Ted D. DeVries, Chairman of Division of Education and Associate Professor of Education at Indiana State University Evansville, has been nominated by the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education to assist in preparations for a forthcoming National Conference on Education. The conference, entitled "Redesigning Teacher Education," will be held in St. Louis, Missouri, on May 9-11, 1973. Dr. DeVries has been Chairman of the Division of Education since its inception in 1969, and has been responsible for many of the Division's innovative approaches to teacher education.
