

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

USI schedule

October 1-15, 1996

Tuesday, October 1

Leadership series - USI Extended Services, in cooperation with Fortune magazine, is hosting the local presentation of the first "Worldwide Lessons in Leadership Series." The three remaining programs will feature Dr. Stephen Covey, internationally known author of The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People. Dr. Covey will present "Personal Effectiveness" October 1. The series is being aired in closed-circuit locations in North America, Europe, Australia, South America, Asia, and the Pacific Rim. All local programs start at 11 a.m. at Vanderburgh Auditorium. A variety of ticket prices is available. Call extension 1863 for information.

(For information, call Larry W. Bohleber, manager of the USI Center for Human Resource Development, 812/464-1863.)

USI Theatre

3001 Igleheart Avenue
presents Moliere's comic masterpiece

The School for Husbands

8 p.m. Thursday-Friday-Saturday
October 10-11-12 and 17-18-19
2 p.m. Sunday, October 13 and 20

Tickets: $5 for USI family and seniors (60-plus); $7, general admission

Auditions:

USI Theatre auditions for the holiday classic, A Christmas Carol, 7-9 p.m.
Monday-Tuesday, September 30-
October 1, rehearsal studio

Tuesday, October 1

Fall films - Metropolis (1926, German)
Director: Fritz Lang; cast: Brigitte Helm, Alfred Abel, Gustave Frolich. The mechanized world of 2026 is interrupted by a clash between workers and industrialists, inspiring mad scientist Rotwang to create a robot clone from a beautiful heroic laborer and send her to do the evil bidding of the overboss. This is the most complete version available.

(The films are shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m.
in Forum I; they are free, open to public.
For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

Friday, October 4

Computers in the classroom - The USI Department of Information Systems and Business Education will sponsor the conference, "Focus '96: Computer Applications for the Classroom" for Tri-State business education teachers. The conference begins at 8 a.m. in the University Conference Center; registration is limited to 40.

(For information, call Dr. Larry Arp, department chair, 812/465-7030.)

Friday, October 4

APB programming - Comedian Jonathan
Brandt will entertain at 7 p.m. in Mitchell Auditorium. The program is free and open to the public.

(For information, call Debra L. Foster, student development programs director, 812/465-7066.)

Saturday, October 5

Southern Hospitality Day - The first of four fall Southern Hospitality Days will begin at 9 a.m. in Mitchell Auditorium, allowing Tri-State high school students and their families and friends to get acquainted with USI. Students are invited to join the USI Enrollment Services staff for information sessions on academic programs, financial assistance, campus activities and tours, free lunch, and more. Reservations are required. Call Enrollment Services, 812/464-1765 or 800/467-1965, for reservations or information.

Saturday, October 5

Historic New Harmony - Ms. Pat Culley will demonstrate lye soapmaking from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at The Atheneum.

(For information, contact Cynthia J.
Knudson, manager of development and public programs, 812/682-4488.)

Saturday, October 5

Historic Southern Indiana - HSI will celebrate 10 years of achievement in a buffet reception at the Petroleum Club Saturday, October 5. The celebration will open at 6 p.m. with a social hour and close around 8 p.m. with brief remarks by USI President
H. Ray Hoops and Dr. Darrel E. Bigham, USI history professor who was HSI co-founder in 1986 and has served as its director since. After the reception, the group is invited to dessert and a tour of the new Evansville Convention and Visitors Bureau headquarters in the Pagoda in Sunset Park, next to the Evansville Museum. Special guests at the reception will be Dr. David L.
Rice, former USI president and co-founder of HSI; William Koch, founder of Santa Claus and Holiday World and HSI stalwart; area officials and University faculty who have helped HSI create new opportunities;

(more)

the 27-member Board of Directors from throughout the HSI region; and friends of HSI.

(For information, contact Sally Newhouse Becker, HSI program coordinator, 811/465-7014.)

Sunday, October 6

New Harmony Gallery - A multi-media installation will be featured in an exhibition of the work of Elizabeth Mesa-Gaido of Morehead, Kentucky, which will open with a free public reception from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Gallery; the exhibition will continue through November 13.

(For information, contact Scott Knauer, acting Gallery director, 812/682-3156.)

Sunday, October 6

College fair - USI will host the 1996 Greater Evansville College Fair from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Physical Activities Center. High school students from the Tri-State will be able to talk with representatives from 85 colleges and universities from the three-state area and beyond.

(For information, call Enrollment Services, 812/464-1765.)

Monday, October 7

Eagle Math rally - Citizens Bank, in cooperation with the Athletic and Math departments at the University of Southern Indiana and the Evansville-Vanderburgh School Corporation (E-VSC), will sponsor Eagle Math Mania for local second- and third-grade students this fall. Eagle Math is an incentive program to encourage young students to practice and improve their math skills. USI student athletes and their coaches, led by USI men's basketball Coach Bruce Pearl and women's basketball Coach Chancellor Dugan, will introduce the program to over 600 students at a pep rally at 9 a.m. in the Physical Activities Center. This will be the first of three assemblies to introduce Eagle Math to over 3,500 local elementary students.

(For information, call Kathy W. Funke, News and Information Services director, 812/465-7050.)

Tuesday, October 8

Fall films - Grand Hotel (1932) Director:

Edmund Goulding; cast: Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford, John Barrymore, Lionel Barrymore, Wallace Beery. This Academy Award winner for best picture takes place in a plush Berlin hotel; Garbo is a ballet dancer being romanced by a jewel thief.

(The films are shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free, open to public. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

Tuesday, October 8

Center for Economic Education - A workshop on "Virtual Economics CD-ROM" will be held from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. in room 2040 of the Orr Center for area elementary and high school teachers. The workshop is free but registration is required, so that adequate materials will be available.

(For information, call Dr. Gregory P. Valentine, center director, 812/465-1610.)

Friday-Saturday, October 11-12

Mid-America Conference for Teachers of Psychology - The 13th annual conference will begin at 9 a.m. Friday in the University Conference Center, with Dr. Bill Hill of Kennesaw State University, Georgia, delivering the keynote address, "Reflections on teaching: change and adjustment." Dr. Richard Halgin of the University of Massachusetts will discuss "The agony of the semester, the thrill of the summer: What we hate and love about teaching" at the 7 p.m. after-dinner program. The conference will continue through lunch Saturday.

(For information, call Dr. Joseph J. Palladino, professor of psychology, 812/464-1952.)

Sunday, October 13

Scots in Harmony - From a bagpipe band to tossing the caber, the Scots in Harmony family festival will offer the public a chance to enjoy the region's Scottish heritage. The program is sponsored by the Historic New Harmony Society. Events will run from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Mumford Farm near Griffin and include entertainment by a bal-ladeer, a troubador, the band, and Highland Dancers; a genealogy and clan display; Highland Games; border collie demonstrations; Scottish food and drink at the Pub Tent; and three seatings for a "proper Scottish tea." Admission will be $10 per car for parking and entertainment; food, beverages, and other items such as the tea will be sold separately. Advance reservations may be made at the Historic New Harmony office, 812/682-4488.

(For information, contact Cynthia J. Knudson, manager of development and public programs, 812/682-4488.)

Monday-Friday, October 14-18

Visiting Artist - Ms. Ilona Granet, a New York-based artist whose work is both activist and accessible, will be a Visiting Artist at USI. She has supported herself as a sign painter, which is evident in work that takes the form of faux signs in public areas, addressing national issues. She will present a slide lecture of her work at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Mitchell Auditorium. She also will be Artist-in-Residence Monday through Friday, working from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily with students in the Art Department.

(For information, contact Kathryn M. Waters, associate professor of art, 812/464-1933.)

Tuesday, October 15

Fall films - Casablanca (1942) Director: Michael Curtiz; cast: Humphrey Bogart, Ingrid Bergman, Claude Rains, Paul Henreid, Peter Lorre, Sidney Greenstreet. This American icon — an Oscar winner for best picture, best director, best screenplay — is a World War II drama about Rick's Cafe Americain in which Hollywood did everything right.

(The films are shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free, open to public. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

Tuesday, October 15

Center for Economic Education - A workshop on "Virtual Economics CD-ROM" will be held from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. Vincennes University-Jasper for area elementary and high school teachers. The workshop is free but registration is required, so that adequate materials will be available.

(For information, call Dr. Gregory P. Valentine, center director, 812/465-1610.)

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

USI schedule

October 13-31

Thursday, October 17

Distinguished lecture - The first annual Distinguished Lecture in Natural Science will be presented by Dr. David B. Wilson, an Evansville native and Bosse High School graduate who is professor of history, mechanical engineering, and philosophy at Iowa State University. His topic, "Did the Devil Make Darwin Do It? Rethinking the History of Science and Religion," is based on his book, Did the Devil Make Darwin Do It?, which was selected by CHOICE in 1984 as the Outstanding Academic Book of 1983. The free public lecture will be held at 7 p.m. in Mitchell Auditorium, sponsored by the School of Science and Engineering Technology; a reception will follow. Dr. Wilson's book, which was written for general audiences, will be available for sale and autographing.

(For information, contact Kathy W. Funke, News and Information Services director, 812/465-7050.)

USI Theatre

3001 Igleheart Avenue
presents Moliere's comic
masterpiece

The School for Husbands

8 p.m. Thursday-Friday-Saturday,
October 17-18-19
2 p.m. Sunday, October 20

Tickets: $5 for USI family and
seniors (60-plus); $7, general
admission

Friday, October 18

Justice to speak - Indiana Supreme Court Justice Frank Sullivan will speak at 1 p.m. in SC194, during an International Politics class which will be opened to the University community and the public. His topic will be "A view from the Indiana Supreme Court." Justice Sullivan formerly was an Indiana state budget director for four years and was appointed to the Supreme Court in 1993.

(For information, call Dr. Charles T. Barber, chair of the Philosophy and Political Science Department, 812/464-1726.)

Friday-Saturday, October 18-19

Writing workshops - A trio of writers who also have backgrounds in editing and teaching will conduct writing workshops in the University Conference Center, sponsored by USI Extended Services and the Ohio Valley Writers Guild. "Working Words III" will be held Saturday, October 19, and feature Michael Garrett, Writers Digest School instructor; Dennis Hensley, who has written for a variety of periodicals; and Holly Miller, now travel editor for The Saturday Evening Post. Hensley and Miller will critique submitted manuscripts in advance and meet with authors the day of the workshop. Garrett will be here a day early — October 18 — to conduct a day-long Fiction Critique Workshop, also in the UCC. Registration fees are $95 for the Fiction Critique Workshop and $80 for "Working Words III."

(For information, call Linda L. Cleek, associate director of Extended Services, 812/464-1989.)

Saturday, October 19

WSWI open concert - The USI radio station, WSWI, will sponsor a rock concert featuring seven bands — five local, one from Indianapolis, and one from Terre Haute. The program will run from 6 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Physical Activities Center; it is open to public. The $3 admission charge will benefit the AIDS Resource Group of Evansville.

(For information, call Brett Titzer at WSWI, 812/464-1836.)

Sunday, October 20

Oksoberfest - The annual campus observance of Red Ribbon Week and National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Week will feature Oksoberfest from 12 noon to 4 p.m. in the Outdoor Education area, co-sponsored by the Student Government Association and Mulberry Center. Among activities will be a dunking booth, pumpkin and face painting for the kids, and other games and activities, plus food and baked goods.

(For information, call Dan Skiver, SGA Oksoberfest chair, 812/468-2432.)

Sunday, October 20

German film - The German film, The Broken Jug, will be shown at 2 p.m. in Forum III, sponsored by the USI Association of German Students and the Evansville/Osnabruck Society. The film, in German with English subtitles, is based on an immensely popular comedy by Heinrich von Kleist; it features Emil Jannings in the story of a village judge who has his own sense of dispensing justice. The film is free and open to the public; authentic German cakes will be available to sample.

(For information, call Dr. Susan Smith Wolfe, associate professor of German, 812/465-7026.)

Tuesday, October 22

Eagle Math Mania rally - second of three rallies for Eagle Math Mania, sponsored by Citizens Bank in conjunction with USI Math and Athletic departments and the Evansville-Vanderburgh School Corporation, will bring over 1,000 second- and third-grade students to campus from Culver, Delaware, Howard Roosa, Lodge, Scott, and Vogel schools. Eagle Math is an incentive program to encourage young students to improve their math skills. USI student athletes and coaches, led by basketball Coaches Bruce Pearl and Chancellor Dugan, will greet the kids at 9 a.m. in the PAC.

(For information, call Kathy Funke, News and Information Services director, 812/465-7050.)

Tuesday, October 22

Fall films - An Affair To Remember (1957) Director: Leo McCarey; cast: Cary Grant, Deborah Kerr. This tear-jerker that "men just don't understand" is the story of a star-crossed couple who fall in love on an ocean voyage. It was the basis for the recent Warren Beatty remake.

(The films are shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free, open to public. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

Wednesday, October 23

Sexual Assault Awareness - Ms. Katie Koestner, a victim of date rape while a freshman at the College of William and Mary, has been a leader in bringing the issue to public debate. Her story has been reported across the country via newspaper and television, including an HBO docudrama. She will be the speaker at 7:30 p.m. in Mitchell Auditorium, in a Student Activities/Sexual Assault Prevention Task Force presentation.

(For information, call Debra L. Foster, student development programs director, 812/465-7066.)

Wednesday, October 23

Leadership series - USI Extended Services, in cooperation with Fortune magazine, is hosting the local presentation of the first "Worldwide Lessons in Leadership Series." Dr. Stephen Covey, international

Career Week

Monday-Thursday, October 28-31

Monday: Health Professions Job Fair, 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., Physical Activities Center, sponsored by Career Services and Placement; contact Tracy Powers, assistant director, 812/465-7002.

Tuesday: Alumni-in-Residence: "Leadership in Learning" panel led by Robert Roeder '71, a principal with William F. Mercer Co., Indianapolis, 7-8:30 p.m., Mitchell Auditorium; panelists will be State Rep. Vaneta Becker '94; Patricia Jackson '89, human resources officer at Citizens National Bank; and Mark Neidig '76, senior vice president of the operations division, Old National Service Corporation. The program is sponsored by the USI Alumni Association and Alpha Chi; for information, call Nancy Johnson, alumni director, 812/464-1924.

Rotary mentoring kick-off, 4:30-6 p.m. Citizens National Bank, sponsored by Career Services and Career Services Takes It On the Road — A satellite office will be set up from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in Redwood Lounge; among services available: walk-up resume review; part-time job registration/referral; resume expert; internship advising; hotline information; career counseling; and GRE/LSAT/GMAT registration information, and more.

Placement and Downtown Rotary; for information, call Marilyn Schmidt, Career Services and Placement director, 812/464-1865.

Wednesday: Resume Expert Workshop, 2-4 p.m., Orr Center (room 3074), sponsored by Career Services and Placement; for information, call Marilyn Schmidt, Career Services and Placement director, 812/464-1865.

Thursday: Career Development Seminar, 8:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m., University Conference Center; speakers: TBA; sponsored by USI Student Personnel Club. For information, contact Jeff Bone, president, 812/985-3999

Internship Job Fair, 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m., Orr Center lobby; sponsored by Career Services and Placement and the Communications Arts Club; for information, call Marilyn Schmidt, director, 812/464-1865.

ally known author of The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People, will present "Group Effectiveness" in this third of four programs being aired in closed-circuit locations in North America, Europe, Australia, South America, Asia, and the Pacific Rim. All local programs start at 11 a.m. at Vanderburgh Auditorium. A variety of ticket prices is available; call 812/464-1863.

(For information, call Larry W. Bohleber, manager of the USI Center for Human Resource Development, 812/464-1863.)

Wednesday-Thursday, October 23-24

Distinguished Professor Lecture - Dr. Charles F. Petranek, professor of sociology, will deliver his Distinguished Professor lecture at his 10 a.m. class Wednesday and in a community forum at 7 p.m. Thursday, both in Forum I. Dr. Petranek recently was presented the first Ifill and Reynolds Lifetime Achievement Award by the North American Simulation and Gaming Association. He was selected USI Distinguished Professor by his University colleagues in 1995, but was unable to deliver the lecture last academic year because he and his wife were on a world tour. His lecture topic will be "Lessons From Around the World." The University community and public are invited to attend either lecture.

(For information, call Dr. Petranek, 812/464-1724.)

Friday, October 25

Southern Hospitality Day - The second of five fall Southern Hospitality Days will begin at 9 a.m. in Mitchell Auditorium, allowing Tri-State high school students and their families and friends to get acquainted with USI. Students are invited to join the USI Admission staff for information sessions on academic programs, financial assistance, campus activities and tours, free lunch, and more. Reservations are required. Call the Admission Office, 812/464-1765 or 800/467-1965, for reservations or information. (The other hospitality days will be Saturdays, November 9 and 23 and December 7; November 23 was omitted in the previous listing.)

Friday, October 25

APB programming - Irish singer/song writer Roger Gillen, a native of Sligo, Ireland, transplanted to New York, will perform at 7 p.m. in Mitchell Auditorium. The program is free and open to the public. Gillen was Rolling Stone magazine's Rookie of the Year. He has performed at colleges, clubs, and festivals across the U.S. and on television here and in Ireland.

(For information, call Debra L. Foster, student development programs director, 812/465-7066.)

Friday, October 25

Lambda Chi Alpha Pumpkin Bust - The annual fundraiser to benefit Special Olympics will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Physical Activities Center and will feature a concert by the Indianapolis band, Oliver Syndrome. A "Pumpkin Queen" — the one raising the most money — will be selected from sorority representatives. The public is invited; admission is $4.

(For information, call James Coker of Lambda Chi, 812/468-2187.)

Saturday, October 26

Middle Level Partnership Conference - A day-long review/planning session for educators in the middle school system will begin at 8 a.m. co-sponsored by the USI School of Education and Human Services and Evansville-Vanderburgh School Corporation.

(For information, call Dr. Ruth S. Tompkins, association professor of education, 812/464-1937.)

Saturday, October 26

Interfaith workshop - The Evansville Interfaith Commission is sponsoring two day-long community workshops that will include a session on "Affirming Diversity, Challenging Racism," which begins at 8 a.m. in the University Conference Center. Cathy Cox, executive director of the Indiana Interreligious Commission on Human Equality, will lead the workshops. Registration is limited to 50 participants who want to learn more about racism, prejudice, the value of diversity, and how to address these issues. The first workshop will be at 8 a.m. Friday, October 25, at Temple Adath B'nai Israel in Evansville. The $20 fee covers materials and meals.

(For information, call Dr. Marwan A. Wafa, chair of the USI Management and Marketing Department, 812/464-1944, or the Evansville Council of Churches, 812/425-3524.)

Saturday, October 26

Communal Studies Center lecture - This free public lecture at 10 a.m. has been moved from Beal House to Thrall's Opera House, New Harmony, and will feature a discussion of "Moravian Communalism in America and South Africa" by Dr. Richard Pierard, professor of history at Indiana State University since 1964. A scholar of the history of Christianity, Dr. Peirard has had visiting appointments in Illinois, British Columbia, California, Scotland, and Germany, where he also was a Fulbright Professor at Frankfurt, Berlin, and Halle universities and observed first-hand the revolutionary changes that led to German reunification.

(For information, call Dr. Donald E. Pitzer, Communal Studies Center director, 812/464-1747.)

Tuesday, October 29

Fall films - no film

Thursday, October 31

Communications Arts Club members will don costumes to visit children in area hospitals and take them treats. For information, call Dr. Helen R. Sands, professor of communications, 812/464-1741.