HOMECOMING REMINDER. ISUE Homecoming Week will culminate Saturday, February 25 with a full day of activities, beginning with the old-timers game between former ISUE basketball players at 3:00 p.m. in the PAC. A reception for the old-timers will follow the game in the Eagles Nest. At 5:00 p.m., ISUE'S Lady Eagles meet the Lewis women, and at 7:30 p.m., the ISUE men's team plays the Lewis men. At half time of the men's game, the Homecoming Court will be presented and the King and Queen will be announced.

Following the game, the Alumni Association will host a reception for alumni, faculty and staff at the University Home from 9:30 to 11:30 p.m.

The Homecoming Dance, sponsored by APB, will be in the UC Dining Room after the game.

THE MAKING OF A FINE ART BOOK. Two ISUE faculty members are participating in five public programs on "The Making of a Fine Art Book," sponsored by Evansville-Vanderburgh Public Libraries.

The Oaklyn Branch Library will host "Writing This Book," a presentation by Robert McDowell, assistant professor of English, on March 1. On March 5, Michael Aakhus, assistant professor of art, will present "Illustrating This Book," at McCollough Branch Library. The three remaining programs will be March 11 at Meadow Park Branch, March 21 at West Branch, and March 28 at Central Library. Each program begins at 7:30 p.m. For additional information concerning the programs, contact the Evansville Public Library at 428-8200.

HUMANITIES FORUM. The Humanities Forum is sponsoring a poetry reading by Ralph Burns February 29 at 1:00 p.m. in the University Center. A recent recipient of a National Endowment for the Arts grant in poetry, Mr. Burns resides in Bloomington and works as a writer-in-residence at Madison State Hospital. His poetry has appeared in a number of exemplary magazines, including Poetry, Field, Kayak, and Southern Poetry Review. His first collection, US, was published in 1983 by Cleveland State University Press and is available in the ISUE Bookstore.

The poet John Woods said "Ralph Burns has found a poetry of clarity, the clarity of running water, where you can see through to the things of this world, shining and changing."

Admission is free and open to the public.

WOMEN'S HISTORY CELEBRATION. The Women's History Celebration, sponsored by ISUE and several community organizations, will be March 4 through March 10. During the week, seminars and meetings will develop four themes - women in politics, women in religion, women and wellness, and women in the arts. At noon Saturday, March 10, Judith Clabes, editor of The Kentucky Post who edited the recently-published book New Guardians of the Press, Selected Profiles of America's Women Newspaper Editors, will give the keynote address for the Celebration. An autograph party will precede the luncheon speech. Brochures detailing the entire week's activities are available in the President's Office and in the Office of Sports Medicine and Student Health.

ALL CAMPUS STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS. Awards will be presented at the Honors Day ceremony to clubs, organizations and individuals. The ISUE All Campus Student Achievement Award will be given to one male and one female student having completed 24 hours of work at ISUE and having at least a 2.5 GPA. Selection will be based on academic achievement, service to the University, and participation in extracurricular activities during the 1983-84 academic year. Honors Day has been set for Thursday, April 19 at 9:30 a.m. in the Physical Activities Center.

Eligible students are encouraged to fill out an application for the award, which may be obtained at the Student Activities Office, and returned there by 4:30 p.m. March 9. The applications will be screened by the Student Activities Committee made up of students, administration and faculty.

DIALOGUES IN EDUCATION. A reminder that the YWCA Public Policy Committee will present a three-part series of dialogues on issues in education Monday, February 27, Monday, March 5 and Monday, March 12, each beginning at 7:00 p.m. Highlighting the program will be a presentation by J. Eliseo DaRosa, professor of economics, entitled "Economics and Education," presented March 5.

For more information about this program, contact the YWCA at (812) 422-1191.

SPORTS THIS WEEK. The following sports events will take place February 23 through February 29: Thursday, February 23, women's basketball, ISUE vs. St. Joseph, 5:00 p.m.; men's basketball, ISUE vs. St. Joseph, 7:30 p.m.; Saturday, February 25 - HOMECOMING GAMES: Old-timers game, 3:30 p.m.; women's basketball, ISUE vs. Lewis, 5:00 p.m.; men's basketball, ISUE vs. Lewis, 7:30 p.m.; Tuesday, February 28, women's basketball at Butler, 7:00 p.m.

WE'RE COOKIN' AT ISUE. The Secretaries of ISUE are planning an ISUE Cookbook to raise money for their scholarship fund. They are hoping to include a large variety of foods in the publication, and welcome donations from all categories. Microwave recipes will be included in a special section if enough recipes are collected.

The Secretaries want to make this an all-campus project, so send your favorite culinary contribution to Ruth Clevenger, Library Services, by February 24, 1984. Include your name and department on the recipes.

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES. "Member of the Wedding" will be shown on Tuesday, February 28 at 2:00 and 6:00 p.m. in Forum One of the Administration Building. Admission is free and open to the public.

NEW FACES. Debra Shelley has been appointed assistant in biochemistry in the IU School of Medicine, Evansville Center.

A 1976 graduate of North Posey High School, Debra received the Bachelor of Science in medical technology and the Bachelor of Arts in secondary education degrees from the University of Evansville in 1980. She likes to travel, and has visited the Carribean Islands. She enjoys music, dancing, outdoor and aquatic exercises, and collects tropical fish. She and her husband, Stephen, live in Evansville. Debra was a medical technologist at Deaconess Hospital prior to coming to ISUE.

CONGRATULATIONS! To Ruth Waller, women's coach and administrative assistant for student services, and her husband Doug on the birth of their new baby girl.

ALUMNI. Volunteers are needed for the Annual Alumni Telefund Drive. See page Six for a clip-and-mail form if you are interested in the Telefund Drive.

SYMPATHY. Sympathy is extended to professor of library sciences Charles Lonnberg and his wife, Evelyn, on the death of Mrs. Lonnberg's sister, Esther Dreter of Eukland, Ohio.

RUMMAGE SALE. Lamda Chi Alpha fraternity will conduct a rummage sale March 3 and 4, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at 4519 Covert Avenue. Women's and men's designer clothing will be offered at bargain prices, along with various housewares and other miscellaneous items. For information concerning the rummage sale, contact Ken Zuber at 425-6349.
