Dr. Margaret Skoglund to lead art tour in Spain

Dr. Margaret Skoglund, chair of the Art and Music Department at the University of Southern Indiana, will lead a tour of Spain from May 24 to June 9, 2000. The focus of the international trip will be the art and architecture of Spain. Cathedrals, museums, and historically significant homes will be included in the 15-day sightseeing agenda. Travelers will taste sherry at the Sandeman Cellars in Jerez de la Frontera, visit the Valley of the Fallen in El Escorial, and tour the Picasso Museum in Barcelona.

Interested persons may attend an informational meeting about the tour at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, December 1, in the Technology Center, room 232. The informational meeting will include slides of sights on the tour. Cost for the tour will be under $3,000 per person, but is undetermined at this date.

The tour may be taken for three hours of art history credit.

For more information, call the USI Art and Music Department at 812/465-7047.
