USI Concert Choir to present holiday program

For immediate release
November 8, 1994

The University of Southern Indiana Concert Choir will present its second concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, December 11, in Emanuel Lutheran Church, 308 First Avenue, with Johann Christian Bach's "Magnificat" and other holiday selections to be featured.

The USI Mid-America Singers will join in this concert as an "echo choir" for the piece, "Rorando Coeli" by Vodansky.

The Concert Choir has 43 USI student, faculty, and staff members this year and Daniel Craig, the director, would like to see it grow to at least 60 voices. Singers from the community are invited to contact Craig about joining the choir. Call 812/464-1736.

The Emanuel concert is free and open to the public.
