

USI'S AFTER-SCHOOL

"MATH WITH ALL THE ANGLES"

HAS OPENINGS

For Immediate Release
February 4, 1988

CONTACT: Athletic Department
(812) 464-1846

Openings still are available in the After School Program for Children, "Geometry -- the Math With All the Angles," sponsored by the University of Southern Indiana Office of Continuing Education.

Construction projects and practice with protractors and compasses will help make geometry interesting and accessible for youngsters from age 5 through the fifth grade. Classes will meet from 3:30 to 5 p.m. for six Wednesdays, starting February 10, at Evansville Day School.

The registration fee is $35. Call the USI Office of Continuing Education, (812) 464-1863.
