INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY EVANSVILLE

Located in Southwestern Indiana, Indiana State University Evansville serves the Evansville and Mt. Vernon communities, and communities in the surrounding area. ISUE provides academic offerings in four-year baccalaureate degree programs, two-year associate degree programs, and one-year certificate programs. Non-credit classes, professional seminars and workshops, and special short-course sessions are offered throughout the year by the Office of Continuing Education.

Indiana State University Evansville is accredited by the North Central Association, the Indiana State Department of Public Instruction, the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education, and the Council on Dental Education of the American Dental Association.

The Evansville-Campus is a part of the two-campus system of Indiana State University. The Terre Haute campus has a strong history of service to the State of Indiana since 1870. Richard G. Landini serves as President of Indiana State University. David L. Rice serves as President of the Evansville Campus.

Thank You

The Eagles of 1977 express thanks to all the people, companies and backers who helped make this season a success. We tip our bats to the fans and people who graciously donated their services and time to ISUE and its baseball team. The team knows the fans and backers of the Eagles' team make the team.
