Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002, after seven years as the assistant director.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and host of the 2004 and 2009 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, Hall was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his appointment at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotional activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have four sons, Nathan, Garland, Ty, and Owen, and daughter Mary Claire.

The Campus

Academic Life

The University enrolls 10,702 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. An ever-increasing number of post-graduate programs also are available to students who wish to continue their education, including a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree. Opportunities are available for service learning, study abroad, and internships.

Campus Life

Outside the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Residence Life

Students living on campus have their choice of two types of housing. Students can live in standard apartments or in residence halls which have amenities such as Internet connections, wireless Internet, and cable television. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor and indoor recreation areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven to be overwhelmingly popular with students. Meal plans also are available at the University Center, which is located in the center of campus.

EVANSVILLE, Indiana...A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. A 10,000-seat arena will open in downtown in fall 2011. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draws students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville's coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and restaurants are plentiful. Eastland Mall on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI's suburban location in the rolling hills of western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.

Physical Activities Center

The Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 31 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the setting for many games of regional and national interest during the past 18 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 2009 men's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI volleyball team has a 81-26 home record since 2000, a .757 winning percentage.

With padded chairback seats, back-supported bleacher seats, and a top-of-the line scoreboard and video board, the Physical Activities Center is one of the top Division II athletic venues in the region.

Eagles looking to make history in 2011

The University of Southern Indiana volleyball team is looking to make history when it takes the court in 2011.

With nine players, including All-Region and All-Great Lakes Valley Conference senior middle blocker Danielle LaGrange returning in 2011, seventh-year Head Coach Leah Mercer has her Screaming Eagles eyeing their second straight trip to the NCAA Division II Tournament after qualifying for the program's third trip to the big dance a year ago. If the Eagles can qualify for the NCAA II Tournament in 2011, it would be the first time in the program's history that USI has reached the national tournament in consecutive seasons.

Mercer, who is just 11 wins shy of becoming the program's all-time winningest coach, directed USI to an 18-12 overall mark and a 10-4 mark in GLVC play. The Eagles finished third in the GLVC standings before grabbing an at-large bid into NCAA post-season.

A big reason for the excitement surrounding the Eagles' program is the return of LaGrange, who finished second in the GLVC in kills (3.53) and points (4.11) per set a year ago. Along with fellow senior Krista Coccoaro, a defensive specialist who averaged 2.48 digs per set in 2010, LaGrange provides leadership to an experienced group of players that includes three juniors, four sophomores, and four freshmen.

USI's juniors include outside hitter Abbi Williams, right side hitter Emily Meyer, and setter Ashley King. Williams, who played in all 30 of USI's matches last year, averaged nearly two kills per contest during her sophomore season and will be counted on to fill the void left due to the graduation of All-Region and All-GLVC outside hitter Brittani Oliver.

Meyer, who will compete for a starting job after playing in 18 matches a year ago, averaged 1.13 kills per set last season. King, who also will compete for more playing time after seeing action in 14 matches and 25 sets in 2010, averaged 8.48 assists and 0.56 blocks per frame during her sophomore campaign.

Mercer counted heavily on her freshman class last year and expects that group to excel during their sophomore seasons. Setter Jorae Bradbury was fifth in the GLVC with 10.02 assists per set last season and was the top freshman in assists.

Sophomore middle blocker Emily Diedrich also made a big impact for the Eagles during her first season as she was second on the team with 0.69 blocks per set while racking up 1.64 kills per set and a .295 attacking percentage.

In addition to Bradbury and Diedrich, USI's sophomore class includes defensive specialist Kayla Heldman and outside hitter Kristy Gerardot.

Heldman averaged 3.48 digs per set, including 4.55 digs per set as USI's starting libero, a position she held for the second half of her freshman campaign. Gerardot saw limited time during her first season, playing in seven matches and 11 sets, but is expected to battle for more playing time in 2011.

• 2011 VOLLEYBALL SEASON OUTLOOK •

The USI volleyball team returns nine players from last year's NCAA II Tournament team, including senior defensive specialist Krista Coccaro (left), junior outside hitter Abbi Williams (middle), and sophomore setter Jorae Bradbury (right). Coccaro, one of two seniors on USI's roster in 2011, averaged 2.48 digs per set last season, while Williams racked up 1.88 kills per set. Bradbury finished her freshman year with 10.02 assists per frame.

USI's freshman class includes outside hitters Lauren DeShaney and Fawn Ryan as well as middle blocker Ashley Rakers and defensive specialist Candace Timberlake.

DeShaney was a three-time All-State, All-Conference, and All-Area performer at Xavier High School in Appleton, Wisconsin, while Ryan was a two-time All-State and three-time All-Conference performer at Batesville High School in Batesville, Indiana.

Rakers earned All-State accolades after leading Mater Dei High School (Breese, Illinois) to the IHSA Class 3A state championship during her senior year in 2010, while Timberlake was a two-time All-State and multiple-time All-Conference selection at New Albany High School in New Albany, Indiana.

USI begins the season September 2-3 when it takes part in the Ferris State Invitational in Big Rapids, Michigan. The Eagles, who have the challenge of playing in the GLVC East Division in 2011, a division that features four NCAA II Tournament teams from the 2010 campaign, begin league play September 9 when they visit defending GLVC champion Lewis.

The Eagles will play each team from the East Division in a home-and-home series and will play just four teams from the GLVC West Division. USI begins its 11-match home schedule September 16 when it hosts Bellarmine.

USI plays just four home matches prior to the GLVC/GLIAC Crossover October 14-15, but plays seven straight home matches to conclude October.

Head Coach Leah Mercer

Leah Mercer '02 enters her seventh season as the head coach of the USI volleyball program after leading the Screaming Eagles to NCAA II Tournament for the first time since 2004 and the third time in the program's history.

In 2010, Mercer became second coach in the program's history to reach the 100-win plateau as she guided her squad to an 18-12 overall record and a 10-4 mark in GLVC play, good enough for third in the conference's regular-season standings. In addition, Mercer's Eagles advanced to the GLVC Tournament semifinals for the third straight season and the eighth time in 11 years.

Mercer, who ranks second all-time with 105 career victories at the helm of the USI volleyball program, led her squad to an 18-14 overall mark, 9-5 in the GLVC, in 2009.

Three years ago, Mercer brought the Eagles back to the GLVC Championship for the first time in four years and the sixth time since 2000. Her squad was 18-15 overall, 9-8 in the GLVC, and finished third in the GLVC West Division. The Eagles won six of their final eight matches, including upset wins over nationally-ranked Northern Kentucky University and the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

Throughout Mercer's career with the Eagles', USI has been among the GLVC's best teams at the net. Her squad led the GLVC and was eighth in the nation with 2.43 blocks per set in 2008.

The Eagles' 454 block assists in 2008 eclipsed the program's all-time record, which was set the previous year when USI amassed 450 block assists.

In 2007, Mercer's squad finished 15-14 overall and was fourth in the GLVC West Division with a 9-10 conference mark. The 2007 Eagles set season records for digs (2,147) and block assists.

Mercer led the Eagles to a sixth-place finish in the GLVC regular-season standings with a 17-11 overall mark, 9-7 GLVC, in 2006. In the Great Lakes Region, the Eagles knocked off eventual region champion Ashland early in the season.

In 2005, Mercer led her squad to a 19-13 overall record and an 11-5 mark in the GLVC. Her squad also posted wins over fifth-ranked North Alabama and 11th-ranked Northern Michigan.

A native of Evansville and a 2002 graduate of USI, Mercer served Loyola University (Chicago) as the top assistant coach in 2004.

She helped guide the Ramblers to a 22-9 overall record and a 10-4 mark in the Horizon League. Loyola won the Horizon League Tournament championship and qualified for the NCAA Division I Tournament before falling to the University of Wisconsin in the first round.

Prior to her one-year stint at Loyola, Mercer spent a year as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. She helped lead the Bobcats to a 28-5 overall record, the Mid-American Conference regular-season and tournament titles, and the program's first-ever berth in the NCAA I Tournament.

Mercer, who started her coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Purdue University in 2002, was a two-time All-GLVC performer and helped lead the Eagles to a three-year record of 61-27, including a 49-14 mark as a junior and senior. She averaged 3.1 kills per game during her three seasons of collegiate volleyball. Mercer also averaged 5.9 points and 3.6 rebounds in two seasons with USI's women's basketball program.

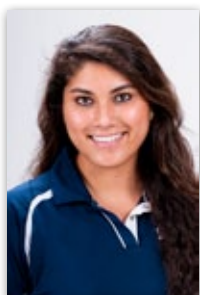

Mercer, who has a bachelor's degree in physical education (teaching K-12) and a master's degree in recreation and sports science (coaching education), is the Screaming Eagles' 11th head coach in the history of the program.

Assistant Coach Kathleen Yony

Kathleen Yony is entering her first season with the University of Southern Indiana volleyball coaching staff and will assist Head Coach Leah Mercer in all aspects of the Screaming Eagles' program.

A native of Miami, Florida, Yony comes to USI after a stellar career at Nova Southeastern University that saw her set the school's all-time record with 1,721 digs. In 2009, Yony earned All-Sunshine State Conference honors as well as AVCA All-South Region accolades after helping Nova Southeastern to the NCAA II Tournament.

Yony, who helped Nova Southeastern claim the NCAA II South Region title as a sophomore in 2008, earned tryouts with the U.S. National Team following her sophomore and junior seasons.

As a coach, Yony has worked with a pair of club teams, the Tribe Volleyball Club (Deerfield Beach, Florida) and the Boomer's Volleyball Club (Ft. Lauderdale, Florida), since 2008. She was the Head Coach for the Boomers Elite 12 team and an assistant coach for the Boomers Elite 13 squad as well as the Tribe Elite 17 team.

"I'm excited to have someone join our staff with the type of resume that Kathleen brings to the table," Mercer said. "She's a winner and an accomplished athlete; and I look forward to her experiences contributing to our continued success at USI. Kathleen will assist in all areas, but will work closely with our defense."

Yony, who graduated from Nova Southeastern in 2011 with her bachelor's degree in psychology, will be seeking her master's degree in social work while at USI.

The 2004 Screaming Eagles went 24-7 overall and 15-1 in the GLVC en route to their second conference title and NCAA II Tournament berth in three years. USI's conference record in 2004 still stands as the program's all-time record for conference winning percentage (.938) and conference wins in a single-season.

The Screaming Eagles made their third appearance in the NCAA II Tournament in 2010 after posting an 18-12 overall record and a 10-4 mark in GLVC play. USI, one of a conference-record five GLVC teams to qualify for the NCAA II Tournament in 2010, finished third in the conference standings before advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament.
