HEALTH CAREERS DAY

The School of Nursing and Health Professions will have a Health Careers Day from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday, February 27, in UC350 for USI students who are interested in becoming health-care professionals or who do not have specific majors. All USI health careers will be represented. Faculty members and students will be available to answer questions and assist interested students, who are invited to drop in any time during the day. Call Dr. Gordon E. Kelley, associate dean for Health Professions, extension 1702, for additional information.

USI HOMECOMING. USI's 1991 Homecoming will be Saturday, February 9, when the USI Eagles will play Ashland -- the women at 1 p.m., the men at 3:30 p.m. The USI Homecoming King and Queen will be crowned at halftime of the men's game.

The USI Alumni Association invites all faculty and staff members to a reception in PAC200 following the games, featuring music by Doc Stocker's Dixieland Muskrats. To reserve basketball/reception tickets for $2 per person, call the Alumni Affairs Office, extension 1924. A limited number of free tickets are available to faculty on a first-come, first-served basis.

VISITING ARTIST. The USI Art Department and New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art will sponsor the visit of Ms. Katharine Carter, a New York painter, on Thursday and Friday, February 7-8. She will discuss "Highlights of the New York Art Season" at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at The Athenaeum in New Harmony. Students and area artists can receive advice on getting started with New York galleries at 2 p.m. Friday in Forum II.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Charles T.

Barber, chair of the Department of Philosophy and Political Science, participated January 31 and February 1 in the Gulf Crisis Update Conference at Indiana State University. The ISU Office of International Studies had invited him to make a presentation on "International Organizations and the War."

WELCOME. The University community welcomes Mrs. Martha W. Chapin, administrative secretary in the School of Liberal Arts. She received a B.S. in journalism from the University of Kansas and previously was advertising/promotions manager for Marlin Oil Company in Bellwood, Pennsylvania.

SYMPATHY. The University community extends its sympathy to the family of Mr. Robert F. Grimm, engineering drafter with the Physical Plant and member of the USI Varsity Club, who died Saturday, February

USI THEATRE TO PRESENT THE TIMELY ANTIGONE

The war in the Middle East and the Eastern European struggle for democracy makes Jean Anouilh's Antigone a timely presentation for USI Theatre.

The play originally was staged in Paris in February 1944 when, like the political climate of the Sophoclean Antigone, the French capital was filled with unrest and uncertainty due to the German occupation of France. Anouilh used Antigone to construct an indictment of the Nazi political machine, but the brilliance of his play is found in his ability to create sound arguments for both sides of the issue -- state rule vs personal or individual rights.

In an effort to insure production of the play, Anouilh created a Creon -- the state representative -- whose superior intellect and keen skills in debate enabled him to investigate the intricacies of the issue with finesse; the Nazis found in him a learned dictator and champion of dictatorial rule. At the same time, Creon's brutal tactics were identifiable with Hitler's thugs; the French resistance could find inspiration in the plight and character of Antigone. Anouilh's dynamic treatment deals with the anxieties of war and political unrest, as well as the struggle for peace and human understanding.

Mr. Steven Williford, director of theatre, is directing the production. Mr. David Angle and Ms. Darla Burlash, USI Theatre veterans, have the lead roles of Creon and Antigone, with the all-student cast also including Mr. Jeremy Beck, Ms. Theresa Burnell, Mr. Gary Conder, Ms. Cris Cunningham, Ms. Elizabeth Dietsch, Mr. Shane Foster, Ms. Wendy Knipe, Mr. Tom Kough, Ms. Leslie McKibben, Mr. Randy Murray, Ms. Tiffany Schriber, and Mr. Daniel Uhde. Mr. Alan E. King, assistant professor of communications, is designing sets and lighting, while Evansville native Ms. Pat Tapp, who recently completed graduate work at Brandeis University, has joined the group as costume designer.

The play will be presented at 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, February 26-March 2, and 2 p.m. Sunday, March 3, at USI Theatre, 3001 Igleheart. Tickets are $5 for general admission, $3 for students, with special rates for groups of 12 or more. Call extension 1734 for tickets or information.

2. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

BEST WISHES. The University community offers best wishes for a speedy recovery to Mr. John Hollinden, former USI Eagle basketball standout who underwent surgery to amputate his lower legs January 31 in Deaconess Hospital. His mother reports he is doing extremely well, occupying his time with taping musical selections for the Mid-America Singers, and would welcome cards and letters from the USI family, room 4615 at Deaconess. A cheer basket is being assembled in University Relations. Please call extension 1755 if you have items to include.

FINANCIAL AID. The USI Financial Assistance Office will sponsor a series of workshops providing assistance in filling out financial aid forms prior to the March 1 deadline. Sessions will be held at 3 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, February 19, in UC353; and 10 a.m. and 3 and 6 p.m. Wednesday, February 20, in L100. In addition, the Student Government Association will sponsor a Financial Aid Town Meeting at 11 a.m. Wednesday, February 13, in UC350, and the Financial Assistance Office will offer an assistance program at 2 p.m. Sunday, February 17, in Forum I, for high school students and their parents. Mr. James A. Patton, Student Financial Assistance director, is coordinating the programs. College Goal Sunday, sponsored by state agencies and The Lilly Endowment, will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, February 10, in C. K. Newsome Center and Ivy Tech-Southwest for area high school students and parents.

TIAA/CREF MEETING. TIAA/CREF participants are invited to attend an overview of the TIAA/CREF Retirement Plan at 3 p.m. Tuesday, February 12, in L100. Mr. Doug Calnek, plan representative, will be available to answer individual questions about the plan and tax-deferred annuity.

FACULTY RESEARCH AND CREATIVE WORK AWARDS. March 18 is the deadline to submit proposals for the Faculty Research and Creative Work Awards, which fund full-time faculty members' creative work, applied research, and basic research. Proposals to initiate new research or creative work, continue research or work in progress, or complete a project are eligible for funding.

Submit the original and seven copies of the proposal to the Office of Grants and Sponsored Research, AD117-A, by 5 p.m. Monday, March 18 (the first Monday following spring recess). The Faculty and Academic Affairs Committee will evaluate the proposals. Awards may fully or partially fund a proposal. The Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs will notify applicants by April 18.

Additional copies of policy guidelines and proposal outlines are available in AD117-A.

ALUMNI TELEFUND

Two USI Days are slated for the Alumni Association's 18th annual Telefund -- on Saturdays, February 9 and 16. On those days, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., USI faculty and staff -- especially USI graduates who now are USI employees -- will be calling alumni to ask for their financial commitment in support of the USI Alumni Association.

If you can't volunteer for those Saturdays, perhaps one of the remaining Telefund dates will fit your schedule: 5-9 p.m. on February 6, 7, 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, and 20. Faculty and staff are asked to make a commitment to work one four-hour session. This year's Telefund again will be held in the broadcast studios of WNIN-Channel 9, 405 Carpenter Street. Call Mrs. Nancy L. Johnson, Alumni Affairs director, or Mrs. Tracy Wilson, senior secretary, to sign up -- extension 1924.

GRANT WRITING WORKSHOP. Dr. Peggy F. Harrel, coordinator of Grants and Sponsored Research, will conduct a one-hour grant writing workshop at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, February 21, in UC351. This workshop is useful whether you are considering writing a proposal to internal funding programs such as the Faculty Research and Creative Work Awards or Extended University Program, or to an external funding source such as a government program or a foundation. Reservations are necessary so that materials will be available. Call extension 7016 by Tuesday, February 19, to register; state name, type of program, and phone number.

FINAL NOTICE. February will be final distribution of USI Grant Deadlines unless sufficient interest is expressed to prove the audience exists to justify the expense. Vote for continuing publication by calling extensions 7016 or 7015 this week.

OLD ECONOMY VISITORS. Twelve interpreters and other staff members from Old Economy in Ambridge, Pennsylvania, will visit New Harmony February 13-16, helping launch 1991 festivities in the community. One of the events they will attend will be Harmoniefest, a pitch-in dinner at 6:30 p.m. Friday, February 15, in Thrall's Opera House, open to new and renewing members of the Historic New Harmony Society and Harmonie Associates. Harmonifest commemorates the signing of the Articles of Association which established the society in 1805, a day that became the official time for new members to be taken in. Ms. Hilda Kring and Ms. Lieselotta Keene of Old Economy, the third and final Harmonist settlement, will speak at 7 p.m. on Harmonist cooking. For information, contact Historic New Harmony, 464-9595.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES. Campus Ministry will conduct Ash Wednesday services at 12 noon in UC353 and 4:30 p.m. at MASH on February 13. All interested persons are invited to attend.

LOST AND FOUND. As a reminder, any items found must be turned in immediately to the Lost & Found Department in the Physical Plant. Call extension 1700 or 1782 to have items picked up, or send them via the campus courier service. If you have lost an item, please call the same extensions to see if it has been found.

VEHICLE RESERVATIONS, CALL-IN WORK ORDERS. Effective immediately, please call extension 1700 in the Physical Plant office for all vehicle reservations or call-in work orders.

ROTARY SCHOLARSHIP. March 1 is the deadline to submit applications for the 1992-93 Rotary Foundation Scholarships, designed to further international understanding and friendly relations among people of different countries. Application must be made through the Evansville Rotary Club. USI applicants may contact Dr. Mehmet

CUSTOMER SERVICE QUOTE from Human Resources Department workshop participants:

"Customer service is providing needed services to customers in a courteous, concise, and informative manner. If unable to provide service immediately, refer them to someone who has information and assure them that if they need additional help, let you know and you will try to get an answer for them another way."

C. Kocakulah, associate professor of accounting, OC3018 or extension 1730, for information or application forms.

LITERATURE/LANGUAGE SOCIETY TO MEET. The Evansville Society for Literature and Language will meet at 4 p.m. Thursday, February 7, in UC353. The topic, "Writing to Learn and Learning to Write," will be discussed by Dr. James H. Divine, USI assistant professor of education; Mr. Andy Lindauer of Central High School; and Mr. Larry Caldwell of the University of Evansville. The public is invited; there will be refreshments. For information, call extension 1811.

HEALTH NOTES from the Human Resources Department

Computer Terminals: Comfort Exercises -- During a day of sitting at a computer with arms extended to the keyboard, muscle tension and stiffness can build in neck, back, shoulders, hands, wrists, and even fingers. Short, simple exercises at the computer can fit into the work schedule to prevent these discomforts. Do as many as time permits. Start with two simple warm-ups:

Breathing - Inhale through your nose, exhale through your mouth, letting your stomach expand and contract; repeat 6 times.

Reaching high - Raise arms overhead, stretch as high as possible, bring arms back down; rest a moment; repeat 2 times.

Continue with comfort exercises:

Neck - Glide head back as far as possible, keeping head and ears level, then glide head forward; repeat 3 times.

Upper back - Raise hands to shoulders; using arms, push shoulders back; keep elbows down; hold for 15 seconds; repeat 3 times.

Lower back - make sure your chair is stable if it has rollers; lower head and slowly roll body as far as possible toward knees; hold 10 seconds; push body up with your leg muscles; repeat 3 times.

Shoulder - raise arms to the sides, elbows straight; slowly rotate arms in small circles forward, then backward; lower arms; repeat 3 times.

Hands and wrists - put right elbow on table, hand raised; with left hand, gently bend right hand back toward forearm; hold 5 seconds; repeat on the other side.

Fingers - hold hands out in front, palms down; spread fingers apart as far as possible; hold 5 seconds, then make a tight fist; repeat 3 times.

ball -- IU/PU-Fort Wayne at USI, 7:30 p.m. Thursday, February 7; Ashland at USI, 3:30 p.m. Saturday, February 9.

Women's Basketball -- IU/PU-Fort Wayne at USI, 5:15 p.m. Thursday, February 7; Ashland at USI, 1 p.m. Saturday, February 9; USI at IU-Southeast, 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, February 12.
