Brandi Schwartz receives honor

Brandi Schwartz was awarded the Administrative Vice President of the Year Award by the University of Southern Indiana Student Government Association (SGA) at the SGA Inauguration and Awards Banquet held Thursday, April 16, at USI. She also was inaugurated as executive vice president of the organization during the evening ceremony.

The award is presented to an administrative vice president who performs their duties to the organization with exceptional creativity and professionalism. Through her public relations efforts, Schwartz helped the organization achieve its goal of reaching students and the community in a wider range.

Schwartz, a 1996 graduate of Cannelton High School, is majoring in communications and minoring in business administration. She is the daughter of Denny and Faye Schwartz of Rome, Indiana.
