The New Harmony Theatre

The New Harmony Theatre is presenting the final performances of the recent Broadway smash hit and Tony Award-winning musical She Loves Me through Sunday, June 29. Other 1997 productions will be Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream, July 11-27; the Stardust musical revue, August 1-17; and A.R. Gurney's comedy, The Golden Age, August 22-31.

Each production opens on a Friday night; performances will be at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays, 8 p.m. Fridays, 2 and 8 p.m. Saturdays, and 2 p.m. Sundays at Murphy Auditorium. Summer features include Thursday family nights (children 8 to 18, $5, with an adult); Saturday matinee talk backs; and Sunday matinee "Magic Time," when cast and crew explain "how did they do that." Regular admission is $14 - adults, $13 - senior citizens (60-plus), and $12 each - groups of 20 or more. For information, call the box office, 682-3115, or Ms. Jennifer Stuart, marketing director for Southern Indiana Theatres, extension 7110.

The 11th annual production of the outdoor musical Young Abe Lincoln is under way at Lincoln Amphitheatre near Lincoln City, Indiana. The musical will be joined July 10 by the Rodgers and Hammerstein classic, Oklahoma! and the two outdoor musicals then will be presented on alternate nights until the season finale of Young Abe on Saturday, August 16.

Performances are at 8 p.m. daily,

New Harmony Gallery

A two-person exhibition featuring the works of Ms. Cathy Cooper Patterson, now of West Africa, and Mr. Dan Addington of Chicago will open with a reception for the artists from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, June 29, and continue through August 6 at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art.

Ms. Cooper Patterson works primarily with mixed media, combining oils, pastels, pencil, and collage with crafted or found objects, and emphasizing development and exploration of a personal language and iconography. Mr. Addington's paintings include combinations of figurative or anatomical imagery, reflecting references to biology, romantic symbolism, and religious iconography.

Ms. Cooper Patterson received a B.A. in art from Eastern Illinois University and has traveled since, exhibiting in a variety of locations in the U.S. and abroad, including Algiers in 1992 and the American Embassy in Madrid in 1989. She now teaches at the International School of Ouagadougou in West Africa. Mr. Addington received an M.F.A. from Illinois State University and has been included in numerous group and solo exhibitions across the U.S. He is director of Gwenda Jay Gallery in Chicago.

All Gallery exhibitions are free and open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, by appointment on Sunday. For information call 682-3156.

Transfer students and the UCC:

Advisors are reminded that transfer students who enter USI for the first time in or after the fall 1997 semester will be expected to use the University Core Curriculum as their general education program. Statements of this policy and this deadline have appeared in UCC guidebooks and in fall/spring/summer schedules for the past two years.

A policy adopted by the Faculty Senate this spring does have the effect of exempting transfer students from the Critical Thinking and Information Processing requirements of the UCC until a more viable approach to those categories can be found, but this policy does NOT delay implementation of the UCC itself.

Lincoln Amphitheatre

Tuesday through Sunday; matinee performances are scheduled at 1:30 p.m. Thursdays, July 24 and 31 and August 7. (The amphitheatre is closed Mondays, and also will be closed July 4 and 6-8-9, as the cast prepares for Oklahoma!) Season tickets are $25 each, unlimited attendance. Regular admission is $12 - adults, $7 - children (under 13), $10 - senior citizens (60-plus), and $10 each - groups of 20 or more. Sunday family night tickets are $7 each. Kids day starts at 11 a.m. July 17 and offers an abbreviated performance of Young Abe; tickets are $5. Reservations are recommended for all performances. Call 800/264-4223 or Ms. Jennifer Stuart, marketing director for Southern Indiana Theatres, extension 7110.

To anticipate a question: If transfer students take a course at USI during the summer, they still will be allowed to use the "old" general education program, but if they do not enroll here until the fall, they will have missed the cutoff.

Bulletin disposal:

Mr. John L. Deem, assistant vice president for Student Affairs, reminds advisors that the just-released 1997-99 Bulletin does not replace the 1995-97 Bulletin. The 1997-99 Bulletin states graduation requirements and policies for students who enter USI from fall 1997 through 1999. The 1995-97 Bulletin has information for students who entered under that Bulletin and will graduate by meeting requirements stated in it.

Mr. Deem also notes that 1995-97 Bulletins should not be thrown away. They may be sent to the Office of the Vice President for Advancement to be stored and distributed when requested.

Correction:

Mr. Stan Jones is commissioner for higher education in Indiana, not a member of the Commission for Higher Education as was stated in last week's University Notes.

"Hello USI"

The University recently initiated a new e-mail address — hellousi.ncs@smtp.usi.edu — to provide parents and students with easy access to USI for timely answers to any questions. Mrs. Laura McDaniel Hendricks, administrative assistant in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, is responsible for this new service and may contact you periodically in search of answers to those questions. With everyone's help, USI again is expanding services and making the University more accessible to the public. Thanks for your support.

Orientation/registration

More than 2,000 new students and their families are expected to visit the USI campus as summer orientation/registration programs continue June 27-28 and July 7-8, 11-12, 14-15, and 17-18. Other dates are July 16, transfer registration, and August 28, freshmen/transfer registration.

For the summer series, incoming freshmen will participate in a two-day program of placement tests, meeting with advisors, and registration. Their parents will attend a one-day orientation and other information sessions. The program is coordinated by the Student Development Office. For information, call extension 7167.

Reception:

The University community is invited to a farewell reception from 2 to 3:30 p.m. Monday, June 30, in Career Services and Placement, honoring Mrs. Tracy J. Powers, assistant director of the department. She is leaving to become director of the comparable department at the University of Evansville.

Welcome:

The University community welcomes Mrs. Tisha L. Cullison, admissions counselor, and Mr. Don Rogers, custodial worker. Mrs. Cullison is a USI graduate with a B.S. in elementary education; she previously was director of Hands on Discovery Museum. Mr. Rogers was a production worker at Whirlpool Corporation for five years.

Sports —

Women's basketball 8th in attendance

The USI women's basketball team ranked eighth nationally in 1996-97 attendance for NCAA Division II. The Lady Screaming Eagles ranked tenth in 1995-96, while the Great Lakes Valley Conference -- made up of USI and 11 other colleges and universities in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, and Wisconsin -- ranked seventh among Division II conferences for women's basketball attendance. The Lady Eagles were the only GLVC team to make the top 15.

The USI men's team fell in attendance from seventh in 1995-96 to 12th this past season, the first time the Eagles have been out of the top 10 since 1992-93. GLVC men's basketball ranked fifth nationally.

Hapkido for self defense:

The USI Fitness Center in University Shopping Center is offering Hapkido self defense classes free to University students and employees. The first class on Tuesdays, July 8-August 15, already is filled and a second class was added for Thursdays, July 10-August 7. All meet from 6 to 7 p.m. and are taught by Mr. Brad Ray, a USI student who is a first degree black belt student of Mr. Jeff Angel of Mt. Vernon. Classes are limited; about six slots remain in the second session. Call the center, 422-8901, for information on Hapkido or any of the other classes being offered this summer.
