2007 Season Outlook

2007 Men's Soccer Season Outlook

The University of Southern Indiana men's soccer team needs one thing in 2007 to be successful – goal scoring.

The Screaming Eagles suffered through a severe offensive drought last season, resulting in a 3-12-2 overall mark. USI missed several chances at victories or ties in five 1-0 losses.

To try and jump start the USI offense, USI Head Coach Dan Hogan begins his eighth season with 13 returning players, three players that redshirted last season, and seven newcomers.

FORWARDS:

A boost in the offensive production could be on the way for the Eagles in the form of a new player.

New to the squad is freshman Dan Dormeier. Dormeier helped Castle High School (Newburgh, Indiana) to three sectional crowns and regional titles during his prep career.

The Eagles have some offensive numbers returning in senior Carl Carr, junior Mike Bendzen, and sophomore Paul Hutchens. Hutchens leads the returning forwards with four points on a goal and two assists.

Carr followed Hutchens in the scoring column with three points on one goal and one assist, while Bendzen recorded two points on one goal.

MIDFIELDERS:

The USI midfield will have a combination of six returning players, one redshirted player, and two newcomers.

Senior Evan Stoll is USI's top returning scorer. Stoll, one of two returning players who played in every game last year, was third on the team in scoring with five points on two goals and one assists.

Coming back for 2007 with Stoll in the midfield are seniors Jason Blose and Quintin Myers; junior Tyree Robinson; and sophomores William Reid and Kyle Leffel. Blose had one goal in 15 matches, while Myers had one assist in eight games.

New to the USI midfield are junior Michael Simcock and freshman Justin Fox. Simcock was the Player of the Year for Ashton on Mersey (Sale, Cheshire, England) in 2003 and 2004, while Fox is ISCA second team All-District and All-Hoosier Crossroads Conference performer from Avon High School (Avon, Indiana).

Fox, who also was named to the Indianapolis Star first team All-West, tied for fourth on the AHS all-time list with 24 assists.

2007 Season Outlook

DEFENSE:

For the fourth straight year, senior Matt Vossmer will be the foundation upon which the USI defense will be built. Vossmer has played in all 52 matches since joining the program in 2004, missing just two starts. He also scored his first collegiate goal last year.

Vossmer is joined in his final year as an Eagle by junior Dan Grunewald. Grunewald has been very steady at outside back for USI, playing in 31 of 34 matches during his first two years.

Along with Vossmer and Grunewald, the Eagles return senior Corey Hendon, who came off the bench in four matches last year, and freshman Nathan Bower, who redshirted last year.

New to the USI defensive third are freshmen Nate Sloan, Caleb Schmitt, and Derek Craig.

Between the posts, the Eagles will count heavily on redshirt-junior Andrew Hults. Hults did not play last season after being the number one ranked goalkeeper nationally by the NJCAA in 2004 and 2005. He had a 0.50 GAA in 2004 and a 0.77 GAA in 2005.

USI also returns sophomore Brad Cadden, who saw action in four matches as a freshman. He had a 1.67 GAA and nine saves in 107 minutes of action.

New between the posts in 2007 is junior Andrew Haley. Haley transferred to USI from Forest Park Community College where he had a 3.00 GAA in 18 games last fall.

USI Coaching Staff

Dan Hogan, Head Men's Soccer Coach

Head Coach Dan Hogan begins his eighth season at the helm of the USI men's soccer team and his 18th season as a collegiate head coach. Hogan's tenure has seen him direct USI into three GLVC Tournaments, including back-to-back appearances in 2002 and 2003.

In 2003, Hogan's Eagles were 10-7-1 overall, finished second in the GLVC with an 8-2 league record, and were ranked in the top five of the NCAA II Central Region. USI's second place regular season finish was the team's best since 1991.

The Eagles began their two-year run under Hogan in 2002, producing a 13-8-0 overall record and a 7-3-0 mark in the GLVC. The squad also featured the GLVC Player and Freshman of the Year, a first-team NSCAA/adidas Scholastic All-American, a second-team Verizon Academic All-American, a second-team All-American, and four All-GLVC performers.

Hogan's second season saw the Eagles post a 6-10-0 overall record in an injury-plagued season.

In his first season at USI, Hogan directed the Eagles to a 7-9-2 overall record and a 5-5-1 GLVC mark in 2000, the best record USI had seen in four seasons. USI also returned to the GLVC Tournament for the first time since 1995.

In addition to his duties as men's soccer coach, Hogan is the Athletic Department's academic advisor. His tenure at USI has seen Screaming Eagle student athletes receive 150 Academic All-GLVC awards.

Hogan currently coaches the Evansville Elite U-18 boys team and directs the Southern Indiana Soccer Academy. He served as a head coach for the Indiana State Olympic Development Program in 2002 and 2003.

A successful coach in both the NCAA and the NAIA, Hogan has helped guide men's soccer programs at three different schools to a record of 167-151-12 in 17 years. Hogan's last position was with Columbia College (1991-99) in Columbia, Missouri, where he compiled a record of 122-60-8 (.653), winning two Show-Me Collegiate Conference and three American Midwest Conference Coach of the Year awards in nine seasons.

In addition to the team's success over nine seasons, Hogan's squads produced 17 NAIA All-Americans, 12 All-America Scholar Athletes, two AMC Tournament titles, and one AMC regular-season crown. He is the winningest coach in Columbia history and his 1998 and 1999 squads set successive season records for wins and winning percentages (1998: 17-5, .773; 1999: 20-5, .800).

Prior to coaching Columbia to three national top-20 finishes in the NAIA, Hogan was the head coach of Ottawa (Kansas) University, 1989-90, and an assistant coach at Northeast Missouri State University (now Truman State University) from 1986 to 1988.

Off the field, Hogan has a United States Soccer Federation "B" license and is the chair of the NSCAA Central Region Ranking Committee. He also has served as the chairman of the American Midwest Conference and the NAIA Region V.

Hogan is a 1986 graduate of Northeast Missouri State University with a bachelor's degree in communications/public relations.

USI Coaching Staff

Stu Riddle, Assistant Men's Soccer Coach

Stuart Riddle begins his first season with the USI men's soccer coaching staff this season, assisting Head Coach Dan Hogan in all aspects of the program.

Riddle moves across the city from the University of Evansville where he has worked since the spring of 2005. He assisted in coaching and developing players while working for the Aces.

During his tenure at Evansville, Riddle was the head coach of the Kalamazoo Kingdom Soccer Club in Kalamazoo, Michigan, during the summer of 2006. His duties included recruiting a playing squad, coaching, and developing players in a full-time environment.

He began his association with club soccer with the Edge Soccer Club in Holland, Michigan, as the promotions and marketing director.

Riddle earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Coastal Carolina University in 2003 and a master's degree in public service administration from Evansville in 2007.

Professionally, Riddle played in five different countries over a six-year period. He also was the New Zealand Olympic Games Soccer Representative in 1996.

Evansville, Indiana

... A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI Students and offers them plenty of things to do. Roberts Stadium and the Victory Theatre attract students to concerts by entertainers like Nelly, Aerosmith, Kenny Chesney, Kid Rock, and Josh Goban. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a wonderful view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville's coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and places to eat are plentiful on both sides of the Lloyd Expressway. The Eastland Mall area on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI's suburban location in the rolling hills of western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.
