HISTORIC FIRST MEETING OF BOARD OF INCORPORATORS HELD SATURDAY.

The first meeting of the Board of Incorporators for an independent state university in southwestern Indiana was held Saturday, April 28 in the University Library. Governor Robert D. Orr presided at the swearing in and gave the charge to the Board. John J Pruis was appointed chairman by Governor Orr when the nine members of the Board were selected. At the Saturday meeting, Joseph O'Daniel was elected vice chairman, and Carolyn Georgette was chosen secretary. The Board will meet again Monday, May 7, in the University Library, Room 100.

SPANISH DAY FIESTA ON CAMPUS MAY 4. The third annual Spanish Day Fiesta will be held in the Physical Activities Center Friday, May 4 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

More than 700 students enrolled in Spanish classes in area high schools will participate in numerous activities requiring use of that language. Featured are the "International Dancers," a group performing Spanish folk dances. Other highlights include a slide presentation on travels to Mexico and Spain, auctions spoken in Spanish, and use of computer programs written in Spanish. Prizes will be awarded throughout the day.

For additional information, contact Dr. Oscar Ozete, associate professor of Spanish, 464-1742.

LINKAGE GRANT RECOGNIZED BY LILLY ENDOWMENT. The ISUE-Mt. Vernon School Corporation Linkage Grant in Science and Mathematics has been selected for special recognition by the Lilly Endowment. Of seventeen grants funded, the ISUE program is one of three chosen for a report presentation May 4 in Indianapolis. Representing ISUE at the meeting will be Dr. David Kinsey, associate professor of science and mathematics, who is mathematics coordinator for the grant, and Dr. Charles Price, associate professor of education, science coordinator and project director.

CONGRATULATIONS TO EAGLE GRAN PRIX WINNERS! The Eleventh Annual Eagle Gran Prix was held on campus Saturday, April 28. In the men's division, the Cross Country Riders took first place and the Sigma Tau Gamma Little Sisters received first place in the women's division. The team from Gold's Gym won the ten-lap celebrity race.

CONGRATULATIONS Michael and Patty Aakhus are the proud parents of an eight pound baby girl named Erin Olivia. Erin was born March 16 at 8:04 a.m.

APO AWARDS GIVEN AT SECOND ANNUAL BANQUET. Alpha Psi Omega, the honorary theatre organization, bestowed awards on twelve of its members at their second annual banquet held Friday, April 27. Voting procedures involved APO officers, who drew up nominations in sixteen different categories, and APO members, who viewed all of the VTR tapes of ISUE's past season. Gregg Gerling was cited as best actor for his role in PVT Wars. Sherry Hoy received awards for best actress for her role in Patio, best assistant director, best publicity and outstanding technical contribution. She also received a special citation award for her work through the years. Judy Beck, administrative secretary in the Registrar's Office, was named best supporting actress, and the best supporting actor was given to Darin Garrett.

Two new awards were added to recognize outstanding work by graduating seniors who are APO members active in ISUE Theatre. Those two awards went to Dan Durbin, who also received the best advertisement citation, and Luke Byers, named also as best student director.

Others recognized at the banquet were Chris Tate for best production assistant, Jeff Risher for best graphics, Richard Kemper for outstanding design contribution, and Brian Pease for best special effects.

FULBRIGHT AWARD APPLICATIONS NOW AVAILABLE. Applications for the 1985-86 Fulbright Awards are available from the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Application deadlines are June 15, 1984 for Australasia, India, Latin America and the Caribbean (all lecturing and research awards); and September 15, 1984 for Africa, Asia, Europe, Middle East (all lecturing and research awards). Opportunities include both teaching and research abroad. Prime factors in selection are scholarly merit and quality of proposed projects. Additional information is available by calling extension 1816.

NEW FACES. Patricia Kay Gowdy has joined the University as a grounds maintenance worker in the Physical Plant. A 1979 North High School graduate, she enjoys softball and other summer recreation. She attended ISUE, and comes to us from Nature's Way, Inc. in Bloomington, Indiana, where she worked in landscaping.

FOLLIS WINS LEONARD DOWHIE BOWL. Jane Follis, academic skills development coordinator and assistant professor of English, was the highest bidder on the original Leonard Dowhie earthenware bowl. The money received from the auction will benefit the ISUE Secretaries.

MEDIA SERVICES TO BE CLOSED MAY 7-11. Media Services will conduct spring semester inventory the week of May 7-11. If A-V equipment is needed for final exams, please contact Media Services, extension 1888, by Friday, May 4.

If you are planning to administer an objective final exam, why not consider utilizing Media Services' computerized test scoring machine. A 100 item exam can be scored in less than 15 minutes, without error. The machine also will print the number of correct responses on each form, as well as provide a simplified item analysis.

For a demonstration of this time-saving device, stop by Media Services, FWA 184, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

SUMMER DAY CARE OPPORTUNITIES. If sufficient interest is shown, the ISUE Day Care Center will be open this summer from 7:45 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. for children ages three and up. There are both full- and part-time openings. Please call Jean Cobb, supervisor of the Children's Center, extension 1869, immediately if you are interested in reserving space for your children.

SEATS STILL AVAILABLE FOR CHICAGO ART AND THEATRE TOUR. The Office of Continuing Education is accepting reservations for its annual Chicago Art and Theatre Tour.

The tour leaves ISUE Friday, May 11 at 8:30 a.m., and returns at approximately 10:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 13. In Chicago that weekend is the play "Dreamgirls," a lavishly dazzling musical and winner of six Tony Awards. The Chicago International Art Exposition, the premiere American exposition for contemporary art, will be at the Navy Pier. Participants will have time for shopping, sightseeing, fine dining and many other activities. The $175 fee includes two nights lodging at the Palmer House (double occupancy; for single occupancy, add $42); theatre tickets, bus transportation, lunch on the bus, information packets, and transportation to your choice of museums.

For additional information concerning the tour, contact the Office of Continuing Education at 464-1863.

COMMENCEMENT REMINDER. Students should have their $5 graduation fee turned in at the Cashier's Window in order to participate in Commencement. Commencement robes, mortarboards, and tassels are available in the ISUE Bookstore.
