USI schedule

March 1995

Thursday, March 2

Mid-America Singers leave campus on March 2-11 tour of Poland, 6 a.m.

USI Board of Trustees - The USI Board's Finance and Long-Range Planning committees will meet jointly at 8:30 a.m. in UC308, then go into separate committee meetings in UC308 and UC353. The Board will meet at 10 a.m. in UC353.

(For information, contact Sherrienne Standley, vice president for University Relations, 812/464-1755.)

Presidential Scholarship Luncheon - The USI Foundation will host its annual donor recognition luncheon at 11:45 a.m. in UC350, when benefactors and recipients are brought together in the Presidential Scholarship program for Hoosier valedictorians and salutatorians.

(For information, contact Suzanne A. Nicholson, USI Foundation president and Development director, 812/464-1918.)

Saturday-Sunday, March 4-5

Historic New Harmony - Weekend walking tours begin, with groups leaving hourly between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays during March.

(For information, call 812/682-4488.)

Sunday, March 5

NCAA pairings - The USI Athletic Department and Varsity Club will be the hosts for a 1 p.m. gathering in Forum I to watch the NCAA Division II Great Lakes Regional basketball tournament pairings. Tournament play can run from March 7 to 12; times and locations will be determined after the pairings. The Division II national tournaments will begin March 22. The men's Elite Eight will be played in Louisville. Site of the women's competition is to be determined.

(For information, contact Ray Simmons, USI sports information director, 812/465-1622.)

Sunday-Saturday, March 5-12 -- Spring Week, no classes

Monday, March 6

Business students conference - The fourth annual Tri-State Business Students Conference will begin at 8:30 a.m. in Forum I, with up to 600 Tri-State high school students expected to attend. Concurrent sessions in Forums I, II, and III will feature Linda Schmitt of the Consumer Credit Counseling Bureau, discussing consumer credit; John Schutz and Charles Capshaw, brokers at Hilliard Lyons, discussing financial planning; and Yvette Payne of AllState Insurance, discussing auto insurance and how much is enough.

(For information, contact Dr. Gregory P. Valentine, director of the USI Center for Economic Education in Southwest Indiana, 812/465-1610.)

Tuesday, March 7

Spring film series - no film

Friday, March 10

High School Press Day - More than 300 students from 26 Tri-State schools are expected to attend High School Press Day, a program co-sponsored by The Evansville Courier, the Newspapers in Education program, and the USI Communications Department. Jack Dvorak, head of the Indiana University School of Journalism and director of the IU High School Journalism Institute, will speak at 9 a.m. He is co-author of a book on the benefits of journalism for high school students and will discuss that topic. The day's program includes a tour of USI's new communications computer lab in the Health Professions Center, with students getting hands-on demonstrations exploring the Internet.

(For information, contact Dr. Dal M. Herring, chair of the Communications Department, 812/465-7079.)

Tuesday, March 14

Spring film series - The Lady from Shanghai (1948) Director: Orson Welles; cast: Rita Hayworth, Orson Welles, Everett Sloane. Complete with its Hall of Mirrors ending, this much-cut film noir thriller is another example of the Orson Welles touch.

(The movies are shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free, open to the public; for information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

Monday, March 20

Southern Hospitality Day - The second of three spring Southern Hospitality Days will begin at 9 a.m. in the University Center, to allow Tri-State high school students to become acquainted with the University. The final spring program will be April 10. Students, families, and friends are invited to join the USI Enrollment Services staff for informational sessions on academic programs, financial assistance, campus activities and tours, free lunch, and more. No reservations are required.

(For information call USI Enrollment Services, 812/464-1765 or 800/467-1965.)

USI Inaugural

USI's first Presidential Inauguration will be held at 3 p.m. Friday, March 17, in the Vanderburgh Auditorium, with the investiture of Dr. H. Ray Hoops as the second president of the University. A reception in the adjacent Gold Room will follow the one-hour ceremony.

The program is free but tickets are required to assure adequate seating; call 812/464-1755 for tickets.

Another free public event celebrating the inaugural will be a convocation at 10 a.m. Friday in Mitchell Auditorium, featuring Willie Morris, a former colleague of Dr. Hoops at the University of Mississippi in Oxford.

Morris was editor in chief of Harper's magazine from 1967 to 1971 and has since been an author and educator. He was at Ole Miss when Dr. Hoops arrived in 1988. Morris retired in 1990, and devotes his time to writing. He grew up in Yazoo City on the southern fringe of the Mississippi Delta and will speak on the topic, "The Mississippi Delta: The Most Southern Place on Earth." Morris is the author of two autobiographies, North Toward Home (1967) and its sequel, New York Days (1993), which give literary detail to his migration from Mississippi to New York City. A booksigning will follow the convocation.
