

Dr. David Rice

Vol. VI No. 21

May 31, 1972

Commencement exercises will begin at 6:00 p.m. on June 1, 1972. Faculty who are planning to participate in the ceremony and their spouses are invited to a pre-commencement reception in Room 34 at 5:15 p.m. Robing and forming of the processional will take place in Room 34. All faculty are to be in Room 34 no later than 5:40 p.m.

Special guests and platform persons will robe in the Library Faculty Reading Room, and graduates will robe in Room 126.

Rain Ceremony for Commencement

In the event of rain on Commencement day, the exercises will be held in the Civic Auditorium in downtown Evansville. Please note that the tickets for commencement indicate that the ceremony will be in the Forum on Campus, but this is incorrect. The ceremony will begin at 6:00 p.m. and faculty would robe in mezzanine area if it becomes necessary to move downtown. Radio announcements and notices at school will keep you informed if the ceremony has to be moved.

Outstanding Educators of America for 1972 Named

Dr. Rolla Dyer, Chairman of the Division of Science and Mathematics, and Dr. Gordon Kelley, Director of Allied Health Science and Dental Auxiliary Programs, have been named Outstanding Educators of America for 1972 and their names will be included in the national awards volume, Outstanding Educators of America. They were selected for the honor on the basis of their civic and professional achievements.

Guidelines for selection include an educator's talents in the classroom, contributions to research, administrative abilities, civic service, and professional recognition.

Evansville Campus Receives Film

The Evansville Chapter of the Audubon Society, the ISUE Student Education Association, and C. O. P. E., Citizens Organized to Protect the Environment, presented President Rice with a one-half hour film, "Tragedy of the Commons." The film deals with ecological problems of today and is on file in the Instructional Media Center for classroom use. It will also be available for civic groups interested in viewing the film.

Promotions Approved for 1972-73

Eight Indiana State University, Evansville Faculty members have been approved for promotions, effective August 28, 1972 by the ISU Board of Trustees.

The eight Evansville campus faculty members receiving promotions include from instructor to assistant professor: David V. Deeg, Music; John L. Deem, Business; Yen-Tzu Fu, Mathematics; and Ruthann P. Sturtevant, Life Sciences; from assistant professor to associate professor: Jesse Maxwell Davis, Life Sciences; Robert M. Small, Education; and Wallace C. Wardner, Political Science; and from associate professor to professor: J. Eliseo DaRosa, Economics.

ISUE Represented on Museum Board

Dr. James Blevins, Chairman of the Division of Humanities and Associate Professor of English, and Dr. Darrel Bigham, Assistant Professor of History, have been elected to serve one-year terms on the Evansville Museum's Board of Directors.