USI names 2016 intern employers of the year

University of Southern Indiana Career Services and Internships has named Evana Automation of Evansville and Trilogy Health Services of Louisville, Kentucky, as the recipients of the 2016 Employer of the Year award.

The award, given to businesses selected from more than 250 participating employers, is based on the overall quality of the internship experience, mentorship provided, leadership opportunities and the employer's support of the philosophy of internships for college students, according to Philip Parker, director of USI Career Services and Internships.

Evana Automotion is a manufacturer of integrated automated assembly systems and automated testing systems. Evana has provided numerous co-op and internship experiences to USI engineering and manufacturing students, and hosts plant tours for USI students and faculty. "My opportunity to work at Evana has enriched my skills in engineering and helped prepare me to enter the workforce," said USI student Nolan Adler of Haubstadt, Indiana. "I am extremely grateful for having been able to work with them and I highly recommend the position to all future potential interns."

Trilogy Health Services has multiple senior living communities across Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio and Michigan, including the West River Health Campus in Evansville. Over the past few years, Trilogy has provided more than 80 internships to USI health services majors at 14 locations.
