HUMANITIES FORUM. Curtis Stotlar will perform the second recital of the Comprehensive Beethoven for Piano series on Sunday, February 13. The recital begins at 2:00 p.m. in Forum One of the Administration Building. Tickets are $2.00 at the door.

The university is pleased to announce the Kimball Company of Jasper has agreed to loan a Bosendorfer piano for the recital series to best demonstrate Stotlar's virtuoso style.

CREDIT UNION HIGHLIGHTS. The ISU Federal Credit Union and Hertz Used Car Sales are holding a special sale. Credit Union members can get extra special discount prices on late model, fully warranted used cars on February 18 and 19 from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at 2835 Wabash Avenue, Terre Haute. Each member will be receiving a letter of invitation to the sale accompanied with more information. Anyone planning to attend the sale should contact the Credit Union in advance to make arrangements for possibly obtaining a loan.

Loan interest rates have been lowered: share pledge loans 10% APR, new cars and trucks 12% APR, all other secured loans 14% APR, and signature loans 16% APR. Free life insurance is offered on all qualified loans.

Periodically it is recommended that Credit Union members review the joint signer names on an individual account. Personal status changes often necessitate a change in account information. For information concerning an account, contact the Credit Union at 8-749-2461.

CREDIT UNION HIGHLIGHTS (continued). Coming soon...Share Draft Accounts (checking) will soon be available to members of the Credit Union. Watch the University Notes for additional information.
