USI GRADUATE WINS ROTARY SCHOLARSHIP. Ms. Laura Fredrich, a USI graduate who now is an adjunct instructor in the Division of Humanities, has been named the recipient of the Rotary International Foundation scholarship. It will cover expenses of travel, tuition, lodging, and incidental needs for one academic year at the university of her choice, provided it is outside the United States. Ms. Fredrich was selected from among 50 applicants from colleges and universities in Indiana counties south of Indianapolis. She plans to use the scholarship to pursue graduate studies in Latin American History and is preparing applications to universities in Caracas, Venezuela; Porto Alegre, Brazil, and Buenos Aires, Argentina. The National University of the South in Buenos Aires is her preference.

Ms. Fredrich is the daughter of Mr. Jay Fredrich, chairman of the Division of Engineering Technology at USI, and his wife, Cecelia. A 1981 graduate of Memorial High School, she attended USI as a recipient of the Bronstein Scholarship for the study of art. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in art in 1984, then spent three months studying Spanish at Universidad Iberro Americano in Mexico City. She later received a graduate fellowship for the study of Spanish at Indiana State University and was awarded the Master of Arts degree in Spanish with honors from ISU in 1986.

The announcement of Ms. Fredrich's selection was made January 20 at an Evansville Rotary Club awards luncheon. USI President David Rice, a Rotary member, reported the luncheon became a tribute to the excellence of USI students. Mr. John Claybon, a USI senior English and economics major, was first alternate among the 50 entries in the competition.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES. Thursday and Friday, January 29-30, are the final days for voting on the 1987 Homecoming King and Queen, who will be introduced at half-time of the Eagles-IU/PU-Ft. Wayne basketball game at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, January 31. A full week of Homecoming activities are under way (the complete schedule can be found at the back of University Notes). The USI Alumni Association will hold its annual Homecoming Reception following the Saturday night game, with the University community invited to attend the event in the gymnastics area of the Physical Activities Center. Special recognition will go to the Class of 1972 on its 15th reunion; the Class of 1977, 10th reunion; and Class of 1982, 5th reunion.

REPORT FROM THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS. Petitions from the Division of Education, Humanities, Engineering Technology, and Allied Health have been received and approved. They are:

NAMES IN THE NEWS. The Canadian Embassy has notified Dr. Charles T. Barber, professor of political science, that he will receive a Canadian Studies Faculty Enrichment Program grant. The $1,500 award supports travel in Canada as preparation for offering a course on the politics of Canada in 1988.

Mr. Tim Buecher, director of Admissions, has been asked to serve on the selection committee for the Alcoa Foundation Sons and Daughters Scholarship Program for the third consecutive year, and to chair the committee for the past two years. The committee membership also includes representatives from the University of Evansville and Kentucky Wesleyan.

Dr. Walter Jermakowicz, associate professor of business, will present a paper and make a presentation on the topic, "The Influence of Organizational Structures of Effectiveness: A Theoretical and Empirical Approach," at the 23rd Midwest Business Administrators Association meeting March 26-27 in Chicago.

Dr. Marwan Wafa, assistant professor of business, has had his paper, "An Investigation into the Factors Influencing the Success of Decision Support System (DSS) in the Construction Industry," selected for presentation at the Western Decision Sciences meeting March 8-13 in Palm Springs, California.

HUMANITIES FORUM. Mr. John McNaughton, professor of art, will discuss the large-scale sculpture created by himself and several USI students this past summer at Artpark in New York in a Humanities Forum on Tuesday, February 3. The sculpture is expected to remain at the park for at least two years. Mr. McNaughton's slide presentation will be made at 12:30 p.m. in Forum II. All interested persons are invited to attend.

ONE-PERSON SHOW AT NEW HARMONY. The New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art will present Ms. Anne Horwedel in a one-person show February 1-25, opening with a reception from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, February 1. Ms. Horwedel, a California native, now living in Otterbein, Indiana, received a B.A. from UCLA and an M.A. from Purdue University, and has shown her work extensively in the Midwest and throughout the United States. She celebrates womanhood in her canvases, but does not consider herself a feminist. A series of works from 1980-82 highlights lusciously painted cakes, each from a distinct phase of life, such as birthdays and weddings. In her most recent series, Ms. Horwedel uses symbols from history, mythology, and religion to express a spiritual beauty. Chalice, crowns, and wreaths surround women from Elizabethan and contemporary society to bring each work to life. Sequins, netting, and clay applied to the paintings create depth and add to the overall pattern. Luxurious fabrics such as moire satin and antique paisley are recreated in rich detail, to provide the background for Ms. Horwedel's historical scenes. She will show around 20 paintings at New Harmony. For those wishing to learn more about the stories behind and symbolism in her work, she will conduct an informal discussion on the iconography in her paintings at 2 p.m. Sunday (during the reception). The New Harmony Gallery's exhibition program is made possible in part by the Indiana Arts commission and the National Endowment for the Arts.

WHITE ELEPHANT AUCTION ITEMS. The Secretaries and Associates Club will be collecting your White Elephants (defined by the American Heritage Dictionary as "those items of dubious or limited value, an embarrassing possession, or an article, ornament, or household utensil no longer wanted by its owner.") So please bring your unwanted, no longer needed, or embarrassing treasures to one of the convenient collection points -- the Purchasing Office (Mrs. Debbie Weigand, extension 1848), the Physical Plant (Ms. Donna Laymon, extension 1782), the Library (Ms. Debbie Clark, extension 1913), or call Ms. Lois Felstead, extension 1763, for arrangements to pick up anything you want to donate. Receipts will be available. Please help make this event the biggest ever! The auction will be held from 11:45 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. Thursday, March 19, on the UC bridge. Everyone is welcome. Plan to attend!

NEW HARMONY SEASON TICKET REMINDER. January is season ticket month at the New Harmony Theatre, an opportunity to save more than 25 percent on the regular ticket price. The 1987 productions -- "Dirty Work at the Crossroads," "Gin Game," "Greater Tuna," and "Oklahoma" -- represent 100 years of "the Golden Age of American Theatre." Tickets are $5 each when bought as a subscription during January, a savings of $8 for the season; during the season, the $5 price will be available only to groups of 20 people or more. Contact the New Harmony Theatre box office, (812) 682-3115, for information or to purchase a subscription.

VARSITY CLUB LAS VEGAS NIGHT. The USI Varsity Club's fourth annual Las Vegas Night will get under way at 6 p.m. Friday, February 13, in the Florida Room at the Executive Inn. Dinner tickets, necessary for admission, are $12.50; a buffet will be served at 6:45 p.m., with a cash bar to be available from 6 to 11:30 p.m. Only 400 tickets will be sold; Monday, February 9, is the deadline for paid reservations.

MEDICAL SEMINAR SERIES. Dr. Steven Seiler of Bristol-Myers in Evansville will be the next speaker in the Evansville Center for Medical Education's seminar series. His topic for the session at 3 p.m. Friday, January 30, in Room 328 of the Health Sciences Building, University of Evansville, will be "Isolated Muscle Membrane Vesicles as Model Systems."

FINANCIAL AID WORKSHOP FEBRUARY 1. The sixth annual Tri-State Financial Aid Workshop sponsored by the USI Financial Aid and Admissions offices will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, February 1, in Forum I. March 1 is the deadline to file for college financial aid for the 1987-88 academic year. The workshop will provide explanations of various types of federal, state, and institutional aid available, such as loans, grants, scholarships, and work-study programs, as well as how financial need is determined and how programs have changed in recent years. Experienced financial aid counselors will be on hand to provide confidential assistance in completing application forms. Students need not be planning to attend USI next fall to attend the workshop.

BREAKFAST TO COMMEMORATE FLOOD CREST. The University, the Vanderburgh County Historical Society, Grandy's restaurant, and the McCurdy Residential Center are sponsoring a breakfast at 8 a.m. Saturday, January 31, commemorating the worst day of the disastrous 1937 flood. The Ohio River was 25 miles wide when it crested on January 31, 1937, at 53.75 feet, the highest level ever recorded in this area. The operations center for flood relief was at the McCurdy, where the breakfast will be held. The sponsors hope to attract people who served as volunteers for the relief organizations, including the Army Corps of Engineers, the Coast Guard, American Red Cross, Girl and Boy Scouts, and the Works Progress Administration, as well as the general public. Reservations are $3 per person and can be made on a first-come, first-served basis by calling Ms. Mary Dannettell at 422-2031 or Dr. Robert L. Reid, USI vice president for Academic Affairs, at extension 1816.

WSWI TO AIR ANNIVERSARY FLOOD PROGRAM. Dr. Gordon Kelley, chairman of the Division of Allied Health, will feature a 30-minute program originally aired by WLW on the 20th anniversary of the 1937 flood during his weekly Radio Theatre program at 11:30 a.m. Saturday, January 31, on WSWI, the University radio station. The program will include interviews with Ms. Ruth Lyons and another on-air personality about their personal experiences, plus on-the-scene flood reports that were part of an NBC "On the Spot" transcription at the time of the flood.

WILL YOU HELP CHANNEL 9? WNIN-Public Television still needs people who can telephone businesses which donate auction items. Calls are being made from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, through February 28. Volunteers may assist once or as often as they can. Call Ms. Melinda Holmes at 423-2973.

RELIGION AND THE UNIVERSITY. Dr. Thomas M. Rivers, professor of English, will lead a discussion on "Character and Virtue (and the Composing Process)" at the Religion and the University meeting at 12 noon Monday, February 2, in UC 308. All interested faculty and staff members are invited to join the discussion group.

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES. "Top Hat" (1935, 108 minutes) Director: Mark Sandrich; cast: Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Lucille Ball. This film is one of the fastest moving Astaire-Rogers musical comedies and one of the best examples of the '30s musical genre. Irving Berlin wrote the musical score. It will be shown at 2 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, February 3, in Forum I; it is free and open to the public.

RECRUITING INTERVIEWS. The following organization will have representatives on campus to conduct job interviews in the coming week: Monday, February 2 -- L. S. Ayres.

SPORTS THIS WEEK. Men's Basketball -- Ashland at USI, 7:30 p.m. Thursday, January 29; IU/PU-Ft. Wayne at USI, 7:30 p.m. Saturday, January 31.

Women's Basketball -- Ashland at USI, 5:15 p.m. Thursday, January 29; IU/PU-Ft. Wayne at USI, 2 p.m. Saturday, January 31.

WSWI PROGRAM SCHEDULE. Daily features to be heard on WSWI, the University radio station found at 82 on the AM dial, include: the Midday Report, 12-12:30 p.m.; Afternoon Program of Rock (with hourly news updates from AP), 12:30 p.m. to sign off; and Afternoon Report, 4-4:30 p.m. Saturday features are Music from Oberlin, 9-10 a.m.; Morning Classics, 10-11:30 a.m.; and Big Band Review with Joe Hulgus, 1-4 p.m. Daily programs this week will be:
