ACCREDITATION REPORTS AND VISITS

Three accreditation reports have recently been prepared by ISUE faculty members. The Report of Indiana State University Evansville to the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education was prepared by Glenn L. Kinzie, Associate Professor of Education with the assistance of the faculty of the Division of Education. The NCATE visitation team will be on campus March 4 through March 7. Members of the team are Dr. Hans Olson, Chairman, Dean of School of Education, University of Missouri-St. Louis; Dr. John Battram, Director of Instructional Media Center, University of Wisconsin, Whitewater, Wisconsin; Dr. Harold Dilts, Supervisor of Secretarial Education, Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa; Dr. Clara Henderson, Dean of School of Education, Central State University, Xenia, Ohio; Dr. Robert Haywood, Vice-President for Academic Affairs, Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas; Dr. Bernell Nelson, Principal of grade school in Roseville, Minnesota; Mr. Murray Smith, public school teacher, Kirkwood, Missouri; Mr. Clifford Grigsby, Director of Teacher Education, State House, Indianapolis, Indiana; Mr. Robert Orth, on staff at Arsenal Technical High School, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dr. Gordon Kelley and faculty members in area of Allied Health Science have prepared two accreditation reports to the Council on Dental Education, American Dental Association; one for the dental hygiene program and one for the dental assisting program. The Council on Dental Education accreditation visit to the campus will be February 5-6-7. Names of the members of the accreditation team are not yet available.

Faculty members involved in these accreditation reports are to be commended for their in depth work and efforts in meeting the report deadlines.
