INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY EVANSVILLE, EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER
SHERRIANNE STANDLEY, EDITOR DANA HOLDER, ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Volume XVI, Number 49
August 11, 1982

ADDITIONAL ENGINEERING PROGRAMS ACCREDITED. The Division of Engineering Technology of Indiana State University Evansville has received official notification that its baccalaureate programs in civil engineering technology, mechanical engineering technology, and electrical engineering technology have been accredited by the Engineering Accreditation Commission of the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET), formerly the Engineers' Council for Professional Development. The baccalaureate program in mining engineering technology and associate degree programs in civil engineering technology, mechanical engineering technology, and electrical engineering technology were accredited by ABET in 1980.

REGISTRATION ORIENTATION FOR FALL SEMESTER 1982. There will be a Registration Orientation session held in A34 from 11:00 a.m. to noon on Thursday, August 12, 1982. Members of the clerical/support staff directly involved in the registration process have been notified to attend this important orientation session. For additional information, please call the Personnel Office, extension 1770.

SLIDE PROGRAM ON BASIC COMPUTER LANGUAGE. A four-part slide program on the Basic Computer Language is on reserve in the Library's Learning Resources Center. People who have completed Dr. Andrew Jorgensen's computer literacy workshops may find the programs useful as a review. Those beginning the workshop given by Steven Read may find the programs helpful as well. Equipment for viewing the programs is available in the LRC. LRC hours are 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Friday.

NEW CHAMBER PROGRAM OFFERS CLASSES DOWNTOWN. ISUE will participate in Learning in the City, a new Chamber of Commerce project for downtown Evansville which begins September 13. The project offers non-credit courses at times and locations convenient for workers in the downtown area.

Seven other institutions will participate in the program including Indiana Vocational Technical College, St. Mary's Medical Center, University of Evansville, Welborn Hospital, Deaconess Hospital, the YMCA, and the YWCA. While the classes are open to anyone interested, several are specifically designed for workers.

Classes will be offered at a variety of times, including early morning, during the lunch hour, and after work. Classes will be held at the YMCA, Old National Bank, Midwest Federal Savings and Loan, and Southern Securities Building.

CHAMBER PROGRAM (continued). ISUE's course is Effective Business Writing, taught by Sherry Darrell. The course offers 12 CPE's for accountants. Classes will begin the week of September 13. For additional information or to register for classes, call the Chamber of Commerce at 425-8147.

NEW FACES. Don Dailey has accepted a position in the Science and Mathematics Division as biology laboratory supervisor. Don graduated from Central High School in 1978 and from ISUE in 1982. The biology graduate enjoys hunting, fishing, canoeing, and backpacking.

Melanie Sensenbrenner has accepted a position as secretary in Media Services. She is a graduate of North Posey High School and enjoys playing softball. She and her husband Dave spent two summers in California while he was playing professional baseball. Before joining the staff of ISUE, Melanie worked in inventory control at Brown and Hubert, Inc.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION: I wish to express my gratitude to all of the women in the University who were able to help me with my research project in July. It was a very stimulating project because of your generous cooperation. The paper is on reserve in the Library for your perusal. I would be interested in comments anyone might have. Gratefully, Sister Sheila M. Griffin.
