FIRST HOME GAME TOMORROW NIGHT

The Eagles of Indiana State University Evansville will meet Oakland City College tomorrow night at Roberts Stadium in the first home game of the season. Game time is 8:00 p.m. Complimentary tickets for University employees and their families are available in the Athletic Office, L-116 or by phone to Mrs. Vicki Nix, ext. 316. "Meet the Eagles", the attachment to University Notes, lists the players and gives individual player highlights.

RUMMAGE SALE RESULTS

The ISUE Student Senate, in profits from the November 17 Indian Rummage Sale, sent $700.00 Friday to 200 small handicapped children at St. Michael's Association for Special Education in St. Michael, Arizona. The children are Navajo and Pueblo Indians. The money will be used for recreational and educational materials. The Student Senate worked with the Save the Children Federation to arrange the donation. David Buttrum of the Student Senate wishes to thank the faculty, staff, and students for supporting the Indian Rummage Sale.

SECRETARIES CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Secretaries Club of ISUE will meet for their annual Christmas party on December 13 at 12:15 p.m. at the Southwind Restaurant for a Smorgasbord luncheon. There will be a $2.00 gift exchange. All secretaries of ISUE are invited to attend. Reservations should be made by contacting either Wanda Kirchoff or Alma LaFontaine at Ext. 219. Please have reservations in by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 11.

GUEST SPEAKERS

Earl H. Seibert, President of the Office Products and Commercial Sales Division of Smith and Butterfield, was guest speaker for the Records Management class on December 3, 1973. His topic was "Microfilming as a Records Management Tool." Rolland Eckels, Public Relations Director of Mead Johnson and Company, will be presenting his views of public relations and customer relations in the public relations class on December 7 at 1:00 p.m. Mr. Eckels will be in Room 196.

Dr. R. V. Schoder, of the Loyola University, Chicago, noted author, lecturer, and archaeologist, returns to ISUE on Friday, December 7 at 10:00 a.m. in Room 126 to present a critique of the views of Erich von Daniken on astronauts in ancient times and engage in free-wheeling discussion on archaeology in general. He recently appeared in a TV debate with von Daniken.

Thames and Hudson recently announced the publication of Dr. Schoder's latest book, Ancient Greece from the Air, featuring his own aerial photographs and commentaries. Dr. Schoder's other books are Masterpieces of Greek Art (featured by Book-of-the-Month-Club) and An Introduction to Homeric Greek. He has contributed numerous articles to scholarly journals.

He has visited the museums of the world in amassing his collection of 15,000 slides, which have appeared in over 130 books.

A scholar of international scope, he has addressed the Inter-American Classical Conference at Rio de Janeiro and the International Classical Conference at Bonn, Germany. Summer of 1972 found Dr. Schoder on an extensive tour of archaeological sites in Turkey, and last summer he headed a Loyola University archaeological mission at Antibes, France (ancient Antipolis).

Dr. Schoder is one of the founders of the Indiana Classical Conference and of the Vergilian Society and has been professor in residence at the American School in Athens.

The program is sponsored by the History Club of ISUE, and the general public is invited.

TRAINING OF PH.D.'S AS LIBRARIANS PLANNED

The Council on Library Resources said this week it has granted $103,000 to the Graduate Library School of the University of Chicago to support postdoctoral fellowships to be offered over a two-year period beginning in June 1974. The fellowships will be awarded to persons with Ph.D.'s in fields other than librarianship for work toward the M.A. degree in librarianship at Chicago. Fellows will receive full tuition and stipends up to $7,800, depending on need and number of dependents.

The program seeks to enlist candidates who have demonstrated high intellectual achievement in other fields and, if given the opportunity, would find a career in librarianship challenging and rewarding.

Applications for 1974-75 will be received up to February 1, 1974. Awards will be announced April 1, 1974. Interested candidates should apply to the Dean of Students, Graduate Library School, University of Chicago, 1100 East 57th Street, Chicago, Ill. 60637.

Training of Ph.D.'s, cont'd.

CLR also announced it will begin a Library Management Intern Program next year in which five or six potential key administrators of university libraries will be selected for a ten-month program covering aspects of library management. Nominating procedures for this program will be announced next year.

STUDENT COURSE EVALUATION COMPUTER-CARD FORMAT FORMS AVAILABLE

Faculty members interested in using the Student Course Evaluation format for in-class evaluations may request the desired number of cards from Brad Awe, L-124, Ext. 322. Those interested in compiling the numerical data from the SCE cards may do so according to a program being written for this purpose. Access to this program and computer processing of the SCE information should be requested through your Divisional Chairman.

ISUE PARTICIPATES IN FIRST MAJOR CHESS TOURNAMENT

The ISUE Chess Club sent one team of players to participate in the Mid-West Inter-Collegiate Chess Tournament held at Indiana University, Bloomington Campus on November 17 and 18. Eighteen teams from the entire mid-west area were represented. ISUE players were: Michael Ashcraft, a freshman, Michael R. Goebel, a senior majoring in secondary education, Robert Barnett, a freshman majoring in accounting, and Robert Hadley, a sophomore. Michael Ashcraft took the overall tournament honors for his board. This was the first major tournament ISUE has entered.

NEW FACES

Sharon Marie Green, a native of Mt. Vernon, Indiana, has accepted the position of Informationalist in the Student Life Office. Before coming to ISUE, Sharon had been secretary at Schilli Motor Lines, Inc. in Evansville. Her interests include piano, food, and bowling. She and her husband, Robert, reside in Evansville with their one child, Cathy Marie.
