EMPLOYEE BANQUET RECOGNIZES SERVICE. Twenty-four employees of the University will be honored for their years of service to ISUE at the annual Employee Recognition Banquet tonight at the Evansville Petroleum Club. Included in the group are two employees who retired in the past year, Gladys Loving, senior secretary in the Division of Education, and William Finn, sergeant in Security. Sgt. Finn also will receive recognition for his 15 years of service in Security. Other 15-year employees are Mary Lue Russler, administrative assistant in Development; Robert Schofield, custodial worker in Physical Plant; William Simmons, custodial services supervisor in Physical Plant, and Edward Walker, stationary engineer in Physical Plant.

Nine employees will be recognized for 10 years' service, including: Betty Baumeyer, key punch operator in the Computer Center; Linda Cleek, administrative secretary in Continuing Education; Fred Daugherty, maintenance mechanic in Physical Plant; Joan Jost, administrative secretary in the Office of the Vice President for Administration; Johanna Kempf, computer operator in the Computer Center; Dick Mills, audiovisual technician in Media Services; Maurice Murray, electronic equipment specialist in the Division of Science and Mathematics; Steven Selby, grounds supervisor in Physical Plant, and Edward Stevens, officer in Security.

Those who will be honored for five years of service are Judy Goen, administrative assistant in the Office of the President; Virginia Hall, senior secretary in the Division of Social Science; Pamela Hopson, financial aids assistant in Financial Aids; William E. Leth, art workshop supervisor in the Division of Humanities; Ingrid Lindy, programmer in the Computer Center; Rose Scruggs, library assistant in the Library; Carolyn Shuck, laboratory aide in Medical Education; Margaret Waide, custodial worker in Physical Plant, and Julia Yancey, data control clerk in the Business Affairs Office.

EDITOR-IN-RESIDENCE REMINDER. William R. Burleigh, former editor of The Evansville Press who now is president and general editorial manager of Scripps-Howard Newspapers in Cincinnati, will be featured as the Editor-In-Residence at ISUE on Friday, March 29, sponsored by the communications faculty of the Division of Humanities. He will speak at 10 a.m. on the topic, "The Legal Clouds Over the First Amendment;" at 11 a.m. on "My Crystal Ball: The Sky Is Not Falling on Newspapers," and at a noon luncheon. The morning programs will be in UC 352-353, and the luncheon will be in UC 350-351; all are open to the public. Interested persons are urged to call extension 1734 today to make reservations for the luncheon, which will be $4 for the public, $3 for the University family.

HUMANITIES FORUM REMINDER. Dr. Ben Eklof, associate professor of history at Indiana University, will speak at 12 noon Thursday, March 28 in UC 350. He will take a critical look at the quantity and quality of change in the Soviet Union's standard of living and how Soviet citizens feel about these changes. Dr. Eklof has lived and studied extensively in the Soviet Union.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Kenneth B. Settle, chairman of the Division of Business, will address the Downtown Optimist Club luncheon today on "Can We Afford to Trade Freedom for Security?"

Dr. Settle also is chairing a task force to prepare the Overall Economic Development Program Annual Report for the City of Evansville/Vanderburgh County. The report is required for consideration for Economic Development Administration funding.

Dr. George S. Abshier, professor of business, went to Washington, D. C. recently to visit with national legislators in support of the research and extension programs of the Indiana Extension/Research Support Committee.

On March 21, Dr. Abshier spoke to the Society of Professional Engineers; on March 23, he spoke to the Indiana Minerals Aggregate Society at Owensboro, Kentucky, and on March 5, he participated in a workshop sponsored by E.A.S.i.e., an organization of small business operators in Evansville. "Time Management" was the topic at each event.

Dr. Robert Gehring, associate professor of psychology, recently presented the following papers: "Recall of Silently Enacted Events with and without Verbal Descriptions," Eastern Psychological Association, Boston, March 22; "High Learning Rates in Research, Teaching, and Corporate Training," AT&T Technologies, Morristown, New Jersey, March 18; and "Research on the Maximization of Learning and Memory Through Computer Interactive Television," Xerox Learning Systems, Stamford, Connecticut, March 20.

On the same trip, Dr. Gehring completed a video-recorded study of educational computer interactive television at the Boston Science Museum on March 21. Finally, he visited Darrel A. Regier, director of the largest National Institute of Mental Health study, and obtained four videotapes of the study.

An article by Dr. Charles T. Barber, ISUE professor of political science, was published this month in the Indiana Academy of the Social Sciences Proceedings, third series, volume 18, pages 122-127. The article, "Indiana Partners and Sister Cities: A Comparison of International Exchange Programs," included discussion of the Evansville-Osnabruck arrangement.

On Sunday, March 24, Dr. Barber and Dr. Charles F. Petranek, associate professor of sociology, participated in the spring board meeting of the Indiana Academy of the Social Sciences at Indiana Central University in Indianapolis. One outcome of the meeting was a decision to hold the 1986 annual meeting on the ISUE campus on October 3.

Dr. Donald E. Pitzer, professor of history, has had his chapter, "Communal Societies," published in Built In The U.S.A., a new book by the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

NEW FACES. Cheril Lynn Griswold is a familiar new employee in the Admissions Office, recently returning to the position of secretary there. She had been admissions secretary from January 1979 through mid-August 1980. A 1968 graduate of Bosse High School, Evansville, she has attended ISUE and ISU, and enjoys boating, water skiing and camping. She and her husband, Mike, a General Electric employee at Mt. Vernon, live on RR 1, Mt. Vernon, with their two daughters, Dawn, 8, and Amber, 4 1/2.

SUVON CHANGES. Please note the following changes in your telephone directory or SUVON dialing guide:

Grace College now has four-digit extension numbers.

IVTC-Lebanon and Holy Cross Junior College are no longer connected to SUVON.

In order to reach the campus operator at the following locations, please dial as indicated:

Bethel College -- dial "0" instead of 11.

Purdue University-West Lafayette -- dial "0" instead of 78211.

Calumet College -- dial "0" instead of 239.

TRADITIONAL MEDICINES TO BE DISCUSSED. Dr. Bernard Lourie, an internal medicine specialist at Welborn Clinic, will be the featured speaker at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 2, in a program at Angel Mounds State Memorial, 8215 Pollack Avenue, sponsored by the Friends of Angel Mounds. Dr. Lourie holds an undergraduate degree in anthropology and has done field work in Peru. He has participated in a World Health Organization smallpox eradication program, trained Peace Corps engineers, and has been a physician on a Navajo Reservation. His topic at Angel Mounds will be "Traditional Medicines of Native Americans and Other Non-Western People." Contact Marjorie Jones in Social Science (extension 1719) for further information.

LIBRARY ESSAY DEADLINE NEAR. April 11 is the deadline for entry in Library Services annual Essay Contest. The winner will be announced during National Library Week, April 14-20. The theme of this year's observance is "A Nation of Readers."

SECRETARIES NEED WHITE ELEPHANT ITEMS. Items for the ISUE Secretaries White Elephant Sale, slated Tuesday, April 16 are coming in like elephants -- very slowly. Donated items may be left with Debbie Wiegand in Purchasing, Gina Walker in the University Library, Carol Stokes in Allied Health, Julia Yancey in Payroll, or Donna Laymon at the Physical Plant.

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES. "King and Country" (1964, 86 minutes, b/w) Director: Joseph Losey. Cast: Dirk Bogarde, Tom Courtenay. This is the tragic World War I story of a young deserter who is condemned to death and shot by his own army, revealing the brutality of war and the cruelty and stupidity of the military code of honor. The film will be shown at 2 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, April 2, in Forum One; it is free and open to the public.

PLEA FROM MEDIA SERVICES. Due to the fact that the Media Services Department currently is understaffed, it is important that all users honor the policies and procedures set forth by the department. This is especially necessary when requesting audiovisual equipment for use in classes. Most production assignments will take longer, and some may not be possible until the arrival of a new coordinator. If you are unsure about the guidelines, please feel free to contact Media Services, extension 1888, for a reminder.

AUDIO CASSETTE TAPE MISSING. Media Services taped the Distinguished Professor Lecture by Dr. Donald E. Pitzer, professor of history, and put it in a campus mail envelope for the President's Office. It never arrived. On the possibility that the envelope had a second destination that hadn't been crossed out, thus was sent to the wrong office, has anyone out there received the tape of Dr. Pitzer's lecture? Its recovery would be very much appreciated.

GOVERNOR'S REGIONAL WORKSHOPS. Workshops will be held in six Hoosier communities during April and May, dealing with the problems of adult illiteracy in Indiana. Sites of the Governor's Regional Workshops on "Literacy in Indiana -- The Issue of the Eighties" will include the University of Evansville on Friday, May 17. Interested persons may contact the Indiana Adult Education Resource Center, 1500 E. Michigan Street, Indianapolis, IN 46201 or call 1-800-624-7585.

FASHION SHOW INVITATION. Everyone is invited to attend the Delta Zeta Fashion Show, which will be held at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 27 in the University Conference Center. Worth's will provide the clothing for the show.

SGA ELECTIONS. Voting on officers of the Student Government Association is under way this week, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily through Friday in the Snack Bar at the University Center.

HUNGER DISCUSSION CONTINUES. Dr. Joseph Goebel, visiting assistant professor of geology/geography, will lead the next Faculty-Staff Christian Discussion Group meeting at noon Monday, April 1, in UC 309, continuing on the topic, "Hunger versus Infrastructure and Politics."

SENIOR RECRUITING SCHEDULE. The following companies will have representatives on campus during the next week for employment recruiting: Comptroller of the Currency, Chicago office, Wednesday, March 27; Peoples Drugs, Thursday, March 28; and K-Mart Corporation, Tuesday, April 2.
