Palladino, chair of the Psychology Department, again will serve as master of ceremonies. Coordinators for the program are Dr. Sherry B. Darrell, associate professor of English; Mr. Matthew R. Graham, assistant professor of English/creative writing; and Ms. Waters.

Dr. Darrell said they appreciate the faculty symposium nominations earlier this year. She said from those nominations, the following students have accepted the invitation to attend: Ms. Tina Alldredge, business education; Mr. Stan Angermeier, biology; Ms. Lisa Ashby, marketing; Mr. Michael Bacon, biology; Ms. Camille Brinksneader, biology; Mr. Brad Burris, chemistry; Ms. Angie Elpers, accounting; Mr. Brent Endsley, history and English; Ms. Sindy Fritchley, English; Mr. Keith Gerteisen, economics; Ms. Heather Goebel, psychology; Mr. Tom Gunnison, electrical engineering technology; Ms. Joyce Hamilton, elementary education; Ms. Luzada Hayes, social work; Ms. Laura Hedrick, science and mathematics; Ms. Mary Hollars, accounting; Ms. Kim Husk, communications; Mr. Steve Jamell, marketing; Mr. Rick Jillson, psychology; Ms. Susie Meyer, psychology; Ms. Shelly Moody, German and Spanish; Ms. Gloria Gail Moore, English and history; Ms. Runell Moyer, elementary education; Mr. James Nalley, political science; Ms. Lisa Nance, marketing; Mr. Amish Patel, biology; Mr. John Pfender, finance; Mr. Kimron Reising, sociology; Ms. Julie Schmitt, computer information services; Ms. Debra Seifrig, mathematics; Mr. Steve Spradley, elementary education; Mr. Blake Titzer, biology; Ms. Karen Uebelhach, chemistry; and Ms. Wendy Winkleman, finance.

NOTRE DAME THEOLOGIAN TO BE NEWMAN LECTURER. Dr. Richard P. McBrien, Crowley-O'Brien-Walter Professor of Theology and chairman of the Department of Theology at Notre Dame University, will be the first annual John Henry Newman Lecturer at USI. He will lecture on Wednesday, February 15 -- "The Politics of Abortion" at 1 p.m. and "Religion and Politics in America" at 7:30 p.m., both in UC350. The public is invited. The program is sponsored by Campus Ministry, initiating an annual lecture program to honor the 19th century Anglican priest who converted to Catholicism and worked with college students to help them grow spiritually as well as intellectually.

VIETNAM WAR HISTORIAN TO LECTURE. Dr. George C. Herring, a University of Kentucky professor who is a recognized Vietnam War historian and author of America's Longest War: The United States and Vietnam, 1950-1975, will be the first Sydney Berger Lecturer on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 21 and 22. The Sydney Berger Lecture, expected to become an annual event to encourage public discussion of social and religious issues, honors the late Evansville attorney as an outstanding citizen and former part-time faculty member at USI. Dr. Herring will deliver a public lecture on "Vietnam, American Foreign Policy, and the Uses of History" at 7:30 p.m. on February 21 in UC350. He will lecture on "Vietnam as History" in a sociology class at 10 a.m. February 22 in Forum I, also open to the public, and will be available to meet with students and faculty during a luncheon meeting at 12 noon in the President's Suite.

LIVING LITERATURE. "Shedding Light on Shakespeare," a new show designed specifically with school curricula in mind, will be presented in a Liberal Arts Forum at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 15, in the USI Theatre. Mr. Mark Stevenson and Ms. Arlene Sterne, New York actors, perform highlights from "Hamlet," "Macbeth," and "Romeo and Juliet," and place these works in their historical context as they share interesting stories and little-known facts about Elizabethan England and Shakespeare's personal relationship to it. The program is free and open to the public. In addition, three English classes will meet at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, February 16, in Forum II for a lecture on Shakespeare.

WELCOME. The University community welcomes Mr. W. L. "Rusty" Mundell, who has been named director for this year's production of "Young Abe Lincoln" at Lincoln State Park. A writer, director, and producer of outdoor dramas in Ohio, Kentucky, and Minnesota, Mr. Mundell has a master's degree from George Washington University and taught at Ohio University. He will join the USI staff in late April to begin work on the summer production and will train a USI Theatre faculty member to continue the program in the future. Mr. Mundell was a writer for the "Wild Kingdom" television series and was casting director for the TV miniseries, "Centennial." He helped found the nonprofit association in 1970 that created "Tecumseh," an outdoor drama in Chillicothe, Ohio. He was producer and artistic director for that theatre for 17 years and directed the show for seven seasons. He also wrote and directed "Blue Jacket," a Xenia, Ohio, outdoor drama, and wrote "Viking," a show presented in Park Rapids, Minnesota.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Mr. Larry W. Bohleber, manager of Business Development Programs, and Dr. M. Edward Jones, associate vice president for Academic Affairs, attended the annual conference of the Business, Industry, and Labor Division of the National University Continuing Education Association February 1-3 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Mr. Bohleber presented a conference session on "The Assessment Center Approach to Successful University-Business Partnerships." Dr. Jones, a member of the BIL executive committee, moderated three sessions on university-business cooperation.

Mrs. Sandra J. Hermann, University Division coordinator, will conduct a session on "Life Planning/Career Planning" during "Women's Day '89" on Saturday, March 18, at Green Convention Center, co-sponsored by WFIE-TV and St. Mary's Medical Center. The day-long program will offer a variety of speakers, booths, exhibitions, and health screenings of interest to women. Admission is $2; babysitting will be provided by St. Vincent's Day Care at the Executive Inn.

The USI Library has received the five-volume set, Great Lives From History: Ancient and Medieval Series, which includes two "lives" in volume four -- Philo of Alexandria and Priscian the Grammarian -- that were written by Dr. Daniel C. Scavone, professor of history. A similar set, The Modern Series of Great Lives, will contain five biographies by Dr. Scavone: Guicciardini, Florentine Renaissance historian; Bramante, Roman Renaissance architect; Tintoretto, Venetian Renaissance painter; Columbus; and Toulouse-Lautrec, post-Impressionist painter. Dr. Scavone's paper, "Augustus, Cicero, and the Roman Revolution," will be on the program of the Indiana Association of Historians' March 4 meeting at Butler University.

SYMPATHY. The University community extends sympathy to the family of Mr. Jack L. Huston, 58, a PAC custodial worker who died Thursday, February 9. The family requested that memorial contributions be made to Deaconess Hospital Cancer Unit.

"THE WEEK OF THE BEAK." The USI Homecoming will be Saturday, February 18, when the USI Eagles will play Missouri Baptist at 7:30 p.m. The 1989 King and Queen will be introduced at half time and the USI Alumni Association will honor graduation classes of 1974, 1979, 1984, and 1988. Following the game, the Alumni/Faculty reception in the PAC will feature entertainment by Electric Larry & the Brown Sisters; the student Homecoming Dance in the UC Dining Room will feature The Rave.

USI THEATRE. The Irish comedy, "Playboy of the Western World," by John Millington Synge, will be the first spring production at the USI Theatre, 3001 Igleheart Avenue. Director Brian Sajko urges that reservations be made, because some student attendance is being required. The curtain goes up at 8 p.m. Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, February 23-25 and March 2-4; there also will be a matinee performance at 2 p.m. Sunday, February 26. Tickets are $3 for students, faculty, and staff, $5 for all others.

HEALTH SERVICES HAS MOVED. The Office of Health Services has been moved to room 117 on the lower level of the University Center, where it is hoped services will be more accessible to students and faculty and staff members. Open house will be held from 1 to 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 9, to acquaint everyone with the new facilities. One of the first new services is free pregnancy testing, offered in cooperation with a statewide campaign initiated by the State Maternal and Child Health Division, State Board of Health. The confidential service is available to students, faculty and staff members, and their immediate families. Call Mrs. Sandi Lawrence, director of Health Services, extension 1807, for an appointment.

NEH SEMINARS. March 1 is the deadline to apply for the National Endowment for the Humanities' 1989 Summer Seminars for College Teachers, a program offering 63 seminars in which teachers and other scholars will work closely with a distinguished colleague and have use of resources in a major research library or collection. Topics will include American cultural and urban history, English Romantic literature, philosophical and anthropological approaches to law, Gothic architecture, and African history and literature. Contact Mrs. Pat McReynolds, coordinator of Special Projects, extension 1972, for information.

FACULTY CLUB BRIDGE. The Faculty Club bridge players will meet from 4 to 7 p.m. Thursday, February 16, in the UC Dining Room for bridge and pizza. The event is open to all Faculty Club members and those who wish to be. Call Dr. James H. Bandoli, assistant professor of biology, extension 1792, for information.

DORSEY ORCHESTRA AT MURPHY. The Tommy Dorsey Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Buddy Morrow, will present a concert at 8 p.m. Saturday, February 25, at Murphy Auditorium in New Harmony, co-sponsored by Historic New Harmony and the Red Geranium. Tickets are $10 a person and may be obtained from Lifestyle Tours, (812) 838-1477. The Red Geranium also is offering a dinner-concert-overnight package; call (812) 682-4431.

RECREATION GUIDE AVAILABLE. A free 1989 Indiana Recreation Guide, a 36-page brochure outlining programs, entertainment, hours, and costs for Hoosier state parks, is available in University Relations. Stop by and pick up a copy.

BOOKSTORE RENOVATION. Mr. David S. Deering, manager of the USI Bookstore, reports the Bookstore will be renovated this summer, with work scheduled to be under way around May 15. Everything will be removed to bare walls to accommodate the contractor. Beginning Monday, February 20, all books that have not been requested for summer or fall classes will be returned to the publishers for credit. Mr. Deering asks that you please tell your students that, if they have not yet purchased their books, to do so without delay. If notified in time, he said, they can keep any books currently in use and planned for use again in the summer or fall. The Bookstore will remain open for business, book buy, and intersession registration during construction, operating from a small area in the Snack Bar. A proposed fall schedule became available on Monday, February 13.

HONORS DAY PLANS. Preparations now are being made for the 1989 Honors Day, which will be held at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Dr. Robert L. Reid, vice president for Academic Affairs, advises that faculty members should set aside the 9:30-11:30 a.m. period for Honors Day activities, canceling only the 9:30-10:50 classes. All other classes will be held on the normal schedule. Mrs. Judy A. Wells, instructor in mathematics, is coordinating this year's program; questions may be directed to her at extension 1992.

COMMENCEMENT ORDERS. Mr. David S. Deering, manager of the USI Bookstore, reports that faculty regalia should be ordered as soon as possible to ensure delivery by the USI Commencement in May. Items need not be picked up or paid for until needed. Master regalia is $30.10; doctor regalia, $34.25. See Mr. Deering for special ordering.

SECRETARIES MEETING. Sr. Sheila Griffin will present information on "Communications: Focusing on Conflict and Negotiations" at the meeting of the USI Secretaries and Associates Club at 11:45 a.m. Thursday, February 16, in UC350. Members may bring their lunch or go through the cafeteria line; dessert will be provided by Mrs. Carolyn Maasberg and Mrs. Jean Devine, administrative assistants to the vice president for Business Affairs and vice president for University Relations, respectively.

COMMUNITY FORUM. Leadership Evansville and the Evansville Bar Association are sponsoring "Choices in a Changing Society: A Community Forum" to provide an opportunity for public discussion of issues affecting our daily lives. The programs are being held at 4:30 p.m. at Channel 9, 405 Carpenter Street. "Privacy: Individual Rights vs Public Concerns" will be discussed Thursday, February 16. The final program on "Human Genetic Engineering: Therapy or Heresy?" will be February 23. All interested persons are invited to participate.

APPLES FOR STUDENTS. The Student Education Association is asking faculty and staff to encourage students to join in the effort to collect $150,000 worth of Schnuck's grocery receipts to help win an Apple computer for USI. Students are asked to write USI-SEA on the back of their receipts and drop them in boxes located at the cashier's window, the UC information desk, and the MASH and Campus Apartments rec rooms. The receipts should be dated between October 10, 1988, and April 8, 1989. All USI organizations are encouraged to join in the drive also; put collective receipts in an envelope and drop it in the boxes. Organizations which collect receipts totaling $2,740 or more will have their names placed on an appreciation plaque beside the computer, which will be located in the USI Library. All unmarked receipts will be credited to faculty and staff. Your efforts will be appreciated and recognized. The collection to date totals $16,321.69.

RESEARCH DEVELOPMENT SERIES. Dr. Walter W. Jermakowicz, associate professor of business, will lecture on "International Involvement of Southern Indiana Firms" at the next Research Development Series program at 3 p.m. Monday, February 20, in UC308. Series papers are made available by the School of Business.

GERMAN FILMS. The Evansville-Osnabruck Society will host a film evening at 7 p.m. Friday, February 17, in Forum I, when two films will be shown. "Ein Tag mit dem Wind" is the story of a search for a lonely boy in the wilds and "Land of the Brothers Grimm" is a short tour through Hesse, where the Grimm brothers found sources for their fairy tale collection. English subtitles are provided for the German soundtracks. Admission is free but donations are appreciated. German-style desserts will be available at intermission.

SPRING FILM SERIES -- "The Heiress" (1949, 115 minutes) Director: William Wyler; cast: Olivia de Havilland, Montgomery Clift, Ralph Richardson) Based on a popular play which in turn was based on Henry James' novel, Washington Square, this film gave Ms. de Havilland her second Oscar. In nearly every way, the film illustrates the conventions of the "well made" Hollywood movie. The film will be shown at 2 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, February 21, in Forum I; it is free and open to the public.
