Try these 1879 rules for New York City Public Schools, submitted by Dr. Dan Scavone:

- * Teachers each day will fill lamps, clean chimneys.
- * Make your pens carefully. You may whittle nibs to the individual taste of the pupils.
- * Every teacher should lay aside from each pay a goodly sum of his earnings for his benefit during his reclining years so that he will not become a burden on society.
- * The teacher who performs his labor faithfully and without fault for five years will be given an increase of twenty-five cents per week in his pay, providing the Board of Education approves.
