NATIONAL STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY

On September 22, 1972, a panel discussion "Student Involvement in Local Government," will be held in Room Ad. 126 from 1:15 to 2:15 p.m.

Members of the panel include Col. Wallace Wardner, Asst. Prof. of Political Science, The Honorable Russell G. Lloyd, Mayor of Evansville, and The Honorable Phillip Hayes, Indiana State Senator. There will be an open discussion after the panel's remarks, and the public is invited to attend. The panel discussion, sponsored by the ISUE Student Government, is being held in conjunction with National Student Government Day recently proclaimed by President Nixon.

BLUE CROSS/BLUE SHIELD POLICY

Faculty who have a child or children in college are reminded that the child is covered by your family Blue Cross/Blue Shield Policy until he or she is 23 years of age (Dec. 31 following 23rd birthday) and as long as he or she is in college and still a dependent.

NEW BOOKSTORE HOURS

The Bookstore will now be open from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday. On Friday the ISUE Bookstore hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

INFORMATION TO THE SWITCHBOARD

The ISUE Administration, Faculty and Staff are reminded to notify the main switchboard of any university sponsored activity or event that may be held on campus. It is especially important for the switchboard to be notified of events occurring after 5:00 p.m. in order to direct students and answer incoming calls inquiring about the events. Any changes in scheduled events such as room changes or cancellations should be directed to the switchboard.

A phone call to the switchboard operator or an interoffice memo listing the details of the event including time and place; and whether or not the event is open to the public, is all that is necessary.

ISUE EVALUATION CARDS

Indiana State University Evansville IBM Course Evaluation Cards are available at any time from Brad Awe, Room L-124, ext. 322. Please submit a written order including your name, department, and number of cards requested and allow a minimum of three days for processing.

OFF CAMPUS PART-TIME JOBS FOR STUDENTS

Beginning September 1, 1972, Mr. William E. Couch, Administrative Assistant for Student Services, will assume responsibilities for assisting students in finding suitable employment in part-time jobs off campus. He will be creating a file for students interested in seeking part-time employment and also will maintain a file of available part-time jobs within the tri-state area. All information regarding part-time employment should be sent to Mr. Couch so that he can distribute the information to interested persons. Students are encouraged to submit their names to Mr. Couch so he can assist them in locating employment. All employers are also encouraged to contact him if they desire students to assist them in their business.

Mr. Couch can be reached in the Administrative Wing Room 118-B, Indiana State University Evansville. Telephone AC 812/426-1251, ext. 308. The Office of Career Placement will continue to assist ISUE graduates in their search for suitable career employment.

ISUE PROFESSOR RECEIVES AWARD

Dr. Thomas R. Walsh, Assistant Professor of Education, has been notified that his article, "The American Green of Charles Bessey," has received the Seller's Award for best published article in the Nebraska History, a historical quarterly, published by the Nebraska State Historical Society.

The award is presented annually by the Nebraska State Historical Society in honor of Dr. James Sellers, a former department chairman of the History Department at University of Nebraska. The award consists of a monetary award and an inscribed plaque.

Dr. Walsh's award winning article deals with Charles Bessey, former Chairman of the Botany Department at University of Nebraska. Dr. Bessey was a prominent American Botanist who was involved in the early development of the study of botany. He introduced the idea of laboratory study in the botany curriculum.

Dr. Walsh will be honored at the October meeting of the Nebraska Historical Society.

ISUE BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The ISUE Baseball schedule for the Fall season is as follows:

Sept. 15	Kentucky Wesleyan (Double Header)
Sept. 22	Northwood (Double Header)
Sept. 30	*Kentucky Wesleyan Classic (Tournament)

*Four teams will participate in the Kentucky Wesleyan Classic. Playing in the tournament will be Northwood, Middle Tennessee State, Kentucky Wesleyan and Indiana State University Evansville.

Returning lettermen this year are Dennis Pruiett, Lenny Titzer, Don Powers, John Walker, Gary Russell, Bill Kothe, Tom Schapker, Tom Hammerstein, John Bising, Ron Romain, and John Warner. Coaching the ISUE Baseball team this year is Jim Brown.

SCHOOLS FOR TOMORROW

A brochure describing the Schools for Tomorrow will be sent to all faculty and staff. The brochure describes a series of programs to be presented in October and November and it is open to the public. A pre-registration blank is included with the brochure. All interested faculty and staff may wish to attend these meetings. There is no charge.

Brochures for interested students are available from Dr. Robert Small in Education and Dr. Walter Hopkins in the Social Science Division.

ISUE TENNIS COURTS TO BE COMPLETED

Work is still being done to complete the new tennis courts on campus. Weather permitting, the tennis courts should be completed by the end of this week. Rules and regulations regarding the courts will be posted on the grounds by the ISUE Athletic Department.

MAIL SERVICE TO MEDICAL EDUCATION CENTER

Any mailings to the Medical Education Center from our campus can be placed in the campus mail and it will be forwarded to the Medical Education Faculty from our University Mailroom. The six faculty members receiving mail at the Medical Education Center are, Dr. Patrick Corcoran, Dr. George Guthrie, Dr. Edward Gesser, Dr. Gordon Leitch, Dr. Howell Rogers and Dr. Ruthann Sturtevant. The mail forwarded to these people is picked up each day by someone from the Medical Education Center, therefore it is not necessary to send the mail through the U.S. Post Office.

Also, when a general mailing is released from campus, all faculty and staff are reminded to send six copies of the mailing to the Medical Education Center so all faculty there will receive the mailing.
