

For immediate release

News from University of Southern Indiana

USI honor graduate from Mount Carmel

Ryan Bobbitt, son of Linda and Rick Bobbitt of Mount Carmel, Illinois, received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Southern Indiana in December 2006. He graduated magna cum laude.

In the spring he was named an outstanding senior and received the Academic Achievement Award in Business Administration from the USI College of Business. He was a member of the USI golf team. He graduated from Mt. Carmel High School.

University of Southern Indiana, established in 1965, is located in Evansville, Indiana. USI offers graduate and undergraduate programs in five colleges.