Editor, Kathy Will; Associate Editor, Judy Rogers

RICHARD LUGAR ON CAMPUS. Indiana Republican senatorial candidate Richard Lugar will be on campus October 22, 1974 at 3:00 p.m. in Room 28 for a question and answer session with ISUE students, faculty and staff. Sponsored by the Young Republicans, the session will be open to the public.

NORTH CENTRAL ASSOCIATION REPORT AVAILABLE. The North Central Association evaluators' reports have been bound and are available for reading in the Office of the President.

OPEN HOUSE SUNDAY. Visitors and parents of ISUE students are being invited to ISUE for an Open House Sunday, October 20. The University Center cafeteria will be serving a Sunday buffet beginning at 11:00 a.m. Other campus buildings will be open at 1:00 p.m. through 5:00 p.m.

A schedule of activities during the Open House will be distributed to campus guests.

The Open House provides ISUE employees a fine opportunity to invite family and friends to see the campus.

OPEN HOUSE AT CENTRAL ARENA. Coach Wayne Boultinghouse is planning an open basketball practice for ISUE Eagles and a basketball clinic for grade school aged children at ISUE Central Arena, 218-220 N.W. 6th St., during the campus open house. The gym will be open from 3:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Basketball practice will be conducted for persons to observe the Eagles in action. Children of open house guests are welcome to participate in the Eagles' drills. The players and coaches will help with instruction. Participants should bring their own practice apparel and shoes.

EDUCATION ALUMNI TO HOLD BREAKFAST. The ISUE Alumni Association and the Division of Education are sponsoring an Education Alumni Breakfast at 7:30 a.m. on October 24 in the University Center cafeteria. Elementary education majors and secondary education students who have graduated from ISUE are being invited to the breakfast. The ISUE Alumni Association extends an invitation to faculty and administrators to attend the breakfast. Cost of the breakfast is $2.50. Persons interested in attending are to complete the attached reservation card and send to Elizabeth Buck, Alumni Affairs Office, before October 23, 1974.

The breakfast will include a short program and will adjourn promptly at 8:45 a.m. Brief tours of the University Center will follow the breakfast.

"PROSPECTIVE STUDENT DAYS" PLANNED. The Admissions Office is sponsoring three "Prospective Student Days" this fall. These days are designed for high school juniors and seniors who are interested in learning more about ISUE. Parents are encouraged to attend with their son or daughter.

Each "Prospective Student Day" will feature different Divisions within ISUE, as follows:

Thursday, October 24 -- Allied Health, Science & Math

Friday, October 25 -- Social Science, Education, Technology

Monday, November 11 -- Business, Humanities

Campus tours will be available to prospective students, and lunch will be served in the cafeteria.

ISUE SECRETARIES TO MEET. "Fall in" line at the University Center Cafeteria on Thursday, October 17 at 11:45 a.m. for the October meeting of the Secretaries of ISUE. Donald Pitzer, Professor of History, will present a program on "Contemporary Communes." Hostesses for the meeting will be Jo-Ann Wilson and Mary Lue Russler. New members are invited. Secretaries, bring your tray to the Presidents' Suite (far end of the cafeteria) and enjoy an interesting and congenial hour meeting.

DONOR RECOGNITION DINNER SCHEDULED. The Indiana State University Evansville Foundation Board of Directors and the Indiana State University Board of Trustees will host a Donor Recognition Dinner in the University Center Cafeteria on October 18, 1974 beginning at 6:00 p.m. The dinner will recognize the Donor Recognition Program participants who contributed significantly to the University Center. INTERPRETERS THEATRE PRODUCTION (by Lillian Giello, Director). The Communications Arts Club will open its Interpreters Theatre on October 19 and 20 at the ISUE Theatre. Curtain time will be 8:15 p.m. both evenings and the admission will be $1.00 for adults and students, and 50¢ for children.

The production theme of this semester's show is "Folly." The material chosen for the pleasure and reflection of the audience, like the theme, promises a vast variety of interpretations and theatrical techniques -- mime to impersonation, kick line to classical ballet, singers, actors, a speaking chorus, not to mention a live orchestra on stage.

"Folly" represents the work of some of the students' talent at ISUE. Much of the written material and practically all of the music is original. The following individuals serve as production heads for the show:

Director.....Lillian Giello
Sound and Music...Steve Amos and Dave Schnerr
Set Design and Construction...Bob Barnett
Lighting.....Terry Walthall
Publicity.....Ben Bridwell and Harold Tepool
Programs and
Posters.....Donna Estes
Choreography.....Debbie DaRado

GUEST SPEAKER ON CAMPUS. The ISUE Psychology Club will present Professor Dewey Moore on Thursday, October 17 at 7:30 p.m. in Room 28. A member of the University of Evansville Department of Education, Professor Moore has done extensive work with autistic children and has also written books on autism. The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting and meet Professor Moore.

ISUE STUDENT TO ATTEND NATIONAL INSTITUTE. ISUE junior Frank McKissic has been selected to attend the National Leadership Institute of Youth for Federal Union at Trinity College in Washington, D.C. October 11 through October 14. The four-day institute will cover the topic of federalism as it relates to North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). McKissic, a political science major, was accepted to the national institute through an application he submitted to the staff of Youth for Federal Union.

MINORITY HISTORY AND CULTURE WORKSHOP TO BE HELD. The In-Service Institute in Human Relations will hold a workshop Saturday, October 19 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in Room 126 in the Administration Building. Dr. Geneva Gay, Associate Secretary, Association for Supervision & Curriculum Development, Washington, D.C., will lead the workshop on "Minority History and Culture." Interested persons are invited to attend.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY TO HOLD BIKE-A-THON. A Bike-A-Thon sponsored by the American Cancer Society will be held Saturday, October 19 (in case of rain on October 20) beginning at 1:00 p.m. The contest is limited to persons under 18 years of age and will begin at Plaza School for a 15 mile bike trip. Prizes to be awarded are a 10-speed Fuji Tourer, $25 gift certificate from the Handlebar Bicycle Shop, and a $10 gift certificate also from the Handlebar Bicycle Shop.

Interested persons can request additional information or a registration form from Judy Rogers in the President's Office.

MARKETPLACE. FOR SALE -- 1974 Park Avenue MOBILE HOME. 12x52, 2 bedroom, totally electric. Small down payment. Take over 7-1/2 percent loan. Call 985-2452 or Jonna Brenner, ext. 340.

CHRISTMAS CARDS/1975 CALENDARS -- If you order your Christmas cards or 1975 appointment calendar from the Evansville Association for Retarded Citizens, Inc. Auxiliary this year, you will be helping them purchase a Tot Wheel Chair for the Vanderburgh Development and Training Center. Equipment is needed for the new building and this is a painless way you can help. The cards and calendar are of high quality; many were designed by retarded citizens and each one sent helps dispel the misconception that the retarded are incapable of artistic self-expression. Don't delay. Order now. For information call Mrs. Larry Cox at 424-7340.
