

USI SCHEDULE

ADD - WEEK OF MARCH 31

Tuesday, April 2

Chemistry Speakers: Dr. Howard E. Dunn, professor of chemistry, and Dr. Benjamin P. Miller, professor of physics, will speak on "Modeling Chemical Releases" at 7 p.m. in UC353, at a meeting of the Indiana-Kentucky Border Section, American Chemical Society. The two USI professors will discuss AIRMOD, the computerized atmospheric dispersion program they created to track the extent and speed of spread for released or spilled chemical fumes. The public is invited.

(For information, contact Dr. Kevin W. McLaughlin, assistant professor of chemistry, 812/464-1923.)

Thursday, April 4

Mid-America Singers will leave on a three-day concert tour, presenting a program at the Normal, Illinois, high school and performing at the Heritage Festival in Chicago.

(For information, contact Mr. Daniel R. Craig, assistant professor of music, 812/464-1736.)

WEEK OF APRIL 7

Tuesday, April 9

Breakfast with the President: The USI Student Alumni Association will sponsor the second annual "Breakfast with the President" at 7:30 a.m. in the UC Dining Room. Dr. David L. Rice will give an update on campus developments, including "A Commitment to Quality" plans. The free program is open to students, faculty and staff members, and alumni; news media representatives are welcome. Reservations are required.

(For information, contact Mrs. Nancy A. Johnson, director of Alumni Affairs, 812/464-1924.)

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

Tuesday, April 9

Spring Film Series: American Graffiti (1974, cinemascope) Director: George Lucas; cast: Harrison Ford, Ron Howard, Cindy Williams, Richard Dreyfuss, Wolfman Jack. The film that signaled the beginning of the '50s craze and inspired the TV show Happy Days is filled with sock hops, cool cars, true rock 'n roll, and a strip to cruise the night away.

(The movies are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, assistant dean of the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1747 or 1735.)

Wednesday, April 12

Teacher Recruitment Day: The fifth annual Teacher Recruitment Day will be held from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Conference Center, involving education students from Brescia and Kentucky Wesleyan colleges at Owensboro, Oakland City College, University of Evansville, and USI.

(For information, contact Marilyn Schmidt, director of USI Career Services and Placement, 812/464-1865.)

Thursday, April 11

Executive-in-Residence: Craig D. Schnuck, president and chief executive officer of Schnucks Markets, Inc., will be the spring Executive-in-Residence. The program will start with coffee and donuts at 9 a.m., followed by discussion sessions at 9:30 and 11 a.m., luncheon at 12 noon, and roundtable discussion at 1:10 p.m., all in the Conference Center. The public is invited. The luncheon fee is $10; reservations should be made by Friday, April 5, by calling 812/464-1718. Schnuck has a B.S. in food distribution and M.B.A. in finance from Cornell University, and has served in virtually every position of the Schnucks operation. He was elected president in 1984, CEO in 1989. Schnuck donates time to

(more)

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Organization

8600 University Boulevard • Evansville, Indiana 47712

community service and the business community, serving on the boards for six organizations.

(For information, contact the School of Business, 812/464-1718.)

Friday, April 12

Southern Hospitality Day: The final spring Southern Hospitality Day to allow Tri-State high school students and their families to become acquainted with USI will begin at 9 a.m. in the Conference Center. The day's activities will include tours of the campus and adjacent student housing, meetings with the academic deans, and information sessions on extra-curricular opportunities. No reservations are required.

(For information call the USI Admissions Office, 812/464-1765 or 800/444-1965.)

Friday, April 12

Coming Together: Dr. Sandra M. Singer, assistant vice president for Academic Affairs and director of Graduate Studies, will speak at 7 p.m. in UC350, in the next program for older persons who are thinking about a career change or going to college. Dr. Singer's topic will be "Becoming a More Competent Person: A New Look at Leadership."

(For information, contact Ann Cooper, Admissions counselor 812/464-1765 or 800/444-1965.)

Saturday, April 13

Early Childhood Conference: Dr. Lilian G. Katz, professor of early childhood education at the University of Illinois, will be the keynote luncheon speaker for an early childhood conference in the Conference Center. Theme of the day-long program is "Building Tomorrow Today: Foosteps Toward a Better Future." Co-sponsors are the Indiana Association for the Education of Young Children and the USI Department of Teacher Education. Dr. Katz, a native of London, also is director of ERIC Clearinghouse on Elementary and Early Childhood Education at UI, vice president of the National Association for the Education of Young Children, editor of Early Childhood Research Quarterly, and contributing editor for Parents Magazine. She is a Fulbright Fellow and has been a visiting professor and consultant around the world.

(For information, contact Dr. Robert E. Mays, chair of the USI Teacher Education Department, 812/464-1813 or 1812.)

GREEK WEEK

Monday, April 1 - Greek Awards Night, 6 p.m., UC Dining Room, featuring 96 WSTO personality Brian Jackson.

Wednesday, April 3 - Greek/student housing pizza party, 5 p.m., Campus Apartments.

Friday, April 5 - Greek dance, 9 p.m., University Center.

Saturday, April 6 - Greek Olympics, 12 noon, UC Lawn; athletic competition: wheelbarrel races, bat spins, etc.

SPRING WEEK/EAGLE GRAN PRIX

Saturday, April 6 - Eagle Gran Prix time trials, 8-11 a.m., University Boulevard.

Monday, April 8 - Video Buttons, 10 a.m.-2 p.m., UC Mall; students may have a video made and turned into a button.

Tuesday, April 9 - Acoustic guitarist Phillip Scott Bryan, 12 noon-1 p.m., Eagle's Nest.

Wednesday, April 10 - Comedian Happy Cole, 12 noon-1 p.m., Eagle's Nest.

Thursday, April 11 - All-University Talent Show, 7:30 p.m., UC Dining Room.

Friday, April 12 - Mid-America Singers concert, 12 noon, UC Mall.

Friday, April 12 - Eagle Gran Prix Banquet, 5 p.m., UC Dining Room; Dave Blaze of Indianapolis, the IU Little 500 racer on whom the movie, Breaking Away, was based, will be the featured speaker.

Saturday, April 13 - Eagle Gran Prix opening ceremony, 11:30 a.m., University Boulevard; Celebrity Race, 11:45 a.m.; Fitness Race, 12:15 p.m.; Women's Race, 1 p.m.; Men's Race, 3 p.m.; Awards Ceremony, 5 p.m.

USI SCHEDULE

ADD - WEEK OF APRIL 7

Saturday, April 13

Science/Technology Workshop: A workshop for area public and private schoolteachers will be held at 9 a.m. in the University Conference Center, presented in conjunction with the National Science Foundation's National Science and Technology Week, April 21-27. The program is designed to promote greater awareness of science and technology for elementary schools, and to provide teaching ideas to be incorporated in the classroom. The instructor will be Michael Heard, USI alumnus and graduate student who is a science teacher at Harwood Middle School. He was named Outstanding Graduate Student in a recent Honors Week ceremony.

(For information, contact Dr. Charles L. Price, professor of science education and workshop coordinator, 812/464-1939.)

WEEK OF APRIL 14

Monday-Saturday, April 15-20

Heritage Week '91: Historic New Harmony's sixth annual Heritage Week program for Tri-State fourth- through sixth-grade students will have a new feature this year -- opening day devoted to youngsters from special education programs. Students from regular classrooms will visit the rest of the week, watching more than 30 nineteenth century craftspeople demonstrate their crafts. The program is open to the public on Saturday, when demonstrations will be part of the Historic New Harmony tours that start at The Atheneum. Weekday events will run from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.; on Saturday, the demonstrations/tours will be available from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Volunteers

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

are needed to help with the special education students, to push wheelchairs, etc.; call 812/464-9595 or 682-4488.

(For information, contact Julie Rutherford, tour/promotion coordinator, 812/464-9595.)

Tuesday, April 16

Spring Film Series: Blade Runner Director: Ridley Scott; cast: Harrison Ford, Rutger Hauer, Sean Young. A mixture of sci-fi and '40s film noir, this film presents a dark, rainy vision of the future where genetically-engineered human killers are hunted down by assassin/policemen called blade runners.

(The movies are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, assistant dean of the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1747 or 1735.)

USI SCHEDULE

WEEK OF APRIL 21

Sunday, April 21

Student Art Show: The 1991 USI Student Art Show will open with a reception for the artists from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Conference Center. The awards ceremony will be held at 2 p.m. The student art work will remain on exhibition through April 29, open to public viewing from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Saturday, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday.

(For information, contact Kathryn Waters, chair of the Art Department, 812/464-1933.)

Tuesday, April 23

Spring Film Series: Zuckerbaby (1987, West German) Director: Percy Adlon; cast: Marie Sagebrecht, Eisi Gulp. By the director of Baghdad Cafe, this movie is the story of a large female mortuary attendant who is smitten by the conductor who calls out the stations on the Munich subway. A Cinderella fable about a woman who rouses herself (from the dead) to gloriously satisfy her desires.

(The movies are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, assistant dean of the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1747 or 1735.)

Thursday, April 25

Student Life Honors Banquet: The annual Student Life Honors Banquet will be held at 6 p.m. in the UC Dining Room. Ms. Phyllis Kincaid of Youth as Resources in Evansville will be the featured speaker. Students, faculty, and administrative staff members will be recognized for contributions to student life and the University during the past year.

(For information, contact the Student Life Office, 812/464-1862.)

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

Saturday, April 27

State Math Contest: USI will be one of 14 sites for the 1991 State Mathematics Contest, to be held in the USI Conference Center. Some 260 area middle and high school students have pre-registered to take tests in four areas: algebra I, geometry, algebra II, and comprehensive. The statewide contest will be followed by the USI Mathematics Department's annual competition, directed by Dr. Karin V. Chess, associate professor of mathematics.

(For information, contact Dr. David W. Kinsey, associate professor of mathematics and contest coordinator, 812/464-1714.)

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Organization

8600 University Boulevard • Evansville, Indiana 47712

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

USI SCHEDULE

ADD - WEEK OF APRIL 21

Sunday, April 21

Student Art Show: David Huntley, director of the University Museum at Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville, will be juror for the 1991 USI Student Art Show, which will open with a reception for the artists from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Conference Center. The awards ceremony will be held at 2 p.m. The student art work will remain on exhibition through April 29, open to public viewing from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Saturday, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday.

Huntley also will speak at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, April 18, in The Athenaeum in New Harmony; he will discuss the contemporary art scene. The public is invited to all programs.

(For information, contact Kathryn Waters, chair of the Art Department, 812/464-1933.)

Tuesday, April 23

Date Rape Seminar: A seminar on date rape will be held at 11 a.m. in Forum I, sponsored by Alpha Sigma Alpha. The featured speaker will be Margaret Bacon of Albion Fellows Bacon Center in Evansville. An Evansville police officer also is expected to spell out the legal consequences for the rapist. The public is invited to attend the seminar.

(For information, contact Jennifer Barker of Alpha Sigma Alpha, 812/468-2184.)

Wednesday, April 24

Heritage Festival Workshop: Historic Southern Indiana Project's second 1991 workshop on marketing and promotions will study the Spirit of Vincennes Rendezvous as an example of a successful community heritage festival. The workshop will start at 9 a.m. in the Daughters of the American Revolution chapter house at the William Henry Harrison Mansion, Vincennes. It will be coordinated by James Holcomb, superintendent of George Rogers Clark National Historical Park, assisted by Marshall Miller and other Rendezvous volunteers.

(For information, contact Dr. Darrel E. Bigham, HSI director, 812/465-7014. Reservations are limited to 50, and are due Monday, April 22.)

Saturday, April 27

Mid-America Singers: The USI Mid-America Singers will present "Show '91," their annual spring concert, at 7 p.m. in Forum I. The program will include contemporary music, Broadway show tunes, '20s and '30s music, gospel, rock 'n roll, and the suite from The Phantom of the Opera. The show also will introduce "Aftertouch," a contemporary band formed by the Singers to accompany their numbers. Tickets are $3 in advance (at the University Center information desk) and $4 at the door.

(For information, contact Daniel Craig, USI music director, 812/464-1736.)

WEEK OF APRIL 28

Sunday, April 28

New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art: An exhibition of color photographs by Suzanne Mitchell of Louisville will open with a public reception for Mitchell, to be held from 1 to 4 p.m. The exhibition will continue through May 29.

(more)

(For information, contact Connie Weinzapfel, Gallery director, 812/682-3156.)

Tuesday, April 30

Spring Film Series: Atomic Cafe (1982) Filmmakers: Kevin Rafferty, Jayne Loader, Pierce Rafferty. Amusingly and "artfully culled from newsreel footage and government archives, the film is a mind-boggling compendium of misinformation aimed at selling nuclear war to the American public like a new brand of laundry detergent . . ."

(The movies are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, assistant dean of the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1747 or 1735.)

Wednesday, May 1

All-Sports Banquet: WTVW news anchor Randy Moore will be master of ceremonies for the 1991 All-Sports Banquet, to be held at 6 p.m. in the UC Dining Room.

(For information, contact Annie Krug, Special Events coordinator, 812/465-1654.)
