Area educators and interested organizations are invited to attend a day-long program on Monday, April 11, at the University of Southern Indiana in which opportunities to obtain project funding from the National Science Foundation will be discussed.

The program will be conducted by Ms. Lola E. Rogers, NSF outreach coordinator and program officer in the Division of Research Initiation and Improvement. It will start at 8 a.m. with 45 minutes of informal conversations, followed by a two-hour overview of eligible projects; participants will be given assistance on proposal development during the afternoon session.

The $10 registration fee includes a continental breakfast and lunch; the fee is $3 without lunch. Call Mrs. Patricia McReynolds, USI grants coordinator, (812) 464-1863, for information or to register.
