USI BASEBALL COACHING STAFF

Tracy Archuleta Head Baseball Coach

Tracy Archuleta has been recognized as the 2010 Division II ABCA National Coach of the Year and the 2011 GLVC Coach of the Year since taking over the program in 2007. He also is fast becoming the winningest coach in the history of the program with 233 victories in six years.

The 2012 season ended with Archuleta leading the Eagles to their sixth straight winning season with a 26-24 mark.

In 2011, Archuleta directed the Screaming Eagles to the program's fourth-straight GLVC regular season title. The Eagles also appeared in the GLVC Tournament for the fifth straight year and into the NCAA II Tournament for the fourth time in five years under his leadership.

In 2010, the national champion Eagles broke 13 team records under Archuleta's direction, including wins in a season (52), winning percentage (.788, 52-14), and winning streak (15). USI also won its third straight GLVC West Division title and its first GLVC Tournament crown since 1993.

The 2010 Eagles also featured two All-Americans, three All-Region performers, and seven All-GLVC players. Six Eagles also earned Academic All-GLVC honors.

In addition to the national Coach of the Year award, Archuleta was named the Midwest Region Coach of the Year by the ABCA and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association.

The 2009 season was nearly as exciting as his first with the Eagles coming two wins from advancing to a second NCAA II Baseball Championship appearance. USI won the GLVC West for a second straight year before finishing third in the GLVC Tournament and the NCAA Division II Midwest Regional. The Eagles were 39-19 overall; fourth best win total in the history of the program.

In the second season, Archuleta and the Eagles won their first GLVC West Division and the first conference regular season title in 15 years. USI finished the year with 36 victories during the regular schedule, tying for fifth all-time in the history of the program.

The Eagles also were ranked as high as sixth nationally in 2008.

Archuleta's first Eagles team made their first appearance in the final four of the 2007 NCAA Division II Baseball Championship and won their first ever NCAA Division II North Central Regional championship. USI also set a school record by posting 43 victories -- 25 wins better than the year before.

The Eagles and Archuleta finished their first season together ranked fourth nationally; had a 43-23 overall record; and 24-15 in the GLVC. USI placed second in the GLVC regular season and fourth in the conference tournament.

For his efforts, Archuleta was named the ABCA Midwest Region Coach of the Year in 2007 and 2010.

In Archuleta's four seasons, USI has won the NCAA II national championship and a pair of NCAA II Midwest Regional titles; won three GLVC West crowns; one GLVC Tournament championship; and appeared in three NCAA II Regionals. Archuleta's Eagles also have featured five All-Americans, one Academic All-American, 13 All-Regional performers, and 20 All-GLVC players.

USI also has sent six players into professional baseball during Archuleta's three years at the helm. Darin Mastroianni, who was drafted by the Toronto Bluejays, advanced to the Major Leagues with the Minnesota Twins in 2012. Jeremy Kehrt, who was drafted by the Boston Red Sox, is in double-A, while Taylor Dennis, who was drafted by the Texas Rangers, is in single-A.

Archuleta came to USI after five seasons at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside that featured a pair of NCAA Division II Tournament appearances and a pair of 40-win seasons. UW-Parkside also advanced to the NCAA II North Central Regional title game in 2005 and was 148-124 (.544) during Archuleta's tenure.

After setting the foundation during his first two years, Archuleta directed the Rangers into the national spotlight with a 41-18 season in 2004, finishing on top of the GLVC standings and earning the school's first-ever NCAA II Tournament bid. Between 2002 and 2004, UW-Parkside went from 13 wins to 41 wins.

Archuleta's Rangers continued their march in 2005, this time with a 45-18 record, picking up the school's first GLVC baseball championship along the way. Again, the club made the NCAA II Tournament, reaching the regional championship game. The 2005 team broke the school record for wins in a season, set by the 2004 squad. In each of those two seasons, the Rangers finished among the top 25 teams in the nation.

In his tenure at UW-Parkside, Archuleta coached the Rangers first All-American, Regional Player of the Year, GLVC Player of the Year, and he had two players sign professional contracts and 11 players earn All-Region honors. He was tabbed GLVC Coach of the Year in 2004.

Archuleta served as an assistant coach for five seasons at Wayne State College (Nebraska) and Central Missouri State University at the NCAA II level before taking the top spot at UW-Parkside.

At Wayne State, he was the infield coach, hitting coach, and recruiting coordinator on the team that captured its first NSIC championship and NCAA II regional birth in the 2001 season. Archuleta helped guide the team's batting average to 25th in the country (2000) and, in 2001, the squad was third in the country in fielding percentage (.969). In 2001, Wayne State finished 26th in the country with a record of 35-10.

During his tenure at CMSU, the Mules won the regular season conference championship with a record of 20-1 and were ranked as high as fifth in the nation. The team picked up an NCAA tournament bid and finished 16th in the country with a 43-10 mark. Archuleta was CMSU's outfield coach and recruiting coordinator. He also assisted the hitters.

The native of Iliff, Colorado, earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Metropolitan State College of Denver and has a master's degree in education from Wayne State College. He has three children, Mikaela, 18, Alex, 12, and Samuel, 9

Jeremy Kuester
Assistant Baseball Coach

Jeremy Kuester enters his fourth season as an assistant coach for USI and Head Coach Tracy Archuleta. This is his first full season as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator, after assuming the roles mid-season last year.

Kuester made transition from player to coach after two seasons at the University of Evansville and two years at Kentucky Wesleyan College. He also has assisted with baseball camps at Evansville, the University of Kentucky, and Austin Peay State University.

The native of Rockport, Indiana, finished his collegiate career with the Aces and the Panthers with a 9-10 mark, while producing a 5.23 ERA and 116 strikeouts in 189.2 innings of work,. He also batted .255 with 51 RBIs and five home runs and was a member of the Aces NCAA Division I Super-Regional squad in 2006.

Kuester, who graduated from KWC in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in sports studies, comes to USI from a family rich in baseball tradition. His father, Brian Kuester '81, who has been the head baseball coach at South Spencer High School (Rockport, Indiana) for 15 years, played for the Eagles (1977-80) and helped coach the team under former USI Head Coach Larry Shown. Ivan Kuester, his grandfather, also was an assistant coach for USI under Shown.

Kuester and his wife, Ashley, and son Bryce reside in Evansville.

Tyler Choate
Assistant Baseball Coach

Tyler Choate enters his second season as an assistant coach for the Screaming Eagles. Choate made the transition from player to coach in 2011 after three seasons with the USI program.

During his career at USI, Choate was a 2011 honorable mention All-American after hitting .342 with seven home runs and 49 RBIs. He also appeared in 10 games as a starting pitcher, compiling a 6-1 mark and 2.37 ERA before reinjuring an elbow injury.

In addition to the All-America honor, Choate was a two-time All-Region, All-GLVC, and Academic All-GLVC honoree. He also received the prestigious GLVC Council of Presidents Academic Excellence Award as a senior.

For his career, he batted .349 with 97 runs scored, 90 RBIs, 33 doubles, six triples, and 17 home runs in 123 games. Choate, who missed most of the 2010 season with his first elbow injury, also was 16-5 on the mound with a 2.99 ERA and 113 strikeouts. The 2.99 ERA ranks ninth all-time at USI.

Choate began his collegiate career by playing two seasons for the Salukis of Southern Illinois University. He transferred after producing a .258 career batting average, 19 RBIs, 23 runs scored, and seven doubles in 51 games.

A 2010 graduate of USI with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Choate is working toward completion of a master of public administration degree.

Get the Edge.

In today's competitive world, every advantage counts. Student athletes want to be successful, both as athletes and as students, but it takes a little more to compete at a national championship level. USI boasts eight individual and team national titles; but, more importantly, has produced 13 Academic All-Americans and routinely has more than 100 student athletes named to the Academic All-GLVC teams. USI student athletes also have an average cumulative GPA of better than 3.1. Screaming Eagles are provided an environment where hard work and determination make them national champions and they

NCAA Division II Community Engagement has recently been expanded to serve the growing needs of the DII community. This redesigned site now features...

A global NCAA Division II Network homepage

- Provides a quick overview of all the subsites within the Division II Network (Community Engagement, Game Environment, D2sa.org and any future subsites)
- Features latest news headlines with links to the full story
- Features newly released videos

New global navigation

- Provides easy access for users to access the subsite of interest (Community Engagement, Game Environment, D2sa.org and any future subsites)
- One-click access to award and recognition information
- Provides a global landing page for information on DII

Robust resource sections

- Updated on each site with an easy-to-search archive of helpful resources
- Searches are filtered by topic or media type and results are sorted by alphabetical listing or date of creation
- Prominent feature boxes draw attention to the newest resources
