"BACK HOME AGAIN" AT LINCOLN CITY. A special exhibit of 62 photographs from the book, Back Home Again: Indiana in the Farm Security Administration Photographs, 1935-1943, by Dr. Robert Reid, vice president for Academic Affairs, will be on display daily from Sunday, June 26, through Saturday, July 23, at Lincoln Boyhood National Memorial. The photographs, selected for the display by Dr. Reid, focus on the one-third of the nation President Roosevelt described as "ill-housed, ill-clad, and ill-nourished," and provide a striking visual memory of what the Hoosier state was like 50 years ago. The Great Flood of 1937, land erosion, inadequate housing, farm auctions, and people at play are some of the events documented in this photographic display of Indiana rural life.

RETIREMENT RECEPTIONS. USI faculty and staff members are invited to a reception at 3 p.m. Monday, June 27, in the President's Suite honoring Mrs. Ann L. Humphrey, director of Publications who is retiring June 30, and Dr. Harlan Van Over, professor of business who will retire July 15 after completing classes for the First Summer session. The Division of Business also will host a reception/dinner at 6:30 p.m. Friday, July 22, at Western Hills Country Club, Mount Vernon, for Dr. Van Over. Contact Mrs. Sarah Wilson, senior secretary in the Division of Business, extension 1718, for details.

Don't forget the reception honoring Mr. James Baumeyer, systems maintenance supervisor who is retiring June 30. The reception will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. Friday, June 24, in the President's Suite.

PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND. A total of 35 USI faculty and staff members now have contributed $1,905 to the new Presidential Scholarship Fund. Last week's contributors were: Dr. James H. Bandoli, assistant professor of biology; Mrs. Ann S. Cooper, Admissions counselor; Mrs. Judy A. Goen, administrative assistant in the President's Office; Father Anthony B. Kissel, director of Campus Ministry and lecturer in philosophy; Mrs. Patricia C. McReynolds, coordinator of Children's Programs and Special Projects; and Mr. Michael W. Whipple, manager of accounting services.

The fund drive was launched in late May by the USI Foundation, seeking support or endowment for Presidential Scholarships offered to current high school valedictorians or salutatorians who indicate interest in attending USI. USI faculty and staff donations or payroll deductions will be added to the restricted Presidential Scholarship fund to help underwrite these special merit awards that are expected to attract many of Indiana's brightest students to USI. Contributions or pledges to the USI Foundation may be made in the Development Office.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Mr. Timothy K. Buecher, director of Admissions, has accepted an appointment to the Legislative Professional Concerns Committee of the Indiana Association of College Admissions Counselors. The committee is expected to be involved with legislative concerns developing in state and national elections.

CONGRATULATIONS. The University community extends its congratulations to Mrs. Nancy Schindler, assistant in microbiology at the Medical Education Center, and her husband, Michael, on the birth Monday, June 20, of their second child, a daughter Carrie.

Congratulations also to Mr. Sam Williams, stationary engineer at the Physical Plant, and his wife, Linda, on the birth Friday, June 10, of their third daughter, Terese Lynn.

BEST WISHES are extended to Mrs. Ida Laymon, Snack Bar manager for American Food Management who became ill Monday morning at work. Her daughter, Ms. Donna Laymon, senior secretary at the Physical Plant, reports Mrs. Laymon is in room 3510 at Deaconess Hospital, where she is undergoing tests, but is feeling much better.

WOMEN'S MUSIC FEATURED. The Ars Femina Ensemble, a professional musicians' cooperative dedicated to the performance of women's music of the 17th and 18th centuries, will appear in concert at 8 p.m. Friday, June 24, in Thrall's Opera House at New Harmony. Made up of the baroque instruments of violin, viola, cello, and harpsichord, the ensemble also includes several rarely heard instruments such as the viola d'amore and bowed psaltery. The group has combed archives throughout Europe and the U.S. to bring its largely unpublished repertoire to performance. The ensemble's program will include works by Isabella Leonard (1620-1704), Maria von Paradis (1759-1824), Elizabeth-Claude Jacquet de la Guerre (1866-1729), Maria Margherita Grimani (fl. 1713-1718), and one of the oldest surviving pieces of music by a composer from the middle ages -- Hildegard von Bingen (1098-1179). Tickets are $6 and will be available at the door. To reserve a ticket, call the New Harmony State Historic Site, 682-3271.

NEW HARMONY THEATRE TICKETS. Season tickets are available for the summer and fall productions at New Harmony Theatre, under new management by USI Theatre. "Mass Appeal" opened the season and will continue through June. Performances are at 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and 2 p.m. Sundays in Murphy Auditorium. A season ticket is $28; general admission is $8; student and senior citizen tickets are $7. A special rate of $6 per person is available for groups of 20 or more. Tickets are available from the New Harmony Theatre ticket office, (812) 682-3115, or the Division of Humanities, extension 1735.

BALLOON PHOTOS. It was an exciting weekend at USI with the Hot Air Balloon Spectacular and White River Games bringing hundreds of visitors to the campus. Many of you took photos and we would like to exhibit your best efforts in the entry case of the Administration Building, in a special display of photos taken by USI employees. Bring your photos to the President's Office so we can extend that exciting weekend into several more weeks of enjoyment.
