4. Students Participating in University Sanctioned Events

The following motion was passed by the Faculty Council on February 9, 1970:

"Students who expect to be absent from class should confer with their instructor prior to the absence. Students who miss classes are not excused from their obligations to their instructor. The faculty is expected to give students an opportunity to meet class obligations based upon an evaluation of the student's reason for absence. A confirmed participation in a sanctioned University event is to be considered a valid reason for a student absence."
