USI promotes administrators

University of Southern Indiana announces the promotion of three administrators in the Office of Admission:

■ Former admission counselor Miss MaryBeth Cable has been promoted to the position of senior admission counselor. The Evansville resident joined the University in 1999. She holds a B.A. in communications from USI, where she earned the President's Medal in 1999.

■ Former admission counselor Mrs. Shannon Hile has been promoted to the position of senior admission counselor. The Evansville resident joined the University in 1999. She previously worked as director of Tender Tots Village. A USI graduate, she holds an A.S. in early childhood and a B.S. in elementary education with kindergarten endorsement.

■ Former senior admission counselor Mr. Mark Rusk has been promoted to the position of assistant director of Admission. The Evansville resident joined the University in 1999. He previously worked as an admission counselor at USI, at William Penn College in Oskaloosa, Iowa, and at Cardinal Stritch University in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. A magna cum laude graduate, Rusk holds a B.A. from University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.
