The Iota Nu Chapter of Sigma Delta Pi, the Spanish honorary society, has been reactivated at the University of Southern Indiana, with seven students inducted as "charter" members of the group in a ceremony Wednesday, December 5.

The students are Judy M. Berberich of RR 4, Mt. Carmel, Illinois; Lynette R. Imel of 7111 Walden, Newburgh; and Kimberly Devlin, 1415 Queen Anne Drive, Douglas F. Daza, 560 W. Mt. Pleasant Road, Thalita A. Floyd, 6200 Broadway, Shelly A. Moody, 204 Leslie, and Michael J. Tyree, 1220 Western Hills, all of Evansville.

Four honorary members also were brought into Iota Nu: Charles Ferber of 3419 New Harmony Road, Evansville, a graduate student, and three high school Spanish teachers - Paul Dayton of Mater Dei, Evansville; Montserrat Whoeler of Bosse, Evansville; and Deborah Whitfield of North Posey, Poseyville, Indiana.

Students must have had at least three years of college-level Spanish in which they maintain at least a 3.0 grade point average to be eligible for Sigma Delta Pi. Dr. Guillermo Latorre, assistant professor of Spanish, is the faculty sponsor for the reorganized USI chapter.
