lunch and materials. Call the USI Office of Continuing Education, 812/464-1989 or 800/467-8600, for information or to register.
