NON CREDIT COURSES IN FULL SWING. The six non credit courses offered by the ISUE Office of Continuing Education, now in their second week of classes, are completely filled. Only one class, Genealogy, has openings for two more participants while the others have a waiting list. A total of 195 people are presently enrolled in the non credit courses.

According to M. Edward Jones, Director of Continuing Education, the classes have attracted people from as far away as Tell City, with several from Posey County, Gibson County, and Henderson, Kentucky. He also remarked that he is very pleased with the amount of interest the community has shown in these courses.

TUBERCULIN SKIN TESTS AVAILABLE. The ISUE Health Service, located in AD 115, offers T.B. skin tests to all students and/or employees for a fee of $.50. These screening tests are administered and interpreted by Pat Like, University Nurse. The skin test is recommended by the Vanderburgh County Public Health Department and should be performed annually. For further information or an appointment, stop by AD 115 or call Extension 258.

ISUE MUSICAL IN SECOND WEEK. The ISUE Theatre's first musical production, YOUR OWN THING, is now in its second week of production. An updated rock version of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," the play will be presented at the ISUE Playhouse on March 14, 15 and 16. Tickets may be reserved by calling 464-2526 or purchased at the door. Student tickets are priced at $1.25 and non-students are $2.50 each. Performances begin each evening at 8:15 p.m.

ISUE THEATRE LOGO WINS ACCLAIM. Ernie Kamatoy, an art director for Keller Crescent and designer of the ISUE Theatre Logo, entered this emblem in the ADDY Regional Competition--(American Advertising Federation). The logo, which was entered in two categories--Logo design and Public Service--won second prize in both categories. The logo design was judged against business and corporation entries from Illinois, Michigan and Indiana. ISUE is proud to announce this prize-winning logo for the ISUE Theatre stationery.

The ISUE Theatre emblem, as shown below, employs the traditional symbols of the comedy-tragedy mask, long a symbol of thespian activity.

SPANISH CLUB TO MEET. The Evansville Spanish Community Club will hold their monthly meeting on March 14 at 7:00 p.m. in the Faculty Reading Room of the Library. The program will be on the topic of "Puerto Rico." Two speakers, ISUE students Antonio Diaz and Monserrate Woehler, will give a slide presentation and additional material on Puerto Rico. Interested persons are invited to attend.

ART DEPARTMENT HONORED. Members of the ISUE Art Department have been honored by having works accepted in the Swope Show in Terre Haute. Exhibiting original art pieces are Jack Cascione, Asst. Professor of Art, with two prints; students Mike Deicken, one painting and one sculpture; Dave Straka, one painting, and Jim Greer, one painting.

The exhibit opened Sunday, March 9 and will run for one month at the Swope Gallery. The Swope Show is the largest of its kind in the state of Indiana and is very competitive. ISUE art students and faculty compete against colleges within a 160 mile radius.

GEOLOGY 254 FIELD TRIP. On April 4 the Geology 254 field trip will be held. All students enrolled in the course are expected to attend. Faculty cooperation will be appreciated in allowing any student enrolled in your classes to make up classwork that will be missed because of this trip. Students enrolled in the course are:

FIVE YEAR APPRECIATION DINNER DATE COMING. Ten employees who have served the University for a total of more than half a century will be honored Thursday, March 20 during the annual appreciation dinner for clerical/support personnel.

These ten persons, pictured on the opposite page, will receive five-year pins and certificates during the dinner, which will be held at 7:15 p.m. in the University Center Dining Hall. A social hour, to begin at 6:30 p.m., will precede the dinner. Awards will be presented by Byron Wright, Vice-President for Business Affairs. Accompanying Mr. Wright on the program will be David Rice, President of Campus, and Donald Pitzer, Professor of History, as principal speaker. Dr. Pitzer will discuss the lighter side of student-instructor classroom activity.

Clerical, support and administrative personnel wishing to attend the 6:30 p.m. social hour and the dinner should send reservations and check ($4.00 per person) to the Personnel Office, payable to John Munger, Personnel Director. Spouses, escorts, or dates are invited.

ACQUISITIONS SECRETARY ACQUIRES NEW POST. Cleoramae Graper, Acquisitions Secretary in the Library, has achieved a dream--her own personal goal--that of becoming a permanent, full-time minister. For the past several months, Rev. Graper has performed as minister at the St. Stephens United Church of Christ in Warrenton on a "permanent temporary" basis. The Church has now asked her to become their full-time minister, which is quite a coup since no woman in the conference heads a church body and normally no staff has over one woman as a member.

Rev. Graper was ordained in 1969 after graduating from Defiance College and The Chicago Theological Seminary (cum laude). She has also studied at Wroxton College in England. Formerly Director of Christian Education at St. John's United Church of Christ in Evansville from 1965-7, Rev. Graper especially enjoys Bible study classes, which she hopes to encourage in her new post. That's only one of many plans for St. Stephen's Church, according to Rev. Graper. An enthusiastic advocate of all phases of Bible study, she has presented topics during the Lenten season on "Hymns of Holy Week" and "Symbols of Holy Week." Talking with Rev. Graper on these studies and her plans, it becomes apparent that she abounds with eager enthusiasm.

"St. Stephens Church," Rev. Graper said, "is a small country Church with a very nice middle class congregation with professions ranging from farmers to professional persons. Most are local residents; however, some drive from Evansville for services (approximately 18 miles one way) and one family comes each week from Princeton."

In her new position, Rev. Graper will be officiating at weddings, baptisms, administering communion and other rituals, all duties she has performed before but never with the complete Church responsibility on her shoulders. She looks forward eagerly to the job and is now in the process of moving into the parsonage which is located next to the Church. The fact that this is a small country parish is not a bit disappointing to the Reverend Ms. Graper. One of her most memorable summers during seminary study was spent with a Church in Maybell, Colorado, which, according to Cleoramae, was located amidst the cactus and wilderness of Colorado and was 35 miles into nowhere. St. Stephens, on the other hand, is happily close to her hometown of Haubstadt.

Regular Sunday worship at St. Stephens United Church of Christ is held each Sunday at 9:00 a.m. with Sunday School beginning at 10:10 a.m. If on some Sunday mornings some of her ISUE friends and acquaintances can be counted among the regular parishioners, the Reverend Cleoramae Graper would be most thrilled.

HUMAN RELATIONS WORKSHOP SCHEDULED. The In-Service Institute in Human Relations will hold a workshop Saturday, March 15 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in Room 126 of the Administration Building. The workshop will present the topic of "Increasing the Options for Wholesome Peer Level Experiences Across Racial, Cultural and Economic Lines." Dr. Judy Corder Tully and Dr. Barbara J. Chance, Assistant Professors of Sociology at the University of Texas at Austin, will present the topic and lead discussion. Interested persons are invited to attend.
