USI DETECTIVE SERIES HAS OPENINGS

For Immediate Release
January 29, 1993

Detective story fans will want to join two University of Southern Indiana mystery enthusiasts -- Robert Reid, history professor, and Ronald Roat, journalism professor and author of a budding detective series -- in exploring the evolution of the private detective in American fiction. The four-week class will meet on Tuesdays, starting February 9, reading and discussing selected novels and stories. The registration fee is $40; call the USI Office of Continuing Education, 812/464-1863, for information or to register.
