The University will be closed again on Monday, January 1, reopening on Tuesday.

HONOR ROLL OF DONORS APOLOGY. "To err is human, but to really foul things up requires a computer!" The Development Office wishes to apologize to those employees whose names were omitted or listed incorrectly on the 1989 Honor Roll of Donors in spite of the fact that every effort was made to provide a complete, accurate list of donors and gifts to the USI Foundation and to the University for the period of July 1, 1988, to June 30, 1989. Please contact the Development Office if your name was not listed. An appropriate correction will be made in a subsequent publication. Employee contributions are valued highly and help sustain excellent programs for our University. Thanks to all USI employees who have made contributions and/or pledges.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Munir Quddus, assistant professor of economics, has been elected assistant general secretary of the Association for Economic Development of Bangladesh for 1989-90. The association, a Washington, D.C.-based group of academics and professionals interested in the economic development of Bangladesh, is organizing a session to be held during the annual meeting of the American Economic Association December 27-30, 1990, in Washington.

WELCOME. Ms. Mary Ann McCulloch is the new administrative secretary in the School of Business. She previously was office general manager with Younker Sports Ltd. in London, Ontario.

CONGRATULATIONS to Dr. Donald D. Bennett, vice president for Student Affairs, and his wife, Jane, on the birth December 15 of a grandson, Jacob Bennett Skipworth in Detroit. His parents are Don and Kim Bennett Skipworth; she is a former USI student.

SYMPATHY. The University community extends its sympathy to Dr. Charles J. Bertram, professor of education and mathematics and certification advisor, and his wife, Mary Alice, in the death December 14 of her father, Mr. Paul Lehman, 83, in Princeton, Indiana.

The University community also extends sympathy to Mrs. Ginger Ramsden, coordinator of Children's Programs and Special Projects, and her husband, Don, in the death December 7 of her mother, Mrs. Vyeanna Elizabeth "Betty" Summers, 73, in Evansville. Memorial contributions may be made to the Vyeanna Summers Student Loan Fund at USI.

NOTES SCHEDULE. The University Notes will NOT be published during Christmas Week. The January 3 issue will include the January calendar. Please call extension 1999 on or before Thursday, December 28, if you have items for the January calendar.

PRINTING SERVICES TO CLOSE. Printing Services, including the Copy Center, will be closed Monday through Monday, December 25-January 1. Departments can make arrangements for auditrans through Mrs. Mabel Hawkins, Copy Center operator, extension 1889, and requests for printing through Mrs. Stephanie Fuelling, Printing Services director, extension 1893.

NOTICE TO ACADEMIC ADVISORS. Students who receive federal or state financial aid must enroll in courses required for their degrees. When all elective course requirements have been met, only courses specific to the students' majors may be used in determining financial aid enrollment status. Students who are unable to enroll in 12 credit hours required for their degrees may not fill out their schedules with coursework not needed for their declared major. This rule also applies to part-time enrollment.

CALENDARS AVAILABLE. The 1990 ISU Federal Credit Union calendars are available in the Payroll Office. Please stop by and pick one up.
