NEW USI STAFF MEMBERS WELCOMED. Four new staff members are with USI this semester. Mrs. Carol P. Clark has joined the faculty as a visiting assistant professor of business. Mrs. L. Cathy Frakes is a new clerk in the University Library. Mrs. Martha Potts is the new administrative assistant in the Office of Academic Affairs. Ms. Janet Schmitt is a temporary counselor in the Admissions Office, replacing Mrs. Claudia Kirchner who has gone on maternity leave.

Mrs. Clark, a native of Lebanon, Kentucky, received her B.S. in accounting from Campbellsville (Kentucky) College in 1983, and completed work on her M.S. in 1985 at Northwestern University, where she was a teaching assistant. She expects to complete work on her Ph.D. at Northwestern in the fall of 1986. She had been an intern/associate with the Woodfield Group since January, 1983, and an assistant professor in accounting at Purdue University-Calumet. She previously was an adjunct faculty member at Prairie State College in Chicago Heights. She is married to Mr. W. Jeff Clark and has two stepchildren, aged 15 and 5.

Mrs. Frakes is a native of Leopold, Indiana, and attended Spencerian Business college in Louisville. She previously worked as a cashier at Electrolux in Evansville. She and her husband, Mr. Norman E. Frakes, live at 413 Pemberton. They have three children, Julie, 20, Dean, 19, and Jill, 18. She enjoys spectator sports and square dancing.

Mrs. Potts received an associate degree in secretarial science from USI in 1978 and has worked the past seven years as an administrative secretary with Biagi, Chance, Cummins, London, Titzer, Inc., Evansville consulting engineers. A 1976 Reitz High School graduate, she and her husband, Mr. Richard Potts, a senior technical representative with Xerox Corporation, live in rural Spottsville, Kentucky. She enjoys bowling, aerobics, swimming, modeling, gardening, and softball.

Ms. Schmitt, of Poseyville, Indiana, has worked as a student admissions representative in the Admissions Office while attending classes at USI. She is a 1982 graduate of North Posey High School and completed work on her degree in administrative systems at USI in December, 1985. She was an AMIGO and a member of the National Collegiate Association of Secretaries and the Personnel Club. She plans to be married in September to Mr. Joseph Heldt of Cynthiana, a construction worker.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Sandra Singer, associate professor of psychology, has been awarded a research grant from the Stallone Fund for Autism Research. She has been collecting data for the past two years on a small group of autistic children in the Evansville area, and the grant will enable her to enlarge the sample to include individuals from throughout the state.

A reception was held Friday, January 3, for Mr. Leo Lutterbach, who retired January 1 after 15 1/2 years as a stationary engineer for USI. The Physical Plant staff presented him with a plaque thanking him for the years of faithful service.

CREDIT UNION MEETING SLATED. A majority of respondents to the credit union survey last fall indicated they prefer to be affiliated with the Evansville Teachers Federal Credit Union. As a result, ETFCU representatives will conduct informational group meetings on Tuesday, January 28. Sessions will be held from 10 to 11 a.m., 12 noon to 1 p.m., and 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. in UC 350-351.

Payroll deductions for the ETFCU will be available to full-time University employees beginning with the February 14 biweekly payroll and the March 1 monthly payroll. Credit Union enrollment and authorization for payroll deductions will be handled directly by the ETFCU. Plan to attend one of the group meetings January 28 to find out more about ETFCU and how to join.

Please note that staff members who are members of the ISU Federal Credit Union will be able to continue their memberships and payroll deductions through the University. Contact the Personnel Office, extension 1770, if you have any questions.

LIBRARY HOURS LISTED FOR SPRING. The University Library will maintain regular hours of 7:45 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Friday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, and 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday for the Spring Semester. The Learning Resources Center and Special Collections/University Archives will observe shorter hours, which are posted in the specific areas. The schedule of exceptions to these hours for holidays and semester breaks can be found on the last page of University Notes.

STUDY HALLEY'S COMET AT ANGEL MOUNDS. Angel Mounds State Historic Site and Wesselman Park Nature Center are cooperating in presenting an Astronomy Study Program to view and study Halley's Comet. The group will meet at Angel Mounds on Outer Pollack Avenue from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Wednesdays, January 15, 22, and 29. Registration is $10 for members of the sponsoring agencies, and $15 for non-members.

In addition, two free movies -- "The Universe" and "The Observatories" -- will be shown at Angel Mounds in observance of Halley's Comet. The films can be seen at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Saturday, January 18, and again at 2 p.m. Sunday, January 19.

MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTION ALERT. The USI Office of Safety and Security has passed along a notice from the Weekly Bulletin of the National Association of College Stores, which warns of a magazine subscription scam that occurred at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. The bulletin states that phony magazine subscriptions were sold by salespeople who posed as students claiming they were in a contest to win a trip to Europe. The sellers allegedly work for Aristocrat Company of Spring, Texas, previously known as Summit Publishers Service. Anyone hearing of unauthorized solicitation on the USI campus is asked to notify security at extension 1780.

"TALENT SEARCH" AT HISTORIC NEW HARMONY. A search for anyone in the area with talents in early 19th Century crafts is being conducted by Historic New Harmony, Inc., for use in projects involving elementary school children. Talent is needed in the areas of: the making of butter, cheese, jam, jelly, kraut, bread, shoes, pottery (red clay), candles (dipping), brooms, baskets, and lye soap; vegetable dyeing or canning; cold-pack meat canning; sheep shearing; tinsmithing or blacksmithing; stitchery (candle wicking, sampler, tatting); chair caning; tole painting; silhouette cutting; apiarist (bee keeper); black powder guns; musical instruments (harpsichord, dulcimer, etc.); dried fruits, vegetables, herbs, and flowers; or any other craft of the period. If you or anyone you know are willing to share such skills with visiting school children as part of New Harmony Heritage Week, April 13-19, 1986, please contact Ms. Mary Arnold, tour and promotion coordinator at Historic New Harmony, at 464-9595 or 682-4488.
