HEALTH INSURANCE INFORMATION. September is open enrollment month for obtaining group health insurance through either Blue Cross/Blue Shield or Maxicare Health Maintenance Organization. If you are not participating in either plan, if you need to add eligible dependents, or if you are interested in changing your type of coverage, stop by the Personnel Office, FWA 29, for enrollment and rate information.

Representatives from Maxicare and Blue Cross/Blue Shield will be on campus September 8 and 9. Staff meetings have been scheduled for:

Monday, September 8 -- Maxicare

11 a.m. -- UC 353
1 p.m. -- UC 353

Tuesday, September 9 -- Blue Cross/Blue Shield

10 a.m. -- UC 353
11 a.m. -- UC 353
1 p.m. -- UC 353
2 p.m. -- UC 353

Current members and prospective members are encouraged to attend one of the group health insurance presentations.

Open enrollment will be the only opportunity during the 1986-87 contract year to enroll in one of the University-sponsored plans or to transfer your membership to a different plan. Staff members who wish to take advantage of the open enrollment period should contact the Personnel Office, extension 1770. Completion of enrollment papers and arrangements for payroll deduction for October 1, 1986 coverage should be made by September 16. After that date, cash payments will be accepted until the end of September for October 1, 1986 coverage.

COMPUTER TRAINING GRANT APPROVED. The Indiana Consortium for Computer and High Technology Education has approved a $44,500 grant for the USI Computer Literacy Center which will allow the center to continue making its training services available to teachers in the 11-county Region VIII in southwest Indiana. Dr. Charles L. Price, director of the center and USI associate professor of science education, said funds no longer are available for training stipends for the teachers so the USI program was altered to take sessions to the teachers. The grant will allow: 1) continuation of monthly computer coordinator meetings, each month held at a different school in the region; 2) training sessions at the University; and 3) on-site training at various schools in the region. The grant includes $5,000 for materials and software and the 1,000 programs the center now has will be expanded. Dr. Price said the programs will be available for public use at the USI Computer Literacy Center, which is open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 4:30 p.m. Interested persons may call (812) 464-1954 for details; a list of programs will be made available.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Sandra Singer, former USI associate professor of psychology who now is director of the Evansville Graduate Studies Center, is co-author of the book, The Heredity of Behavior Disorders in Adults and Children, which was published in August by Plenum Press of New York City. Dr. Singer said the book is expected to be used as a text for graduate courses in human genetics and psychology in medical schools, and she will provide a copy for the USI Library. Other co-authors are Dr. Steven Vandenberg, professor emeritus at the University of Colorado, Boulder, and Dr. David Pauls, assistant professor in the Department of Human Genetics at Yale University Medical School.

VARSITY CLUB OUTING SLATED. The USI Varsity Club is holding its annual Fall Outing on Thursday, September 18, for members and their guests. There will be a raffle for a surprise grand prize, plus other door prizes. The membership committee will be available to answer questions and provide applications for prospective members. Persons interested in joining the Varsity Club and who wish to attend the outing should contact the Athletic Department, extension 1846. Reservations at $12.50 per person must be made in advance; no tickets will be sold at the door. The reservation deadline is Friday, September 12.

SILHOUTTE CUTTING. Mrs. Helen Laughon and her daughter, Ms. Nel Laughon, of Silhouettes by Cheswick at Richmond, Virginia, will do silhouette cuttings from 3 to 7 p.m. Monday, September 8, at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art, and 12 noon to 5 p.m. Tuesday, September 9 and 12 noon to 7 p.m. Wednesday, September 10 at the Evansville Museum of Arts and Science. The program is co-sponsored by Historic New Harmony, Inc. and the Workingman's Institute at New Harmony and the Museum, where the Laughons also will present at slide lecture at 7 p.m. Tuesday. Admission to the lecture is $4 for Museum members, $5 for non-members. The silhouette cuttings are $15 for two head cuts, $20 for full figures; special cuttings can be arranged from old silhouettes and pictures and framing can be arranged at the New Harmony Gallery.

NEWMAN GROUP PLANS SUNDAE FEST. The Catholic Newman Group, a student support organization, will sponsor a free "make your own Sundae" ice cream fest, starting at 4 p.m. today (September 3) in MASH unit 8080-A. All persons interested in helping to build the Newman Group at USI are invited.

SPANISH CLUB PLANS SOCIAL HOUR. The USI Spanish Club will present Cafe Espanol from 2 to 3 p.m. Tuesdays, beginning September 9, at the University Center. Special speakers, topics, and volunteers are sought to share experiences abroad and professional knowledge with Spanish students. The speaker for the first program will be Sr. Mary Victor of St. Agnes, who will discuss her work in Guatemala. If you have suggestions or want to volunteer, contact Dr. Pamela Finnegan-Smith, assistant professor of Spanish, extension 1742.

HUMANITIES FORUM. The first Humanities Forum program of the 1986-87 academic year will feature poetry and fiction readings by Ms. Angela Jackson of Chicago, a free-lance poetess and author. The program will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, September 16, in UC 352-353.

NONCREDIT FEE WAIVER EXTENDED TO FITNESS/WELLNESS COURSES. The full waiver of fees for employees enrolled in job-related noncredit courses has been extended to include fitness/wellness programs. Fall activities for which the waiver applies are:

USI aerobics -- morning and evening sections scheduled on campus; evening sections at Newburgh, Mt. Vernon, and Evansville's East Side.

Aquanastics, adult swimming, synchronized swimming.

Body shaping for women.

Wells Fargo fitness trail.

A broad range of supervisory/management development, computer usage, professional skills development, and other courses are available for the waiver. For a full listing of sections and times, consult the Fall Noncredit Series Schedule. Waiver forms are available in Continuing Education, Personnel, and division offices. For additional information, call the Office of Continuing Education, extension 1863.

MESSAGE FROM THE AFFIRMATIVE ACTION OFFICE. The Affirmative Action Plan for the University of Southern Indiana outlines the University's commitment to the principles of nondiscrimination and its assurance of compliance with national, state, and local civil rights legislation and enactment.

The University of Southern Indiana reaffirms its present policy of nondiscrimination and equal employment opportunity with respect to recruitment, hiring, training, promotion, and treatment of persons in all organizations, services, and programs under the legal control of the Trustees of the University of Southern Indiana which shall be maintained on a nondiscriminatory basis in regard to race, sex, religion, handicap, age, or national origin at all times.

Included in the plan are guidelines for disabled veterans, veterans of the Vietnam era, and handicapped persons. Also outlined are the guidelines on sexual harassment, acting appointments, and the procedures to follow in filling open positions.

The University of Southern Indiana will continue to take positive actions to ensure against discrimination directed to all persons. All members of the faculty and staff are expected to give full support to the University's commitment to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
